

GREAT VICTORY FOR GREEKS

LAST SMALLPOX CASE REPORTED TUESDAY

Patient Released From Hospital and Quarantine Removed—2 Suspicious Cases Reported

In view of the fact that no new cases of smallpox have been reported since Tuesday the board of health is hopeful that the tide has turned.

Two suspicious cases were reported by telephone, this forenoon but upon examination it was found that one of the cases was ivy poison and the other pediculosis. A Prince street woman took two of her children to the board of health office today to have them examined. Both children had a slight rash on their faces, necks, arms and legs. There wasn't any doctor at headquarters when the woman called and Agent Bates, who has had thirty years' experience in the board, succeeded in calming the woman's fears. He pronounced it prickly heat and the woman went to the dispensary, next door, for a lotion.

A few days ago a woman called the board of health office by telephone and told of a certain doctor who had been visiting a house in the street in which she lived. "The doctor made two calls yesterday and one this morning. I think it must be smallpox but the door is not corded," said the woman. She gave the doctor's name and Agent Bates called him by telephone. Mr. Bates asked the doctor if he had been visiting a certain street. The doctor said he had and Mr. Bates asked if it was a smallpox case. "A nine pound boy and no trace of smallpox," replied the doctor.

Patients Released Today

One patient, Donalds Plante, was released from the smallpox hospital today and two other families were released from quarantine at their homes, quarantines having been raised at the Plante home, 78 South street; the Pelletier home, 139 Fletcher street and at the home of the Lanters, 489 Moody street.

Of the twenty cases at the hospital seven have been released. There are ten cases at the French American orphanage and four of the five cases not taken to the hospital have been released. There are still twenty cases under observation and a majority of these will be released within a few days.

CAPTURE LAHANA FROM BULGARIANS

Lahana is Considered Key to Serres—Official Report of How the Greeks Accomplished Victory

SALONIKI, July 5.—The Greek troops today captured from the Bulgarians the small town of Lahana on the railroad from Saloniki to Serres. It is considered the most important position in the vicinity and the key to Serres, which lies about 20 miles to the northeast. The losses on both sides were considerable.

STORY TO GREEK PAPER HERE EXPLAINS GREEKS' COMPLETE VICTORY

NEW YORK, July 5.—A graphic official story between the Greeks and the Bulgarians at Kilkish, 20 miles north of Saloniki, was received by the Greek daily newspaper Atlantis today direct from Saloniki. It says:

"The battle between the Bulgarians and the Greeks at Kilkish ended at 10 o'clock on the morning of July 4 in the complete defeat of the Bulgarians after a severe bombardment of the town by the Greeks, who carried the place at the point of the bayonet. The town was then occupied by a part of the Hellenic troops while their comrades continued the pursuit of the Bulgarians, who fled in disorder, leaving many of their field and machine guns in the hands of the victors. More than 60 cannon were captured.

Kilkish Destroyed By Fire

"Kilkish was almost completely destroyed by fire before the Bulgarians fled.

"The battle in front of Kilkish was more important than any of those fought by the allies in the campaign between Turkey and the Balkan states. The Bulgarians, who were much superior in numbers, had surrounded the town with defensive works and trenches nearly six feet in depth and very narrow so that their occupants were sheltered from the splinters of shells.

Fired With Great Precision

"Firing started at eight o'clock Thursday morning. The Bulgarians had stationed their heavy artillery on the heights from which they fired with great precision, the distances having been marked before the opening of hostilities. The guns first opened at a range of two miles. Their field artillery was too much exposed on the plain below and they found it impossible to bring it into action.

"The Greek infantry received orders to advance by short rushes at the double so as to render ineffectual the marking of the distances by the Bulgarian artillery.

"By 11 o'clock the Bulgarians had come to the conclusion that it was impossible to stop the Greek advance, so they started a great conflagration along their front for a distance of over two miles to hide the movements of their army.

Darted Through Flames

"The Greek light infantry in their kilts, however, dashed forward at the run, darted through the circle of flames and brought about the complete demoralization of the Bulgarian army.

"In the meantime the Greek artillery had taken up positions and opened a fierce fire which soon reduced the Bulgarian batteries to silence.

"Then the Greek infantry, with bayonets fixed, had arrived within 30 feet of the Bulgarian trenches.

Furious Hand to Hand Fight

"Here ensued a wild spectacle, Greeks and Bulgarians being mixed together in a furious hand to hand fight.

"At five o'clock on Friday morning the Bulgarian lines had been pierced but one of the heights around Kilkish still held out. It was occupied by a company of Bulgarians.

"The Greek light infantry dashed up the side of the hill to dislodge them and came into fierce contact which ended by the Bulgarians abandoning their munitions and their wounded and flying in disorder toward Dolran, further north, with the Greeks troops pursuing them without pity.

Trenches Filled With Dead

"The trenches around Kilkish were filled with dead.

"The Greek army from Ghevelli has crossed the river Vardar and is marching to the assault of the impregnable gorges of Torke, northwest of Dolran. The resistance offered there by the Bulgarians is much greater than at Kilkish but they are gradually retreating and the capture of Dolran by the Greeks is merely a question of hours.

Overwhelming Victory

"The victory of the Greek forces at Nigrita was also overwhelming.

Gen. Sotillos, the commander of the Greek division has telegraphed that a steamer be sent to Stavros to embark a Bulgarian regiment with 10 of its officers taken prisoners at Nigrita.

"It is said that the Bulgarian troops when they abandon the towns and villages devastate them after massacring the women and children in a barbarous manner."

Continued to page four

Game Postponed

American at New York—New York Washington game postponed, rain. Double header Monday.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Heat is Oppressive

Mercury Hovers Around 100 Today

Although only one heat prostration was reported at the hospitals yesterday it was, according to the thermometers throughout the city, the second hottest day of the season. In the early morning the temperature was lower but toward noon it climbed up and during the afternoon the heat was intense. The evening was cooler and a slight breeze was in evidence.

At the Locks and Canals yesterday the mercury reached 95 degrees and hovered in that vicinity during the afternoon. On Prescott street a thermometer registered 97 degrees while on Central street one registered 96 degrees and ranged from 94 to 96 during the afternoon. The sun beat down in Merrimack square during the afternoon and as a result many took to the waiting room and other shady spots for shelter.

During yesterday afternoon many local people journeyed to the summer resorts and the car riding was especially heavy. The Canobie Lake car line was well patronized and the breeze was very enjoyable.

The conditions today are something similar to those of yesterday although a warm breeze is moving. At the Locks and Canals this noon the mercury needle was registered at 97 while in Merrimack square under an awning the thermometer read at 95. On Central street where it had been shady all night the thermometer was registered at 95.

As far as could be learned at 2 o'clock this afternoon there have been no serious heat prostrations in this city today. This may be due to the fact that the mills are closed as most of recent prostrations have been recorded as being in the mills.

EVERY LITTLE BIT HELPS

$1300 Collected for Lots on So. Common

The superintendent of parks collected about $1300 for lots on the South common and he says it will cost about $300 to clean the common, leaving $1000 to the good. The lots were not sold on the ground this year as has been the custom heretofore, but were sold from plans in the superintendent's office. Other years the sale of lots extended over two or three days and this year the lots were sold in less than half a day. It was simply a question of picking your number and paying the price. The park department men started the clean up at Fort Hill this morning and moved from there to the South common where they worked all day.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

FOR 64 YEARS

This Bank Has Never Paid Less Than

4 Per Cent.

Interest Begins July 12

City Institution for Savings

CENTRAL STREET

WANTEN WANTED

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

TWO MEN JUMPED FROM BURNING HOUSE

Dwelling and Furniture on East Merrimack Street Burned This Morning

Two men whose names are said to be La Fleur, narrowly escaped being burned to death last night when the house at 578 East Merrimack street, in which they were sleeping, caught fire and they were obliged to jump from the second story window in order to escape with their lives.

The men were the only occupants of the house and the roaring of the flames which started in the lower part of the house awakened them. Upon opening the door of their room they saw that the whole lower part of the house was ablaze and they immediately rushed to the window with what little clothing they could pick up and jumped to the ground. The men shouted for help and one ran to the fire alarm box which was located a short distance from the house, but before the apparatus had time to arrive the house was a mass of flames and nothing was saved but the frame of the dwelling. All the furniture was lost as the fire had made such a headway before it was discovered.

Although the cause of the fire is not known it is believed that it caught from a gasoline stove which had been used during the night. The loss will be about $3000 and it is said that the building was partially covered by insurance. The house was owned by the estate of Freeman B. Shedd and was occupied by the La Fleur family.

Two Other Fires

A telephone alarm about 11:30 o'clock this morning called the fire department to the corner of Plummer avenue and East Merrimack street where a brush fire was in progress. Although the blaze was burning furiously at the time of the arrival of the apparatus it was soon put out.

Fire on Billerica Street

Hardly had the above fire been extinguished when an alarm from box 251 was sent in for a fire in a house at 82 Billerica street where a bed caught fire. By quick work the firemen kept the damage confined to the bed. The house is occupied by a family named Morris and the cause of the fire could not be learned.

Fire in East Chelmsford

A fire which broke out on the roof of a small dwelling located on the Carlisle road, East Chelmsford, yesterday, about 3 o'clock, threatened serious damage, but by the aid of several men who were in the vicinity at the time, the blaze was extinguished with only the ell part of the house destroyed.

The house is owned by a Mrs. Banning of Boston and occupied by Mr. Walter Lee. The blaze was first noticed on the roof of the house and word was sent to the Chelmsford fire department, and to Chief Saunders of the local department, but as the department had just returned from an alarm, it was not until about 4 o'clock that it was able to send any apparatus out of the city. However, by consistent work of the men who volunteered, the blaze was extinguished and the damage confined to the ell of the house. It is understood that the loss will be less than $500.

Fred C. Church carried insurance on the C. H. Clapp stable, Middlesex street, Bon Marche building and R. Vignault's property on Phoenix ave., damaged by fire yesterday, also on the household furniture of W. A. Maffeur, East Merrimack street damaged by fire, this morning.

Heat is Oppressive

Mercury Hovers Around 100 Today

Although only one heat prostration was reported at the hospitals yesterday it was, according to the thermometers throughout the city, the second hottest day of the season. In the early morning the temperature was lower but toward noon it climbed up and during the afternoon the heat was intense. The evening was cooler and a slight breeze was in evidence.

At the Locks and Canals yesterday the mercury reached 95 degrees and hovered in that vicinity during the afternoon. On Prescott street a thermometer registered 97 degrees while on Central street one registered 96 degrees and ranged from 94 to 96 during the afternoon. The sun beat down in Merrimack square during the afternoon and as a result many took to the waiting room and other shady spots for shelter.

During yesterday afternoon many local people journeyed to the summer resorts and the car riding was especially heavy. The Canobie Lake car line was well patronized and the breeze was very enjoyable.

The conditions today are something similar to those of yesterday although a warm breeze is moving. At the Locks and Canals this noon the mercury needle was registered at 97 while in Merrimack square under an awning the thermometer read at 95. On Central street where it had been shady all night the thermometer was registered at 95.

As far as could be learned at 2 o'clock this afternoon there have been no serious heat prostrations in this city today. This may be due to the fact that the mills are closed as most of recent prostrations have been recorded as being in the mills.

EVERY LITTLE BIT HELPS

$1300 Collected for Lots on So. Common

The superintendent of parks collected about $1300 for lots on the South common and he says it will cost about $300 to clean the common, leaving $1000 to the good. The lots were not sold on the ground this year as has been the custom heretofore, but were sold from plans in the superintendent's office. Other years the sale of lots extended over two or three days and this year the lots were sold in less than half a day. It was simply a question of picking your number and paying the price. The park department men started the clean up at Fort Hill this morning and moved from there to the South common where they worked all day.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

FOR 64 YEARS

This Bank Has Never Paid Less Than

4 Per Cent.

Interest Begins July 12

City Institution for Savings

CENTRAL STREET

WANTEN WANTED

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT ON OFFICER

Patrolman Creamer Felled by a Brickbat While Making Arrest on Pollard Avenue

If Officer Creamer did not have as husky a build as is usually seen, the chances are that he would have been in a hospital this morning instead of in police court. He was murderously assaulted last night with a brick in the hands of an irate foreigner while struggling to free himself from the clutches of three of his assailants' companions one of whom was a woman.

Two of those who were in the mix-up appeared in police court at this morning's session. It appears that the officer was called to the house occupied by both defendants for the purpose of preventing trouble which had arisen among the members of the household. The trouble all started from an overdose of alcohol. Peter Jozak pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness and Officer Creamer took the witness stand. The officer told the court that he had been called into the defendant's house by his wife, who was afraid he would do her some harm. His first trip quieted things down for a short while but it was not long before the trouble broke out again. The second time, the officer said, he arrested Jozak. When his wife saw her husband being hauled away to the lockup, it seems, she experienced a change of heart and used her greatest endeavors to free him from the grip of the law. The grip, however, was a pretty firm one and even the concentrated efforts of both husband and wife produced nothing more harmful to the officer than a beautiful black eye for the defendant. The man was fined $5 for drunkenness and Supt. Welch did not prefer any charge against the wife on account of her present physical condition. No evidence was taken in the other case, as Lawyer Daniel J. Donahue for the defense asked to have it continued until next Wednesday. The prosecution claims, however, that the second man, Mike Wozniak, stepped up to the officer and banged him in the head with a brick-bat. Officer Creamer certainly showed the effects of the blow on his forehead this morning and it is extremely probable that had the missile struck him in the temple he would have been killed, as it was, the wound was a very deep one and required four stitches to close.

Drunken Offender

The rest of the session was taken up principally with cases relative to the causes of the foundation of temperance societies. Yesterday was a holiday and the docket was full of those who had tried to show their patriotism by feats of drinking.

James H. Gaffney, was sent to jail for five months. Mary Taylor and Thomas Linsay will also spend four months in the same institution. Catherine Cashman was another defendant on the charge of drunkenness, her term to the jail being only of two months' duration. Margaret Alexander was sent up to Keeper Eveleveth for a term of thirty days, and Nellie Freeman received a sentence of 15 days to the same place.

Alfred Beland was placed on probation with a five months' sentence to the house of correction awaiting him if he does not lead a sober industrious life and look after his family better in the future than he has in the past. He promised Judge Earhart that he would never stray again from the straight and narrow path.

Terrance J. Doran and Martin Zukaski were fined $5 apiece for drunkenness. It was their second appearance within the year. There were also two cases of first offenders who received the customary $2 fine. An even dozen were released by the probation officer.

FUNERAL SERVICE

Patrick Cox of Andover, Former Resident of Lowell—Interred Here Yesterday

The funeral of Patrick Cox of Methuen, formerly of this city, took place yesterday from the Immaculate Conception church, Lawrence, Mass., was celebrated at 9 o'clock and the cortege proceeded over the road to this city where the burial took place in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery. The committal prayers were read by Rev. Fr. Mullin of St. Peter's church. About the casket was a large and beautiful array of floral tributes and many Lowell people were present at the burial as the deceased was well known in this city having lived here at one time. It is said that he was one of the oldest residents in this part of the country.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

PLAYGROUNDS WILL OPEN MONDAY

Supervisors and Their Assistants Receive Assignments

Patrick J. Reynolds Will Look After Boys on South Common

Mabel E. Haggerty In Charge of Girls at Greenhalge School

The playgrounds, including the North and South commons, Alken street, West Centralville and Paige street grounds, will open on Monday morning. The supervisors and their assistants were assigned today. There was some question as to the advisability of opening the Alken street grounds because of the smallpox epidemic. Park Supt. Kernan consulted with Agent Bates of the board of health and the latter allowed that the children would gather and consult whether the playground was open or not and he allowed that it would be easier to keep the children under observation on the playground than about the streets. The list of supervisors and assistants, their assignments and addresses, as given out at the office of the superintendent of parks today, is as follows:

The South Common

Patrick J. Reynolds, supervisor, 129 Chapel street; Miss Katherine M. Tobin, 40 Linden street. Miss Tobin will have charge of the girls. Marion E. Cooney, 97 Pleasant street; Marion G. Carey, 435 Lincoln street; Mary Carolyn, 256 Concord street; Eugene J. Donovan, 42 Clare street.

The North Common

Charles Donahue, supervisor, 22 Keene street; John McPadden, Jr., 19 Myrtle street; Mary C. Joyce, supervisor, 22 Twelfth street; Grace McCall, 149 School street; Zoia Read, Westford street, corner of Chester; Carlotta M. Abels, 43 Nicolette street.

West Centralville

Leo J. McCarthy, supervisor, 350 Bridge street; Mabel E. Haggerty, supervisor, 171 Powell street; Lillian G. Powers, 11 Shafter street, and May M. Cowell, 1522 Gorham street.

Alken Street Grounds

Irving T. Gumb, supervisor, 63 Oakland street; Eugenie Frappier, supervisor, 26 Hampshire street; Gladys Melmon, 1655 Middlesex street; Emily Racicot, 30 Riverside street.

Paige Street Grounds

Irene B. White, 653 Pleasant street, Dracut.

P. J. REYNOLDS
Supervisor South Common

MISS MABEL E. HAGGERTY
Supervisor Girls, West Centralville

DEPOSITS
IN THE City Institution For Savings
Will be allowed to accumulate to $2000 from July 12, 1913.

DEPOSIT TODAY
—AND—
$1.00 or More Each Week
Interest Begins Monthly
FLAK FINGER PRINTS TAKEN
SAVINGS DEPARTMENT
TRADERS National Bank
MIDDLESEX ST., P. O. AVE.
Hours: 8:30-3. Sat. 8:30-12:30, 7-9.

ENHANCE YOUR HOME

To enhance your home is to increase its value—

1st, in money value.

2nd, in desirability.

3rd, in comfort.

Our new low priced wiring offer is of interest to all who own unwired homes.

Telephone 821 for full particulars.

Lowell Electric Light Corp.

50 Central Street.

EVERY LITTLE BIT HELPS

$1300 Collected for Lots on So. Common

The superintendent of parks collected about $1300 for lots on the South common and he says it will cost about $300 to clean the common, leaving $1000 to the good. The lots were not sold on the ground this year as has been the custom heretofore, but were sold from plans in the superintendent's office. Other years the sale of lots extended over two or three days and this year the lots were sold in less than half a day. It was simply a question of picking your number and paying the price. The park department men started the clean up at Fort Hill this morning and moved from there to the South common where they worked all day.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

FOR 64 YEARS

This Bank Has Never Paid Less Than

4 Per Cent.

Interest Begins July 12

City Institution for Savings

CENTRAL STREET

WANTEN WANTED

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

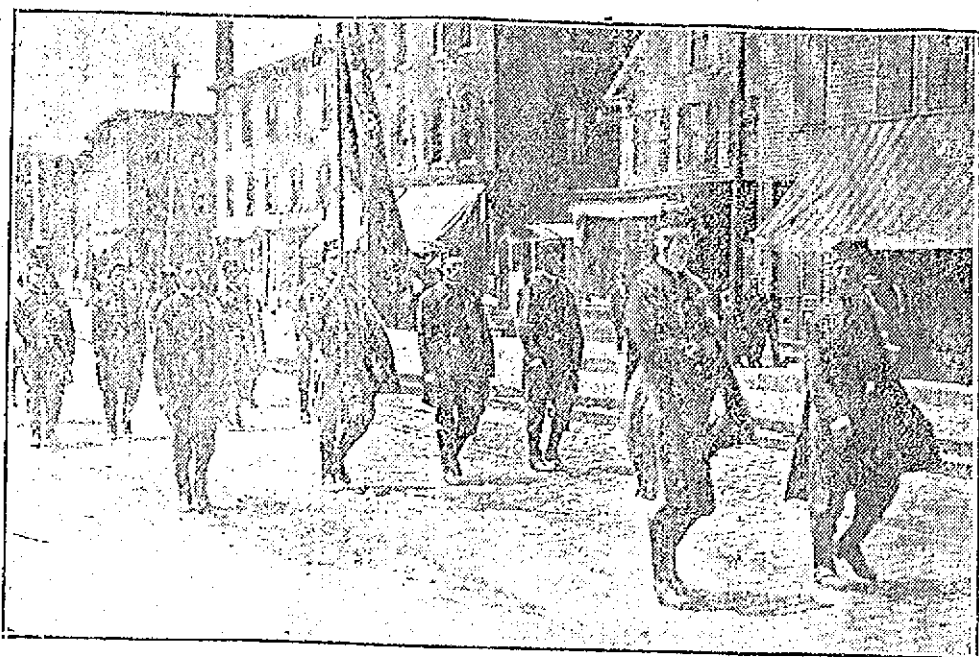

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Wanted: A man to help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

POLISH NATIONAL CATHOLICS OPENED BURYING GROUND IN PELHAM, N. H., YESTERDAY

VIEW OF THE POLES ON PARADE IN LAKEVIEW AVENUE

The new cemetery of the Polish National Catholic church in Pelham, N. H., was dedicated yesterday afternoon, the ceremony being attended by several hundred people, all members of the church.

At 12 o'clock in the forenoon services were held in the church by Bishop Francis Healy of Scranton, Pa., assisted by Rev. Francis Mirek and Rev. G. Jablonski. At the conclusion of the service the members of St. Casimir society and the entire congregation, including 80 members of the Falcons, and 50 little girls all dressed in white and carrying flowers, headed by the Polish Cadet Band, formed in line and marched to the cemetery, where the dedication took place. The tramping in the heat of the day was long and severe. At the conclusion of the ceremony the bishop was presented a huge bouquet of flowers. At the burying grounds speeches were delivered by the bishop and Rev. Francis Mirek. The committee in charge of the ceremony was composed of the following:

The pastor, Julius Jablonski, President, Anthony Paprowicz and Jacob Targ. Stanley S. Zazlerok marshalled the members of St. Casimir.

VETS BEGIN HOMEWARD MARCH FOR FLAG DESECRATIONS

Thousands Pack Up at Gettysburg and Leave for Homes—Regulars Remain

GETTYSBURG, July 5.—Thousands of veterans began their homeward march today after a last exchange of greetings with the new comrades they found here. Before night more than half of the army of 50,000 probably will have gone. Tomorrow the veterans will be given breakfast, the last meal in camp. "That is what the army says but those who have seen the kind of courtesy that has been shown to the veterans by these busy men throughout a trying week know that they will be fed as long as they stay here, if it's a month."

Regulars Last to Go

The army tents probably will stand here until next week. The regulars will stay until the last veteran is gone. Some time before the end of the month the brown city will come down, the army will go back to other camps and leave the field of Gettysburg to memory. That the reunion will live in memory as long as life lasts for the men who were here cannot be doubted. Its influence would be hard to calculate but if the old men who gathered around its fires act as they acted here, talk as they talked here the war between the states is really over so far as those who fought in it are concerned.

The unconstructed "reb" and the unforgiving "Yankee" will be hard to find.

On the crest of Cemetery Ridge stands the statue which New York has raised to her men who fought and died at Gettysburg. On the top of a tall marble shaft is the heroic figure of a woman. In her right hand is a wreath, in her left a thin staff crowned with a liberty cap. Her head is bowed as if in grief but that long right arm, with its wreath of brass points, out straight toward Seminary Ridge, a mile away across the fields where Longstreet stood with bowed head watching Pickett and his brave men make their futile charge.

New York Statue to Dead

New York raised the statue to her own dead and beneath in a half circle are rows of graves of her men who fell here 50 years ago. It takes but little imagination to make that tall column with its speaking figure the moaned voice of the nation. It takes but a little touch of the sentiment that has crisscrossed every man who has come to the veterans' camp to think of that outstretched arm as lifted in benediction to the men who lived and the men who died on this greatest battlefield of the war. Down a hundred years through the trees around the statue runs the Emmettsburg road, the main artery from Gettysburg to the camp. Over that road in the heat of a July sun the veterans of the armies of Meade and Lee today streamed toward home, fired possibly but lifted out of themselves by four days of a reunion such as would seem hardly possible in any other country in the world.

Many a veteran who passed over that road today and many who passed before turned with streaming eyes to catch the last glimpse of that long arm with wreath as he trudged the dusty road. It is the first landmark that stands high enough to be seen on the way to the battlefield and it is the last as the town swallows up the road.

Here's Your Old Friend

Sanford's Ginger

Ready at a moment's notice for everyday ills incidental to hot weather and change of food, water or climate.

A delicious combination of ginger, lemon and peach, Sanford's Ginger is the only remedy for the common cold, headache, indigestion, and all the ills that come from a change of food, water or climate. It is the only remedy that is both effective and pleasant. Buy it at all drug stores and grocers.

FOREST FIRE ON CAPE

Fire Fighters Have No Holiday

SAGAMORE, July 5.—Two houses and two other buildings were destroyed and several damaged yesterday when a southwest wind carried forest fires that have been raging for three days through the east end of this town.

Heavy property loss was prevented only by the desperate efforts of the volunteer fire fighters who abandoned their plans to observe the Fourth of July.

When the southwest wind that had been barely perceptible throughout the early part of the day developed into a gale, the townsfolk of Sagamore got ready to protect their homesteads from the same wall two miles wide, that was sweeping towards them from the east. In the latter town, the forest fire had remained dormant since the turn of the wind which saved a number of dwellings yesterday.

But despite the large force that "backed" and attempted sand smothering tactics, the flames claimed the dwellings of Eli Banville and Jas. Martin.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

The U. S. May Demand Apologies

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Two incidents of flag desecration which marked celebrations yesterday are expected to form the subject of complaints to the state department.

The affair at Winnipeg, Man., involving the trampling of an American flag at a British parade, probably cannot be made the basis of an official protest for the reason that international law does not guarantee the protection of flags of a foreign country except where they are displayed over the official buildings.

In the incident at Tucson, Ariz., however, where the flag over the Mexican consulate was torn down, the state department probably will feel obliged to request the local authorities to make a proper apology and amend to the Mexican consul.

REPORT OF DEATHS

For the Past Week

- For the week ending July 5, 1913, with causes assigned:
- June
 - 26 Louis E. Gauvin, 62, disease of the heart.
 - Jeremiah J. O'Neil, 17, pyelo-nephritis.
 - 27 Stanislaus Rollesse, 65, accident.
 - Timothy J. Coffey, Jr., 4 months, convulsions.
 - Andrew Gordon, 15, accidental drowning.
 - 28 Louise M. Howe, 42, organic disease of heart.
 - Pachifires, 7 hrs., congenital debility.
 - Rev. James J. Bradley, 74, oedema of lungs.
 - Elizabeth A. Richmond, 73, cerebral hemorrhage.
 - Ann Casady, 41, acute nephritis.
 - 29 Mary Gonzales, 10 m., gastro-enteritis.
 - Mary F. Spencer, 52, pernicious anaemia.
 - Wlad Romanowski, 10 m., infectious diarrhoea.
 - Ann B. Ashworth, 55, nephritis.
 - Elmo McGonagle, 5 m., ileo-colitis.
 - 30 Casimira Pastozczyk, 8 m., enteritis.
 - Mary Conway, 73, cerebral hemorrhage.
 - Bernadette Gagnon, 1, capillary bronchitis.
 - James E. Webster, 71, tricuspid regurgitation.
 - Thomas Lyons, 53, myocarditis.
 - July
 - 1 Mary Mulligan, 45, peritonitis.
 - Marie Fleurie, 8 hrs., pulm. atelectasis.
 - Rose A. Traversy, 5, cer. spinal meningitis.
 - John Silva, 11 m., bronchitis.
 - Sarah M. Dodge, 93, arterio-sclerosis.
 - Patrick Riley, 39, accident.
 - Bridget Buckley, 65, chronic bronchitis.
 - Colvin E. Porter, 55, broncho-pneumonia.
 - Nora J. Dalton, 29, endocarditis.
 - Charles Lee, 56, appendicitis.
 - 2 Stergios Pergakis, 6 m., cholera infantum.
 - Jeremiah Welch, 67, carcinoma of rectum.
 - Alfred Ford, 4 days, congenital debility.
 - Francis R. Todd, 55, cerebral hemorrhage.
 - Douglas MacKichren, 78, carcinoma.
 - Manuel Gomes, 2 m., meningitis.
 - Anna M. Tuttington, 44, cerebral tumor.
 - 3 Timothy Daley, 52, arterio-sclerosis.
 - Charles Furey, 43, acute gastritis.
 - William Seward, 6, accidental drowning.
 - 4 Rollshaw Norenkeriz, 3 m., enteritis.
 - Andre Gordon, 3 m., cholera infantum.

Stephen Flynn, City Clerk.

Lowell Slogan Contest

The slogan contest being conducted by the Lowell board of trade appears to be a "Greater Lowell" affair, and the authorities of the board are delighted.

Mr. Murphy has received a number of slogans and hopes that the people of the suburbs and towns on the boundary of Lowell will continue to interest themselves in the contest.

There have also been a large number of slogans from local people. The judges will have quite a proposition to face when they come to read over the great number of slogans to award the prize, but they will be capable men and fair, who will decide the contest with absolute fairness.

The prize, a $29 gold piece donated

ST. PATRICK'S STILL LEADS CLASS 3

B.P.O. Elks Head Class 2 and the Y.M.C.A. Occupies Top Ring in Class 1

The 4th week tabulation of the returns reveals what a stride we may expect in the second period of four weeks in the Great Library contest.

The Red Letter day proposition does not effect any change in the value of the redemption features such as theatre tickets, bread labels, etc., which remain the same at all times.

Now that Red Letter days are in motion great things are due to happen in the voting line. It goes without saying that every shrewd and wide awake voter will take advantage of the tremendous opportunity for voting every Red Letter day will offer. Keep in mind that Red Letter day is Wednesday of each week.

The Elks lead again today in class two with a greatly increased vote over that which they had last week.

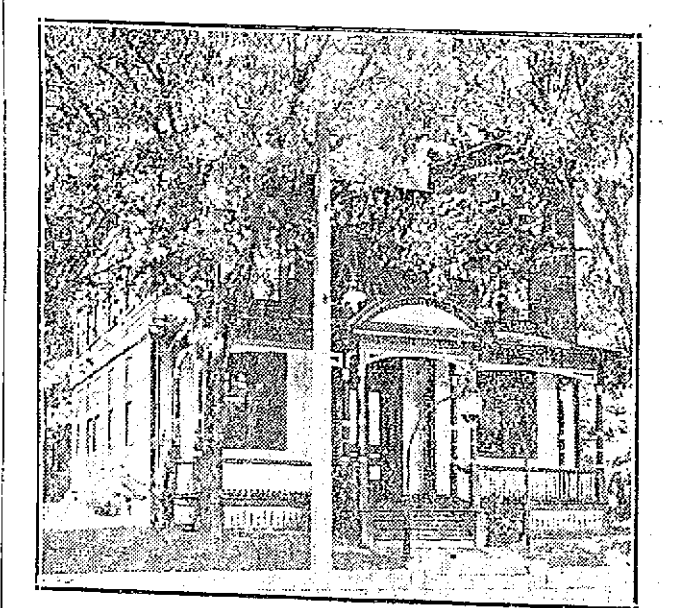

The C. M. A. C. seem to be using two or three of the leaders as pacemakers, just keeping within striking distance. After all it's the position held after the final count which brings a library of good books to the one holding first place, and each of the leaders is apparently confident as to the outcome.

St. Peter's school made a big advance this week. Just another stride like the one today and they will certainly be in the going. A substantial vote came in from the Young Men's Christian Association, the Eagles and Knights of Columbus.

Every society should be favored with competent leadership, for it takes a ruling mind to pilot the force of any contestant to success. In fact success is a thing highly improbable without this leadership. No doubt these energetic spirits are found in the ranks of all the contesting elements and their leadership will evince itself in due time.

| Class One | Class Two | Class Three |
|---|---|---|
| Y. M. C. A. 51,281 | B. P. O. Elks 114,414 | St. Patrick's School and Church, 129,096 |
| St. John's Hospital 38,259 | Knights of Columbus 88,291 | St. Peter's Church and School, 101,937 |
| Lowell High School 25,420 | C. M. A. C. 75,757 | St. Michael's Church and School, 95,765 |
| Lowell General Hospital 20,761 | Glennmore Club 61,713 | Immaculate Conception Church, 93,397 |
| Highland Grammar School 16,337 | Ancient Order of Hibernians, Div. 1, 41,365 | Sacred Heart Church 62,530 |
| Lincoln School 12,756 | Fraternity of Eagles 23,656 | St. Jean de Baptiste Church 24,301 |
| Bartlett School 5,544 | Y. M. C. C. 18,947 | St. Mary's Church 20,824 |
| Lowell Corporation Hospital 15,118 | Masonic Club 11,469 | Notre Dame de Lourdes Church, 8,216 |
| Varnum School 3,162 | Masons' Union 8,749 | 1st Universalist Church 6,742 |
| St. Peter's Orphan Asylum 2,534 | Boys' Club 2,334 | St. Paul's M. E. Church 5,103 |
| Green School 2,567 | M. T. J. 1,053 | C. Y. M. L. St. Patrick's Church, 1,525 |
| Greek School 1,536 | I. O. O. F. 925 | St. John's Church 973 |
| Moody School 1,037 | Foresters of America 882 | Mathew Temperance Institute, 882 |
| Edison School 695 | Billierica Grange No. 223 399 | Holy Rosary Society, Sacred Heart Church, 760 |
| Old Ladies' Home 405 | | St. Michael's Guild 538 |
| | | St. Anthony's Church 357 |

MATHEWS HELD OPEN HOUSE THE NIGHT BEFORE AT NORTH BILLERICA

There was no special observance of Independence Day in Billerica yesterday and with the exception of the blowing of horns or the occasional explosion of a fire cracker all was quiet during the day. The night before was observed by a bonfire and there was the usual ringing of bells in the early morning.

The "open house" held under the auspices of the "Old Timers" on Thursday night proved a very successful and enjoyable affair. Dancing was enjoyed from 8 o'clock until 3 Friday morning to music furnished by a hurdy-gurdy and games were played on the spacious lawn in the vicinity of Mathew hall. During the evening tea and other dainties were served and all tables reported a very thriving business. This is the first "night before" observance of this kind held in the town for some time but it is believed that it will be repeated next year.

The North Billerica fire department responded to only one alarm yesterday and blaze which was a grass fire in the rear of the mills was soon extinguished with no damage resulting.

gust and it is believed that the selection of an organist will be deferred until that time.

There will be no regular meeting of the members of the Young Men's Catholic Institute tomorrow since during the warm months, these meetings are held only at long intervals. There will, however, be a meeting of the board of directors at which important business will be transacted. Among other things, it is expected that the board will elect a secretary to succeed Tom Higgins who recently sent in his resignation, being unable to give proper attention to the work because of pressing business engagements.

The joint outing with the Burke Temperance Institute has been postponed until around Labor day, the members of both organizations being of the opinion that such an event will be more enjoyable when the weather is cooler.

CATHOLIC NOTES

Rev. Fr. O'Brien to Celebrate His First High Mass at St. Michael's Tomorrow Morning

Rev. Dennis A. O'Brien, the Lowell young man who but recently returned from abroad after having been ordained to the priesthood at the American college at Rome, will celebrate his first solemn high mass tomorrow morning at 10:45 o'clock at St. Michael's church.

Rev. Father Murphy will act as deacon and Rev. Father Mullin as sub-deacon at Rev. Father O'Brien's mass, with Rev. John Shaw, the pastor as assistant priest. The choir will be under the direction of Mr. James Murphy.

No one has as yet been selected to fill the place of organist left vacant by Miss Carolyn White who begins her duties as organist at St. Peter's church tomorrow morning. It is expected that a young man who saw it floating at about 7:30 o'clock between the Moody and Merrimack street bridges, a short distance from where it disappeared.

Undertaker Joseph Alber was notified and the remains were brought to

THE SOURCES THROUGH WHICH VOTES WILL BE OBTAINED

| THE GILBRIDE COMPANY Dept. Store Merrimack and Palmer Streets | JOHN F. SAUNDERS' MARKET 159 Gorham St. |
|---|---|
| MACARTNEY'S APPAREL STORE Clothing and Furnishings 72 Merrimack Street | FAMILY GROCERY CO. D. H. Sullivan, Prop. 491-493-495 Westford Street |
| HARRY KAYNES Jewelry 68 Central Street | SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS ABOUT ADELS When you present the above for entry into the returns always have same in neat package. Write on outside the name of the contestant you are working for and the exact number of votes. Be sure that your count is absolutely accurate. Redeemed only at Gilbride Department Store, Macartney's Apparel Shop, and O'Neil Furniture Store. |
| ERVIN E. SMITH COMPANY Hardware 43-45-47-49 Market Street | JOHN H. JOHNSON FAMOUS CIGARS 152 Federal Street, Boston Bands good for Five and Ten votes each. |
| DICKERMAN & McQUADE Batters and Furnishers Corner Central and Market Streets | FEDERAL MILLING CO. HIGH GRADE FLOUR P. S. HAN, Distributor "Sphinx" bags, reg. size, 100 votes. "Sphinx" bags, small size, 25 votes. "Jacky" bags, reg. size, 55 votes. "Jacky" bags, small size, 25 votes. "Mohawk" bags, reg. size, 35 votes. "Snow Drop Pastry" bags, reg. size, 80 votes. "Snow Drop Pastry" bags, small size, 25 votes. |
| HARRY C. RITTREDGE Books and Stationery 15 Central Street | F. S. BEAN & CO. Produce Commission Merchants 507 Dutton Street The wrappers of Meadow Brook Butter, 1 lb. boxes, redeemable for 200 votes. The wrappers of Meadow Brook Butter, prints, redeemable for 40 votes. The box of Meadow Brook Eggs, dozen in box, redeemable for 40 votes. |
| THOMAS VOYONS Special Five Vote Coupon Central Street | FILMAD BROTHERS Bands and Wrappers will be redeemed for one vote with each cent of purchase. |
| FLAT IRON CIGAR STORE W. H. L. HAYES COMPANY 70 Central Street and 71 Prescott Street | LORD SALISBURY TURKISH CIGARETTES We have arranged to redeem the empty boxes at TEN VOTES each. |
| LOUIS ALEXANDER Importers and Tailors 28 Central Street | HARVARD BREVING CO. The caps on every bottle are good for one vote each. |
| Up one flight, over Electric Light Co. | SCRIPTURE'S LAUNDRY Frank K. Stearns, Prop. 255 Lawrence Street |
| HENNESSY'S POIL AND BILLIARD GARDENS 213 Central Street | A. CRICKSHANK Tops of the boxes are redeemable as follows: Pints, 20 Votes Each; Quarts, 50 Votes Each. |
| D. E. McQUADE Groceries 187 Central Street | THE STANARD BOTTLING CO. Each cap will be redeemed for Ten Votes. |
| LOWELL WALL PAPER CO. George W. Chase, Prop. 67 Appleton Street | F. M. BILL & CO. 79-St.83-85 Market Street Fine Teas and Coffees Bill Grade Coffee, Bill Grade Tea, Middlesex Coffee, The Coffee and Tea labels will be redeemed for votes, one vote with each cent of purchase. |
| DOUBRODES' BOSTON CONFECTIONERY STORE 218 Merrimack Street | BEACH SOAP COMPANY Lawrence, Mass. World Soap Wrappers, redeemable at 10 votes each. 5c World Soap Powder premium tickets, 10 votes each. Four lb. World Soap Powder, 50 votes each. World Cleanser Premium Coupon, 20 votes each. |
| SULLIVAN'S SHOE STORE Dan Smith, Prop. 337 Bridge Street | |
| HAY STATE DYE HOUSE 54 Prescott Street | |
| FRANK J. CAMPBELL The Corner Drug Store Central Street, Cor. Middlesex | |
| THOS. C. WALKER Druggist 505 Middlesex St. Above Depot | |
| BRUNELLE PHARMACY Druggist 33 East Merrimack St. | |
| JOHN H. O'NEIL Druggist Lawrence and Wamecet Sts. | |
| LOWELL PHARMACY Boucher and Delisle, Proprietors 432 Merrimack Street | |
| JOHN T. PARKS & CO. Druggist Cor. Lakeview and Alken Aves. | |
| RAY F. WEBSTER 415 Bridge Street | |
| JOHN ST. PUBLIC MARKET John P. Curley, Proprietor 30 John Street | |
| J. B. ARTHUR & CO. 61 Bridge Street | |

HELD FIRST ANNUAL OUTING

Members of Court St.
Antoine, C. O. F. Entertained Friends

F. X. RIVET, Chief Ranger.

The first annual outing of Court St. Antoine, C. O. F., was held yesterday at Dalgie's farm, Draught, and was a success in every way. The program consisted of a baseball game in the morning between teams of Courts St. Antoine and St. Paul, dinner at noon and a long list of sports in the afternoon, and was carried out in a very satisfactory manner.

The affair was attended by about 250 people, including men and women, and all spent a most enjoyable day. The crowd gathered at the farm early in the forenoon and at 10 o'clock the baseball game was started. The teams were composed of the following: St. Antoine—J. N. Gregoire, P. Breton, R. Paquette, L. Landry, A. Deschamps, R. Grenier, A. Marchand, L. Marchant, P. Roy and E. Trudel; St. Paul—P. Charbonneau, I. Pinault, E. Dubois, Joseph Magras, E. Arcand, O. Lahale, O. Cyr, A. Thibault and L. Laiselle. The score was 12 to 11 in favor of Court St. Paul, and each member of the team received a fine silk fan with the emblem of the Catholic Order of Foresters on a gold plate. The umpires were Frank Ricard and P. Morin, and their decisions were very satisfactory.

At the conclusion of the ball game the entire party of excursionists repaired to the pine grove, where a dainty dinner was served in the open air, tables having been placed under the pine trees. In the afternoon a varied list of sports was carried out and suitable prizes were awarded the winners.

The committee in charge of the event consisted as follows: A. Thibault, chairman; L. N. Milot, treasurer; A. N. Bonlais, secretary; Frank Ricard, L. N. Gregoire, Fred Giroux, A. J. Ferron, Eugene Trudel, O. Lahale, Joseph Parent, Alf. Genest, Alphonse Desrochers, J. H. Gregoire, Geo. Cayer, J. B. Julien, A. Lafontaine, A. Charrest, Jos. Magras, Jos. Valier, P. Fortin and F. X. Rivet, ex-officio.

his morgue in Alken street, where they were later viewed by the medical examiner.

On Thursday afternoon, a couple of hours after the drowning, the body of William Seward, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Seward of 7 Exeter street, was found in the Merrimack river at the mouth of Beaver brook.

the spot where the boy lost his life while bathing. David Lizotte of Ennell street is the party who located the body while grappling the river. The body was removed to the home of the parents.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

OUR 7th GREAT PRE-INVENTORY

Wall Paper Specials

— FOR —

Saturday and Monday

| | |
|--|-----|
| 1000 Rolls Best 35c Washable Tile Papers, for bath rooms—roll | 8c |
| 1000 Rolls Best 50c Fadeless Papers, for parlors, dining rooms, dens, libraries and halls—roll | 15c |

The United Wall Paper Stores of America
LOWELL STORE IN NELSON'S DEPT. STORE
"Biggest Distributors of Wall Papers in New England."

CARMEN VOTE TO STRIKE

Agree to Hold Off Until Monday

BOSTON, July 5.—"We assure both the public and the chamber of commerce that no declaration of strike will be made until Monday," said the officers of the Boston Street Carmen's Union in a signed statement last evening.

The figures of the strike vote taken at the three sessions of the big meeting of the union held Thursday and early yesterday morning show the 5276 voted to strike; 173 voted against a strike; and there were 49 blanks cast, making a total vote of 5449.

Not until 11 o'clock yesterday morning was the counting of the vote completed.

At the request of Attorney James H. Vahey, representing the union, the conference to have been held at 1 o'clock this morning at the chamber of commerce, between the "special committee" appointed by the Chamber Director James L. Richards of the Elevated company and Mr. Vahey, has been postponed until Monday morning.

The purpose of this conference is to try and bring the Elevated and the union together in some satisfactory form of arbitration and adjust the difficulty over the selection of a third arbitrator so that the question of wages and other matters in dispute may be settled without a strike being necessary.

SUFFRAGETTE MOBBED

Held Up King's Carriage at Bristol, Eng.

BRISTOL, England, July 5.—While the procession was on its way to the Agricultural show, at which the king was to officiate yesterday, a militant suffragette dashed from the sidewalk and getting behind the mounted equestrian reached the king's carriage and dropped a scroll of paper on his Majesty's knees.

The equestrian, wheeling around, drew his sword and struck the woman a light blow. The police then arrested her. The crowd made a rush for the suffragette, the women in the crowd showing the greatest eagerness to mail her.

One of them struck her with an umbrella and another seized her by the hair. The police drove off with their prisoner in an automobile in order to escape the mob.

After a short detention at the police station the woman was released. She gave the name of Mary Richardson and her address as the headquarters of the Women's Social and Political Union.

Street dust gets into the pores of the skin, causes irritation and inflammation. Hood's Lotion quickly relieves. Get it today. 50c.

Indigestion

Sour stomach, wind in the stomach, belching, acid eructations, heartburn and nausea, are quickly relieved by

Dys-pep-lets

Made only by C. I. HODD CO. Combine the best digestives, carminatives and correctives. 10c, 50c, or $1. Take one Remember Dys-pep-lets Substitute the name

FOR YOUR SHOE REPAIRING

Go to the Goodyear Shoe Repairing Co., where you are sure to get the best work, best stock and lowest prices. We want 1000 pairs of shoes to repair at

SULLIVAN'S SHOE SHOP

337 BRIDGE STREET Dan Smith, Manager

SATISFIED CUSTOMERS

Are permanent customers and good advertisers. Reliable goods at lowest prices, and satisfaction guaranteed is our policy. Purchase your drug store needs at

F. J. Campbell's

Registered Pharmacist. Two stores—Towner's Corner Drug Store, and 535 Dutton, cor. Fletcher at

Dwyer & Co.

PAINTERS, DECORATORS AND PAPER HANGERS. Estimates on all kinds of jobs, large or small, at 170 Appleton street.

CHIN LEE & Co.

Chinese and American Restaurant. Dining rooms reserved for ladies, for private parties. This restaurant is open from 11.30 a. m. to 1 a. m. Inclusive. 117 Myrtlebank st., near John st. Telephone 1322.

CARROLL BROS.

Plumbers, Steam Fitters and Sheet Metal Workers. 36 Middle St. Telephone 1650

M. H. McDonough Sons

UNDERTAKERS and EMBALMERS. Prompt Service Day and Night. 105 Gorham St. Tel. 906-1

Soda crackers are more nutritive than any other flour food. Uneeda Biscuit are the perfect soda crackers.

Though the cost is but five cents, Uneeda Biscuit are too good, too nourishing, too crisp, to be bought merely as an economy.

Buy them because of their freshness—because of their crispness—because of their goodness—because of their nourishment.

Always 5 cents. Always fresh, crisp and clean.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

For the Week Ending July 5

LOWELL.

Flora I. Scribner et al. to Henry J. O'Dowd, land and buildings on Appleton street.

Henry J. O'Dowd to Grace E. Eldridge, land and buildings on Appleton street.

Henry C. Fuller to Sadie F. Goldman, land and buildings on Branch and Middlesex streets.

Manuel P. Vello to Maria Souza, land and buildings on Emory street.

Albert B. Herkett et al. to Sykes Wood, et al., land on Kensington street.

Lurinda Russell by mortgage to Manuel P. Vello, land and buildings on Emory street.

Fisher H. Pearson et al. to George H. Taylor, land and buildings on Myrtle and Tenth streets.

Frederick Bailey to Thomas W. Johnson et al., land cor. East Merrimack and Daniels streets.

Anna Fels to Margaret Gillick, land cor. Lakeview avenue and Bachman street.

Charles T. Kilpatrick to Oal S. Young, land on Newbury street.

Anna Cochran to Christina Hoar, land and buildings on South Whipple street.

Dennis F. Haley to James Russell, land on Blossom and Eaton streets.

James J. Haley to John Sullivan et al., land on Blossom and Eaton streets.

Nellie E. Collins et al. to Meldon S. Gillespie, land on Tenth street.

George Berkett, to Joseph L. Wilde, land and buildings on Warner street.

Lottimae Bell to Mary A. Plunkett, land and buildings on Andover and East Merrimack streets.

Patrick F. Mahoney et al. to Eliza L. Maynard, land and buildings on Lawson street.

Realty company by trs. to Ellen Colton, land and buildings on Nichols street and Passageway.

BILMERIC.

George H. Shields, tr. to Adolph A. Brand, land at Nuttings lake park.

Charles C. Johnson, tr. to Charles E. Littlefield, land at Pinehurst annex.

Albert Henderson to Newell Patterson, land and buildings cor. Montrose street and Elm street.

Alexander C. Walker to Newell Patterson, land and buildings on Montrose street.

Edgar P. Sellow to Coleman J. Manning, land on Hillside road.

Aaron Adelman to Esther W. Ricker, land on Adelman road.

John A. Richardson, et al. to Daniel Derby, land on Casco street.

Frank W. Coughlin to Signe Phil, land on Montrose avenue.

Signe A. Richardson, by opmrs. to Frank J. Danahy, land.

Frank J. Danahy to Charles P. Smith, land.

Frank W. Coughlin to Margaret Calschalm, land on Pines road.

DRAUGHT.

Mary J. Wilson, est. by exor. to S. Blanche Cummings, land on Sladen street.

George Drouin et al. to Jan Kinpekka, land and buildings.

Alexander Andy to Ludwig Gregoire, land on Leon Hill road.

Georgiana Gagnon to Jesse M. Currier, land on Bridge street.

Ludwig Gregoire to Francis I. Gendreau, land on Leon Hill road.

Henry T. Wheeler to Joseph Keller et al., land and buildings.

TEWKSBURY.

Dana F. Chase to Alfred J. Lundgren, land on Vale street.

John A. Richardson, et al. to Jennie Robertson, land on Elm street.

Frank W. Coughlin to Adam Murray Keddie, land corner Sackett street and Aberdeen avenue.

Alfred J. Lundgren to James P. Biggar, land.

Walter W. J. McLaren to Catherine A. Panavova, land on River road.

Emma Moller to Louis W. Moller, land on Myrtle street.

Emma Moller to Walter C. Tolstrup, land on Franklin street.

William H. Adelt tr. to Annie Thomas, land at Oakland Park.

WESTFORD.

Ethel H. Whitte to Walter H. Harris, land.

WILMINGTON.

Suburban Land Co., Inc., Boston, to Charles J. Wharf, land at Pinegrove Park.

Mary E. Sinclair to Rupert L. Hadden, land on Fairmount avenue, Park square and Olive street.

Roxana N. Blanchard et al. to Winslow W. Coffin, land on Shawheen avenue.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

Extends Call to Rev. Herman S. Pinkham, Pastor of Immanuel Church, Washington, D. C.

The First Baptist church of this city has extended a unanimous call to Rev. Herman S. Pinkham, at present pastor of the Immanuel Baptist church of Washington, D. C. Mr. Pinkham is a graduate of Harvard university and Newton Theological seminary, and has been a very successful pastor in South Paris, Me., Winter Hill, Somerville, and Washington. He is at present taking a rest at Chittenden, Va. Until the church gets his formal answer to the call, it will not be known definitely whether he will accept or not.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

WILLIAMS' INDIAN PILE OINTMENT

Will cure Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles, whether internal or external, at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief. For sale by all druggists, mail 50c and $1.00.

WILLIAMS' MED. CO., Props., Cleveland, Ohio

For sale by Falls & Burkinshaw,

TENEMENTS GUTTED

Wooden Buildings Destroyed by Fire

BOSTON, July 5.—Nine three-decker tenements were completely gutted and a dozen others damaged by flame and water in a five-alarm fire, believed to have been started by children playing with fire crackers, on Josephine and Leroy streets, Dorchester, yesterday afternoon.

The damage is estimated at $35,000. Rows of wooden three-deckers, dry as tinder with the prolonged heat and drought, were in danger when the breeze which started suddenly at about 5.30 p. m. threatened to blow the flames up toward Geneva avenue.

To add to the danger, the engines which attended the fire found it almost impossible to get any pressure in their lines for nearly 15 minutes after they appeared on the scene. The first engine to arrive could get only a six-foot play during the first 15 minutes, according to bystanders. Pumps on both Josephine and Leroy streets experienced the same difficulty.

The fire started in the rear of No. 25 Leroy street, under the back porch. Children had been playing with fire crackers shortly before the flames broke out.

The flames quickly spread to the other blocks and after a most difficult fight lasting several hours, the firemen succeeded in extinguishing the fire.

TWO KILLED IN JOY RIDE

Auto Turns Turtle—Two Dying—Others Injured

BOSTON, July 5.—Two men are dead, two others dying, and a third pair are suffering from injuries as the result of the overturning of a "joy ride" automobile on Busssey street, East Dedham, early last evening.

The machine, owned by Alexander Doyle, a prominent Dedham sculptor, who is now absent, was being driven back from Germantown by Mr. Doyle's chauffeur when a tire blew out and the car crashed into a pole and overturned.

All of the men in the party were well known residents of Dedham, and with the exception of one man, the driver and dying were all men with families.

George Daley of 12 Church street, Dedham, a professional singer, was instantly killed, and John A. Delaney of Highland street died before medical aid could be summoned.

Walter Green, Mr. Doyle's colored chauffeur, was taken to the Massachusetts General hospital, suffering from internal injuries and is not expected to live. Daniel Mahoney, a condenser in the New Haven is dying. John O'Connell and Charles Parker sustained minor injuries.

WHISKEY WAS SPILLED

Man Gave Ludicrous Exhibition in Merrimack Street Lined With Linen

He had had a few rounds with John Harleycorn and came out second best. He found his way into Merrimack street about 1 o'clock this afternoon, loaded down with bundles and accompanied by a lad in short pants and tears.

John Harleycorn's victim tripped and lost his bundles. From an inside pocket there tumbled a pint of whiskey and, strange to relate, it didn't break. The man had now reached a point near Pollard's store and again he slipped. This time he lost the parcels proved bottle and one of whiskey. The jug smashed and he kicked the remnants into the street. Having disposed of the jug he proceeded to publish the boy. Women hurried to the scene and rescued the lad, just as he was struck in the face by a leaf of bread thrown by the man who was none other than his father.

The latter wept bitter tears over the loss of the jug of whiskey and a little farther along, reached out for the boy and was shaking him with all his might when Harry Flaherty, license board clerk, stepped up, grabbed his arms and told him what would happen if he insisted upon punishing the boy.

"Wait till I get home and I will fix him," said the intoxicated one as he went his way staggering and swearing. Mr. Flaherty found out where he lived and the officer on the beat will keep an eye on him to see whether he is running a speak-easy as well as indulging in excess.

MASS. PROHIBITIONISTS

Adopted Platform and Elected Officers

SOUTH FRAMINGHAM, July 5.—The prohibition party of Massachusetts adopted a platform of party principles and selected a ticket of candidates for the next state election at its annual convention, held at Montwattier. The candidates who will carry the prohibition banner in the next campaign were chosen as follows:

Governor, Alfred H. Evans, Westhampton; lieutenant governor, Bert J. Grant, Sharon; secretary of state, Prof. John A. Nichols, Boston; treasurer and receiver-general, Thomas A. Frazzelli, Hingham; auditor, Herbert S. Brown, Greenfield; attorney general, Freedom T. Crummit, Chelsea. A letter from Charles Sumner Bird of Walpole was read declining the prohibition nomination for governor. The party platform included planks calling for a more equitable adjustment for a more system on the single tax, favored equal suffrage, several measures looking to a reduction in the high cost of living, favored a state accident and life insurance plan and the establishment of old age pensions and declared for government ownership of public utilities.

AVIATOR NEARLY KILLED

Machine Became Unmanageable and Fell

AURORA, Ill., July 5.—Aviator O. T. Davis narrowly escaped death yesterday when against his better judgment he weakened before the fears of a crowd and made a flight under unfavorable conditions. He was badly injured when his machine became unmanageable as he tried to make a landing and fell.

BOY SHOT BY CHUM

Says He Didn't Know Gun Was Loaded

BOSTON, July 5.—Frank W. Richardson, a lad of 12 years, after saying "Throw up your hands or I'll shoot you" stepped in front of Harry Blanch in East Boston yesterday, and pointed a .32-caliber revolver, which he did not know was loaded, at the other boy. Blanch laughed, and then Richardson pulled the trigger. There was a blinding flash and Blanch fell to the sidewalk, shot through the breast. He will probably die.

Police Stopped Fight

HOUSTON, Texas, July 5.—Police stopped the scheduled ten round bout between Frankie Conley of Kenosha, Wis., and Billy Doyle of New Orleans here last night, arresting the fighters and B. J. Parker, manager of the Houston athletic club, for alleged violation of the Texas anti-prize fight law.

The Summer's Vacation

Where Shall We Go?

For children and for all who need a splendid rest under ideal surroundings, Colorado, with its clear skies and health-giving, exhilarating air, with its glorious mountain scenery that lifts your soul clean out of the workaday rut, can hardly be equalled in the world as a place to build up health, and enjoy the keenest holiday pleasure from outdoor life.

None is better business to lend a friendly hand in planning trips to Colorado. I can relieve you of a lot of trouble. I can give you maps and pictures of Colorado and a hand book describing the comfortable hotels and boarding-houses and what they charge. I can tell you how best to go and arrange for you all the details, and I would like to do it.

No charge. It is part of the Burlington Route (C. B. & Q. Ry.) service. Call at the office or write for a copy of the free illustrated hand book.

Alex. Stecks, New England Passenger Agent, C. B. & Q. R., 264 Washington St., Boston, Tel.

Dourode's Ice Cream Soda

and Confectionery Store

In the Old City Hall Building and Candyland, in the Bradley building, are the finest in this city and so are their goods. If you want the best ice cream or soda, give them a trial and you will be a steady customer. There is nothing better than the best, and that is the motto that is served at each of their stores. They can please you at all the Boston candy stores.

You Know It is Pure

The best Ice Cream is the kind you make yourself, if you make it in a

Triple Motion

White Mountain

Ice Cream Freezer

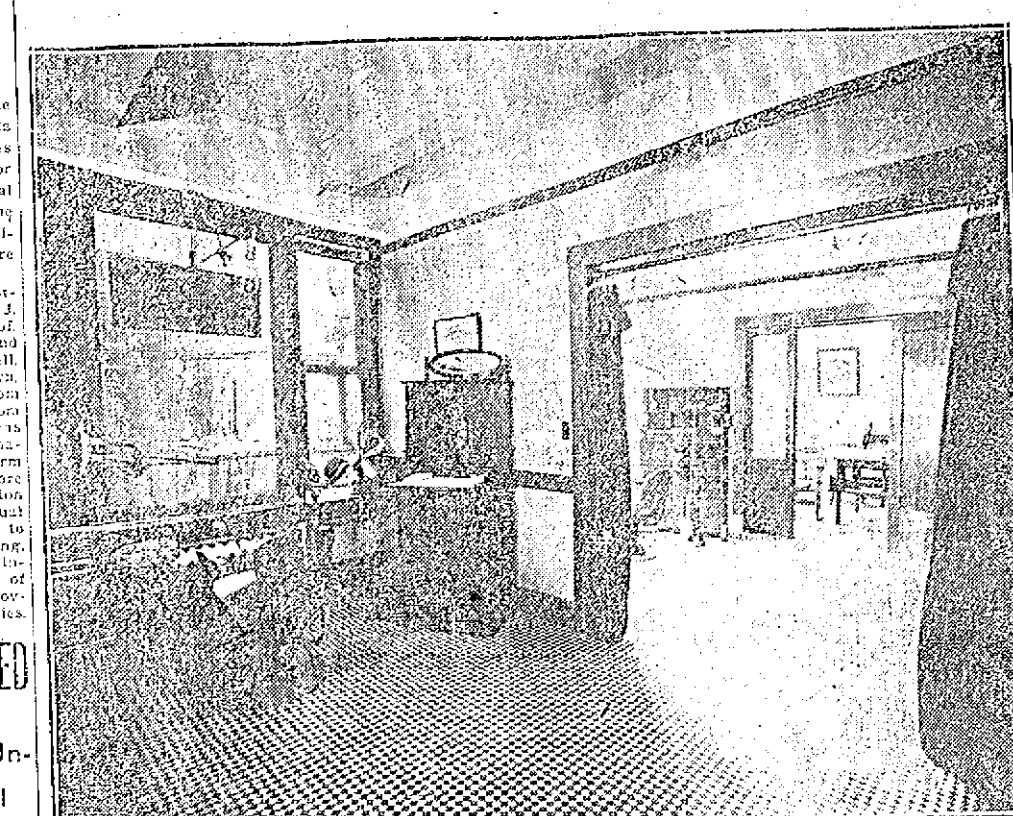

Built to last a lifetime. Quickest to freeze. Easiest to turn. We carry all sizes.

BARTLETT & DOW

216 Central Street.

Dr. Allen Proud of His Quarters in New

Sun Building—Painless Dentistry a Specialty

VIEW OF DR. ALLEN'S DENTAL PARLORS.

Dr. Allen feels that he has a right to be proud of his new and luxuriously furnished dental offices in the Sun Building, as they are the largest, cleanest and best in New England. Other dentists are crying "hard times," but not so with Dr. Allen, who has formulated and uses exclusively "There's a Reason" dental appliances for use in dental work without pain, and which allows him to perform dental operations absolutely without pain, and which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city. Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city. Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he had a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do this, but he has within his establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

2 KILLED IN COLUMBUS AUTO RACE

Driver Knight and Mechanician,
Milton McCallis, When His Machine Turned Turtle

COLUMBUS, O., July 5.—Harry C. Knight of Indianapolis known as "the hero of the Indianapolis speedway" was almost instantly killed and his mechanic, Milton McCallis of Houston, Texas, was so badly hurt that he died later when Knight's front wheel drove car blew a right rear tire and turned turtle on the 10th lap of the 200-mile automobile race given under the auspices of the Columbus Automobile association, yesterday afternoon. Knight had been out for the race for 30 minutes because of engine trouble and had just re-entered. He was said to have been turning at 70 miles an hour when the accident occurred. Johnny Jenkins of Springfield, Ohio, was following Knight at a short distance, and according to some of the witnesses, ran over Knight's body which had fallen to the track. Jenkins declared he ran over something, but does not know whether it was a body or part of a machine. Knight's head was badly mangled and the top part torn off. His legs were driven to his armpits and the remainder of the body badly mutilated. When the tire blew up the car turned over twice and landed in an upright position. McCallis was thrown out at the first turn and suffered a fractured skull and concussion of the brain. Knight was pinned and mangled under his steering wheel but fell out just as the car finally righted. He died almost immediately after assistance reached his side. Ralph De Palma, who was following close on the heels of Knight and Jenkins, was running at a high rate of speed, but managed to shave by the wrecked car without coming into contact with it. The accident occurred almost immediately in front of the grand stand and was witnessed by thousands of spectators. Although Knight gave his residence as Indianapolis, his parents live at Jonesboro, Ind., near Marion. He was 23 years old.

Ralph Mulford won the race, breaking the world's record for 200 miles on a dirt track. He made the distance in three hours, 21 minutes, 43 seconds. The previous best time was made on the Columbus track last year by Spencer Wishart in 3 hours, 25 minutes and 43 seconds. Harry Edricott was second with the time of 3 hours, 45 minutes and 34.55 seconds. Ernest Reeder was third and Ralph De Palma finished fourth and just within the prize money. Prizes aggregated $5000.

Brickley John Athletes
BOSTON, July 5.—It was announced last night that George Brickley, a younger brother of the Harvard football star, has signed a contract with Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Americans. Brickley has played second base for the Everett High school for the past four years, being captain of the team two seasons.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Gifford

If you have never had a Dish of

Chop Suey go to the

PEKIN RESTAURANT

Cor. Central and Middle Streets

Up one flight. Every kind of American and Chinese cooking. Quick service. Open Sundays. Give us a call.

A. G. Pollard Co.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

Basement Bargain Dept.

PALMER STREET SECTION

SPECIALS FOR TODAY

BLEACHED COTTON—Two cases of full pieces bleached cotton, 36 inches wide and fine, soft finish, 5c value, at.....5c Yard

DRESS GINGHAM—Remnants of good dress gingham, in large variety of patterns; plaids, small checks, stripes and plain chambray, 10c value, at.....5c Yard

BED TICKING—Remnants of satin finish bed ticking, large variety of patterns, 15c value, at.....10c Yard

MERCERIZED FOULARD—Remnants of mercerized foulard in very handsome patterns for summer dresses, 15c value on the piece, at.....7c Yard

LADIES' SILK HOSE—One case of ladies' black silk hose, spliced heel and double soles; seconds of the 25c quality, at.....10c Pair

BOYS' WASH SUITS—Boys' wash suits, made of good printed chevrons, percales and chambray; Russian and sailor styles, for 2-12 to 10-year-old boy, at.....35c Suit

MEN'S STRAW HATS—Men's straw hats in all the latest shapes, made of fine split sennit straw; sailors and soft brim, $1.00 value. Thursday special, at.....55c Each

MEN'S JERSEY UNDERWEAR—Men's jersey ribbed underwear, made of good yarn; short sleeves, drawers made with reinforced gussets, regular 50c garment, at.....29c Each

Merrimack Street Section

LADIES' SHIRT WAISTS—Ladies' shirt waists, made in all the latest models, and nicely trimmed waists made of fine lingerie, batiste and fine lawn, $1.00 to $1.50 value, at 79c Each

LADIES' SILK WAISTS—Ladies' waists, made of plain white and black silk muslin, also fancy stripes with fine embroidery collars, $1.50 value, at.....$1.00 Each

CORSET COVERS—Ladies' corset covers, made of fine nainsook, lace and ribbon trimmings, 25c value, at.....12 1-2c Each

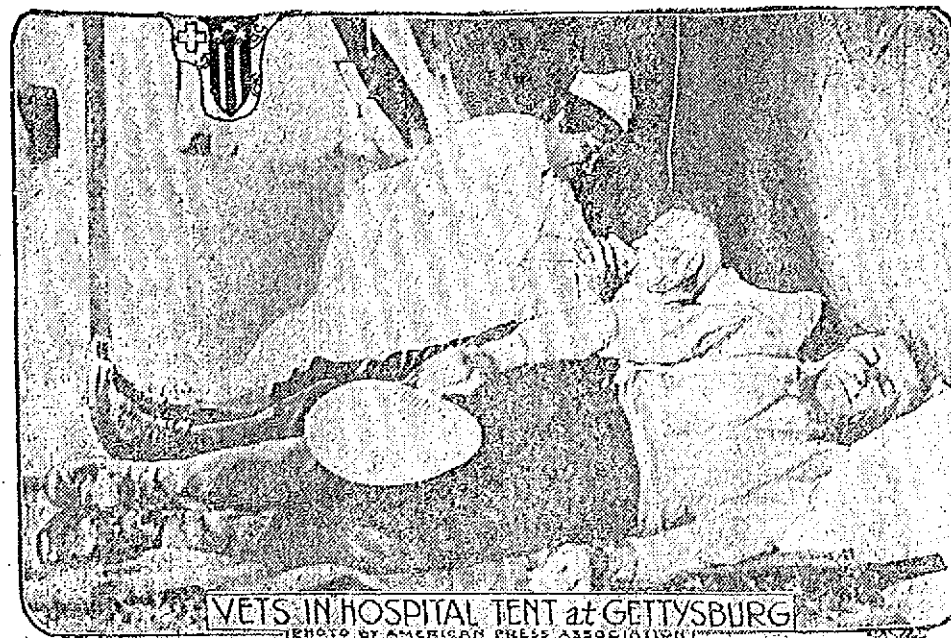

SILK PETTICOATS—Petticoats, made of fine silk fabric in fancy colors, $2.00 garment, at.....98c Each

Lowell, Saturday, July 5, 1913

THE LOWELL SUN SATURDAY JULY 5 1913

VETERANS PAY TRIBUTE TO GETTYSBURG DEAD—

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS FEATURE OF THE DAY

VETS IN HOSPITAL TENT at GETTYSBURG

GETTYSBURG, July 5.—The regular army paid tribute yesterday to the thousands who sleep under the hills of Gettysburg.

Somewhere down in the heart of the tented city a bugle rang out in silver sweet call that wandered over the field where Lee and Meade made history.

The bugle day before the headquarters of Gen. Sigbee, flashing in sudden curves of red and white and blue, glorious in the sunshine of a perfect July day, came slowly halfway down the shaft.

In front of the tent, shoulders squared, figure trim in summer uniform of white, face toward the flag, the general ordered his heels together and stood at attention. Somewhere the guns of the 3d battery burst into staccato salute.

Every officer over the length and breadth of that wide field, every enlisted man turned away from the duties of the moment and faced the flag, heels together, heads up and eyes averted with the sentiment of the hour.

As the last gun of 45 sent the echoes clattering about Seminary ridge and Round Top there was solemn silence, the hush of peace. Old veterans who did not realize, perhaps, exactly what was going on stood silent under the spell of the universal feeling that seemed to sweep the field. Even the clatter of pots and pans in the mess tents was hushed and the yells of cooks about to dish up the mid-day meal lowered to whispers. For five minutes the camp was quiet. Then the bugle spoke in notes more joyous. The silken flag leaped up the staff to its pinnacle and the noises that 40,000 men can make resumed their way—the regular army's tribute to the head and to the flag of a reunited nation.

That five minutes' silence was probably the last formal mark of the semi-centennial celebration. Only a few minutes before President Wilson spoke in the big tent to the veterans in blue and gray and only a short time afterwards thousands of those who were left began their preparations for departure.

The president came into Gettysburg shortly before 11 o'clock from Baltimore. He motored out to camp with Gov. Tener of Pennsylvania and Rep. Palmer of Pennsylvania. His appearance at the station at Gettysburg was the signal for a cheer, and from somewhere down in the Gettysburg college grounds came the customary 21 salutes. From the station to the camp, over the village streets and dusty Emmitsburg road, the president was driven, while the Pennsylvania constabulary guarded the automobile and kept the traffic clear.

At the entrance to the big tent the president paused for a moment to let the camera battery pop away as he stood with head uncovered between a veteran from either army. His entrance into the tent to the strains of "Hail to the Chief" brought the crowd, which those who estimate say numbered 10,000, quick from their chairs with a cheer. The speakers' platform was filled with the staff officers of governors, with men in Confederate gray and a few in blue, with women in gay dresses, and the president in his black frock coat was a quiet figure.

Gov. Tener introduced him in a dozen words, and as he rose to speak there was another cheer.

The president spoke slowly and carefully, but the breeze that played under the side of the tent, the restless feet of those who hastened in made it difficult for the old man in the rear seats to hear and understand. He was interrupted only once or twice with cheering. At the conclusion of his address, however, the president was vociferously applauded.

After an enthusiastic reception the president said:

Friends and Fellow Citizens—I need not tell you what the battle of Gettysburg meant. These gallant men in blue and gray sit all about us here. Many of them met here upon this ground in grim and deadly struggle. Upon these famous fields and hillsides their comrades died about them. In their presence it were an impertinence to discourse upon how the battle went, how it ended, what it signified. But 53 years have gone by since then, and I crave the privilege of speaking to you for a few minutes of what those 53 years have meant.

What have they meant? They have meant peace and union and vigor, and the maturity and might of a great nation. How wholesome and healing the peace has been! We have found one another again as brothers and comrades in arms, enemies no longer, generous friends rather, our battles long past, the quarrel forgotten—except that we shall not forget the splendid valor, the manly devotion of the men then arrayed against one another, now grasping hands and smiling into each other's eyes.

How complete the union has become and how dear to all of us now unquestioned, how benign and majestic, as state after state has been added to this great family of free men! How handsome the vigor, the maturity, the might of the great Nation we love with undivided hearts; how full of large and confident promises that a life will be wrought out of this will crown its strength with gracious justice and with a happy welfare that will touch all alike with deep contentment! We are debtors to those 50 crowded years; they have made us heirs to a mighty heritage.

Veterans Set Example
But do we deem the nation complete and fulfilled? These venerable men crowding here to this famous field have set us a great example of devotion and utter sacrifice. They were willing to die that the people might live. But their task is done. Their day is turned into evening. They look to us to perfect what they established. Their work is handed on to us to be done in another way, but not in another spirit. Our day is not over; it is upon us in full tide.

Have affairs paused? Does the nation stand still? Is what the 50 years have wrought since those days of battle finished, rounded out, and completed? Here is a great people, great with every force that has ever beaten to the lifeblood of mankind. And it is secure. There is no one within its borders, there is no power among the nations of the earth, to make it afraid. But has it yet squared itself with its own great standards set up at its birth, when it made that first noble, naive appeal to the moral judgment of mankind to take notice that a government had now at last been established which was to serve men, not masters? It is secure in everything except the satisfaction that its life is right, adjusted to the uttermost to the standards of righteousness and humanity. The days of sacrifice and cleansing are not closed. We have harder things to do than were done in the heroic days of war, because harder to see clearly, requiring more vision, more calm, more of judgment, a more candid searching of the very springs of right.

Look around you upon the field of Gettysburg! Picture the array, the fierce heats and agony of battle, column hurled against column, battery bellowing to battery! Valor? Yes! Greater no man shall see in war; and self-sacrifice, and loss to the uttermost, the high recklessness of exalted devotion which does not count the cost. We are made by these tragic, epic things to know what it costs to make a nation—the blood and sacrifice of multitudes of unknown men lifted to a great stature in the view of all generations by knowing no limit to their manly willingness to serve. In armies thus marshaled from the ranks of free men you will see, as it were, a nation unbattered, the leaders and the led, and may know, if you will, how little except in form its action differs in days of peace from its action in days of war.

War Fitted Us For Action
May we break camp now and be at ease? Are the forces that fight for the nation dispersed, disbanded, gone to their homes for good, the common cause? Are our forces disorganized, without constituted leaders and the might of men consciously united because we contend, not with armies, but with principalities and powers and wickedness in high places? Are we content to let still? Does our union mean sympathy, our peace contentment, our vigor right action, our maturity self-comprehension and a clear confidence in choosing what we shall do? War fitted us for action, and action never ceases.

I have been chosen the leader of the nation. I can not justify the choice by any qualities of my own, but so it has come about, and here I stand. Whom do I command? The ghostly hosts who fought upon these battlefields long ago and are gone? These gallant gentlemen stricken in years whose fighting days are over, their glory won? What are the orders for them, and who rallies them? I have in my mind another host, whom these set free of civil strife in order that they might work out in days of peace and settled order the life of a great nation. That host is the people themselves, the great and the small, without class or difference of kind or race or origin, and undivided in interest, if we have but the vision to guide and direct them and order their lives aright in what we do. Our constitutions are their articles of enlistment. The orders of the day are the laws upon our statute books. What we strive for is their freedom. The mines to lift themselves from day to day and behold the things they have hoped for, and so make way for still better days for those whom they love who are to come after them. The recruits are the little children crowding in. The quartermaster's stores are in the mines and forests and fields in the shops and factories. Every day something must be done to push the campaign forward; and it must be done by plan and with an eye to some great destiny.

How shall we hold such thoughts in our hearts and not be moved? I would not have you live even today wholly in the past, but would wish to stand with you in the light that streams upon us now out of that great day gone by. Here is the nation God has built by our hands. What shall we do with it? Who stands ready to act again and always in the spirit of the nation's reunion and hope and patriotic fervor? The day of our country's life has but broadened into morning. Do not put uniforms by. Put the harness of the present on. Lift your eyes to the great tracts of life yet to be conquered in the interest of righteous peace, of that prosperity which lies in a people's peace and outlasts all wars and errors of men. Come, let us be comrades and soldiers yet to serve our fellow men in quiet counsel, where the glare of trumpets is neither heard nor heeded and where the things are done which make the nation of the future live in peace and righteousness and love.

Worms in Children.
By Dr. True

If mothers only knew the tortures their little ones may suffer from worms!

Thousands of children have stomach worms or pin worms and their parents do not know it. They doctor them for other ailments.

Signs of worms are: Indigestion, with a variable appetite; abnormal craving for sweets; nausea and vomiting; swollen upper lip; sour tongue; offensive breath; hard and full belly with occasional gripings and pains about the navel; face at one time flushed, then pale and in a few cases the face takes on a dull leaden hue. Eyes heavy and dull, twitching eyelids; itching of the nose; itching of the rectum; short, dry cough; grinding of the teeth; little red points sticking out on tongue; starting during sleep; slow fever; pulse quickened and irregular; body maybe hot; and often, in children, convulsions.

Don't delay! Delays are dangerous. Give the children at once some of Dr. True's Elixir. Directions on the bottle. Sold by all dealers at 25c, 50c and $1.00. Thousands of grateful mothers have given me Dr. True's Elixir to sick children and restored them to health.

GUMB BROS.
MONUMENTS AND MEMORIALS
Of all descriptions in granite, marble and bronze. Our manufacturing plant has the most modern power, equipment and every labor saving device.
Cor. Gorham and Anderson Sts.
Near Edison Cemetery. Tel. 1917

Avoid Impure Milk

for Infants and Invalids

Get
HORLICK'S

It means the Original and Genuine

MALTED MILK

"Others are Imitations"

The Food-Drink for all Ages.

Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form. More healthful than tea or coffee. For infants, invalids and growing children. Agrees with the weakest digestion. Pure nutrition, upbuilding the whole body. Keep it on your sideboard at home. Invigorates nursing mothers and the aged. A quick lunch prepared in a minute.

Take no substitute. Ask for HORLICK'S.

HORLICK'S Contains Pure Milk

WE CARRY A COMPLETE LINE OF

HOUSEHOLD FURNISHINGS

AT LOWEST PRICES, AND ARE SOLE AGENTS

IN LOWELL FOR THE CELEBRATED

CRESCENT RANGE

PETER DAVEY

184 MARKET ST. TELEPHONE CONNECTION 79-2

FURNITURE DEALER. UNDERTAKER. FUNERAL DIRECTOR

FOURTH AT TYNGSBORO

Patriotic Observance and

Fine Program

Independence day was very appropriately celebrated in the town of Tyngsboro yesterday. Although the large cannon crackers and other noisy explosives were not in evidence the day was very much enjoyed by all who gathered there to witness the program which had been arranged.

A feature of the day was the presentation of an historical pageant, "The Bridal of Pennacook," an adaptation of Whittier's poem, and given by a cast of 40 people of that town. The entertainment was given in Stony Hurst grove, which is near the central station and previous to the pageant a program of sports was carried out and a band concert given by Pease's band of this city.

Among the tall pines of the grove were built Indian wigwags and the play was elaborately staged under the direction of Mrs. Belle Harrington Hall. The poem which has to do with Indian life along the Merrimack river was very interesting and all characters were portrayed with great fidelity.

At the conclusion of the pageant Rev. N. S. Hosagard of Tyngsboro read the Declaration of Independence and a patriotic address was given by Rev. Albert F. Newton of Dunstable.

THE PERRY CENTENNIAL Opened at Put-In Bay
Yesterday

PUT-IN BAY, O., July 5.—Sweltering in a temperature measured at 100 degrees in the shade, thousands of persons yesterday witnessed the opening of the Perry centennial and the laying of the cornerstone of the Perry victory monument which will be erected on this island by the half dozen or more states taking part in the centennial. The big event of the opening day was the laying of the cornerstone of a million dollar monument. A procession more than a mile in length marched to the site and listened to addresses by Col. Henry Watterston and former Senator John M. Whitehead of the Wisconsin commission. The actual cornerstone laying was performed by the grand lodge of Ohio Masons.

17 THROWN FROM TRUCK

Ball Players Hurt When

Car Jumped Ditch

DANBURY, Conn., July 5.—Seventeen persons, including the members of the Danbury baseball team of the New York and New Jersey league were thrown from a long motor truck in descending a steep hill near here yesterday. Manager Ernest C. Landgraff had a leg broken and Frank Hardy of Providence, R. I., an umpire, was rendered unconscious. Several of the players had their ankles sprained. The driver lost control of the car and it jumped over a ditch and through a barbed-wire fence.

Money deposited on or before Saturday, July 5th, in The Lowell Five Cent Savings bank will draw interest from that day.

QUINCY HOUSE

Boston's Most Centrally Located Hotel. Comfort Without Extravagance. Midway between the North and South Stations, centre of business, historic, shopping and theatre districts. All lines of electric cars within a minute's walk.

600 Rooms $1 a Day and Upwards. Special Breakfast.....25c to 50c. Special Lunch every day.....50c. Our 12-Course Table d'Hôte $1.

Supper is unexcelled anywhere. Music and Solists Every Afternoon and Evening. Banquets, Conventions, Parties. Meetings can receive every accommodation necessary at the most reasonable prices.

Visit the Japanese Garden. Boston's most novel cafe. A la Carte at reasonable prices. You will find every modern convenience and proper attention at the Quincy House, Boston. Taxicab service.

WRITE FOR ACCOMMODATIONS

CUNARD

BOSTON

Queenstown, Fishguard, Liverpool, London

Frankonia July 2

Laconia July 8

Frankonia Aug. 5

Laconia Aug. 19

And fortnightly

FRANCONIA AND LACONIA

15,120 TONS, the Largest Steamers from Boston

New York Fishguard Liverpool

Calling at Queenstown

Campania July 9

Caronia July 16

New York, Mediterranean

Ibernia July 19

Ullania July 19

For booklets, rates, etc., apply to

D. Murphy, 15 Appleton St., A. Leeds, 5 Bridge St., J. F. O'Donnell, 324 Market St., O. A. Dermott, 121 Moore St., or to 126 State St., Boston.

THE ALLAN LINE

Only Direct Sailing

Between

BOSTON—DERRY—GLASGOW

S. S. "Numidian", July 5th, at 12 Noon

One Class Cabin (11) $13.00

Third Class $3.00

DENIS MURPHY, 18 Appleton St.

FREDERICK B. LEEDS, 5 Bridge St.

H. & A. ALLAN, 90 State St., Boston.

Dr. Thomas Jefferson King

PREMIER PAINLESS DENTIST

MOVES TO 71 CENTRAL ST.

Over Raynes' Jewelry Store.

Money Saving Dental Offer

$8 Best Set of Teeth

DR. T. J. KING

My $8 set are the most lifelike and finest fitting plates that dental science can produce. You desire a special set, and it is all you need in this office for the best set. We have the reputation of making the most natural looking, the finest fitting and the best wearing teeth. No set ever leaves our office until the patron is perfectly satisfied as to fit and appearance. I give my personal guarantee For 10 Years with each set. If you cannot afford this $8 set, a $5 set the best for the money, may be procured.

Teeth Without Plates

THE NEW SUBSTITUTES

TEETH

$5 This is the only office where gold crowns and teeth without plates (undetectable from natural ones) are inserted positively without pain.

Painless Extraction Free

Dr. T. J. KING

71 Central St., Lowell, Mass.

NO PAIN Lady Attendant—French Spoken. NO HIGH PRICES

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

NEW GETTYSBURG ADDRESS

The opportunity of speaking at the great peace reunion at Gettysburg yesterday gave President Wilson a chance of making himself famous, and he availed of it well. It would be unjust to the president at this time to compare his speech with the perfect address of Lincoln at the same spot, but it is no exaggeration to say that his brief address is an expression of the loftiest sentiment—beautiful in form, powerful in vigorous condensation, and noble in eloquent idealism. It is worthy of the place, the occasion and the man.

In opening, the president made it plain that his intention was not to review the history of the war, but rather to consider what the years of union have brought about. All people will understand the sentiments that prompted the following pregnant sentences:

"These gallant men in blue and gray sit all about us here. Many of them met here upon this ground in grim and deadly struggle. Upon these famous fields and hillsides the combat died about them. In their presence it was an impertinence to discourse upon how the battle went, how it ended, what it signified; but 50 years have gone by since then, and I crave the privilege of speaking to you for a few minutes of what those 50 years have meant."

From the above introduction until the end of the address, the thoughts of the president flow with a great freedom as he is inspired with the purpose of the present and sees the "new freedom" of the future. Speaking of the years that have passed since the war he says:

"What have they meant? They have meant peace and union and vigor, and the maturity and might of a great nation. How wholesome and healing the peace has been. We have found one another again as brothers and comrades in arms, enemies no longer, generous friends rather, our battles long past, the quarrel forgotten except that we shall not forget the splendid valor, the manly devotion of the men then arrayed against one another, now grasping hands and smiling into each other's eyes. We are debtors to those fifty crowded years; they have made us heirs to a mighty heritage."

But here the president reminds his hearers and the world that the war did not end the struggle for right. The nation does not stand still. The great people united against foes from without and from within are still engaged in the warfare of peace—the warfare that strives to square the things of today with the olden ideals of right. How directly the president outlines the issue:

"We have harder things to do than were done in the heroic days of war, because harder to see clearly, requiring more vision, more balance of judgment, a more candid searching of the very springs of right."

Let his words should be interpreted to mean a reflection on the struggle of other days he continues in the following noble passage—a passage that is worthy of a place in the great literature of the nations:

"Look around you upon the field of Gettysburg. Picture the array, the fierce heats, the columns hurled against columns, banners following to battery! Valor? Yes! Greater no man shall see in war; and self-sacrifice, and loss to the uttermost; the high recklessness of exalted devotion which does not count the cost. We are made by these tragic, little things that it costs to make a nation—the blood and sacrifice of multitudes of unknown men lifted to a great stature in the view of all generations by knowing no limit to their manly willingness to serve. In armies thus marshalled from the ranks of free men, it was not the war, it was a nation embattled, the leaders and the led, and may know, if you will, how little except in form its action differs in days of peace from its action in days of war."

Filled with the great vision of the past the president sees before him not the limited expanse of Gettysburg hills and valleys, but the whole of this vast country in which the hosts of the people look to him for guidance in the ceaseless battle of right against wrong. He draws a fine comparison between the battle of 1863 and the peaceful battle of the present. All the elements of real warfare are introduced, even to the recruits—"the little children crowding in." Thrilled by this great figurative army, he winds up in the following lofty and patriotic exhortation:

"How shall we hold such thoughts in our hearts and not be moved? I would not have you live even today, wholly in the past, but would wish to stand with you in the light that streams upon us now out of that great day gone by. Here is the nation God has built by our hands. What shall we do with it? Will you be ready to act again and always in the spirit of this day of reunion and hope and patriotic fervor? The day of our country's life has broadened into morning. Do not put uniforms by. Put the harness of the present on. Lift your eyes to the great tracks of life yet to be conquered in the interest of right and peace, of that prosperity which lies in a people's hearts and outlasts all wars and errors of men. Come, let us be comrades and soldiers yet to serve our fellow men in quiet courage, where the blare of trumpets is neither heard nor heeded and where the things are done which make blessed the nations of the world in peace and righteousness and love."

LIGHTS ON VEHICLES

Automobilists of this region have just cause to be indignant at the very great disregard of the law which is rigidly enforced would compel all vehicles to carry a light or lights at night. On the boulevards and country roads particularly it is not unusual to meet several offending vehicles during an evening's spin, and it is only by the exercise of great caution on the part of those who comply with the law, that parties offending in this respect do not meet with serious accident more frequently. When the night is dark, it is very difficult to see vehicles which do not carry lights, and every sharp corner is fraught with danger to their drivers and to those who may collide with them. It is to the mutual advantage of all who use the roads and streets at night that the very positive law requiring vehicles to carry lights be observed, and it is to be hoped that they will see the matter in this light speedily.

The difficulty in enforcing this law is that offenders are not reported to the proper authorities usually until serious damage is done to life and property; great risks are taken nightly through criminal negligence without entailing any punishment on those responsible. Automobilists should have no hesitation in reporting the violators of this most necessary law, if they are at all able to ascertain who the offenders are. The automobilist who does this does a service to all others who may follow, and he is helping along a movement which would eventually result in general good. Even the man who openly offends against the law would be benefited on being reported, because although exposure might cost him a little money, a continuation of his reprehensible carelessness might eventually cost him his life. If he wishes to endanger his own existence he will resist interference, but he should not be allowed to endanger the lives of others. This he does every time he drives a vehicle at night without the light prescribed by a much neglected law.

SEPTEMBER MORN

"September Morn"—a picture of an innocent young creature who in a moment of absent-mindedness waded into a lake without her bathing suit, and consequently finds the water rather chilly, is receiving a great deal of attention lately from the press and public and incidentally from some kind-hearted old ladies who would like to present the shockingly careless young maiden with a bath robe. As usual in this most moral country, the picture stores feel it only their plain duty to put the indiscreet female on exhibition in their store windows so that the public may form their own opinion; the papers follow suit by publishing her picture in the same pose; societies for the preservation of public morals pass judgment, and the postal authorities strive to guide our conscience by giving a verdict on its fitness to pass through the mails—the last court of appeal in moral questions in America. In the meantime, the artist is getting some splendid advertising and the public buys on—innocent of the game being played. The author of the famous, or infamous—if it were not ridiculous—"Three Weeks" made a great hit with her publisher when she came here and had the book condemned by some New York purist societies. When we discover that the French painter of "September Morn" painted her sister last year in the same attitude, the reflection comes that he now knows America better and sells his picture by having it publicly condemned. We have not profited much from the declaration of Barnum that the American people enjoy being fooled.

DISCREDITED AT HOME

After returning to Germany with more money than honor, Dr. Friedmann has had to face open repudiation by the leading medical practitioners of his own country. A despatch from Berlin states that an offer of one of his associates was turned down by "an overwhelming majority" by members of the Berlin medical society. The significance of the action is shown by the nature of Dr. Friedmann's offer, which was to subject his "cure" to any test which the society should think advisable. If the shrewd doctor has any sense of the dignity of his profession and any regard for the public opinion of the world, he is apt to live long enough to discover that money wrung from the hoping trust of suffering humanity may become as unwelcome as the wealth of Midas. There are few doctors worthy of the name either here or in Germany who envy him his position.

The King of All Laxatives

For constipation, headache, indigestion and dyspepsia, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. Paul Mathulka, of Buffalo, N. Y., says they are the "King of all laxatives" and he is hesitating to tell my family and I always keep a box at home. Get a box and get well. Price 25c. Recommended by A. W. Dows & Co.

CUT PRICES ON

Leather Goods
DEVINE'S

124 MERRIMACK STREET
Repairing, Etc. Telephone 2162.

BEST AND HEALTH TO MOTHER AND CHILD.
Mrs. KENNEDY'S SCOTT'S EMERALD has been used for over SIXTY YEARS by MILLIONS of MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WHILE TEething, with PERFECT SUCCESS. It soothes the CHILD, cures COLIC, CRIES, ALLAYS PAIN, CURES WIND COLIC, and is the best remedy for DIARRHOEA. It is absolutely harmless. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Kennedy's SCOTT'S EMERALD" and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

That Walter and "Bud" are planning for their vacations.

That better men could not have been secured for directors of the French American exchange than Messrs. Joseph L. Marin and Ephraim Pelletier.

That Neal R. Mahoney will make a capable and efficient postmaster for North Billerica.

That Joe Legare will now be able to travel through the states and the Dominion.

That President William Pendergast of the local Typo is hustling for the New England convention of the organization.

That "Dick" Griffith knows how to avoid automobiles and delivery wagons.

That there were more candidates for the postmastership than those mentioned in the papers.

That were the Mazzagnana to remain in Lowell and his business would be good with the tourists.

That Lowell friends of Frank X. Tyrrell would like to see the governor name him for the state finance commission.

That many a youngster from the "Flats" got up early this morning and took himself to the South common to look for tennis.

That the 194 Ranch will west show greatly interfered with business on the South common the night before.

That according to the old Farmer's Almanac the full-grown dog-days will not be here until the 26th.

That the position of postmaster is worth waiting for and fighting for.

That the trouble with the glorious Fourth as a holiday is that one is more tired the day after than the night before.

That it doesn't pay to be too independent even on Independence day.

That neglecting the teeth means more gold—but not in the pocket.

That the next bill to be held up by the committee on accounts will have to do with repairs to the purchasing agent's carriage.

That as sergeant Patrolman Petrie will fill the bill quite acceptably.

That Patrolman Jack Sullivan got quite a fall last Saturday night.

That "Tom" O'Donnell just missed the new sign by a hair.

That Lowell friends of Lott F. McNamara of Haverhill are gratified at his appointment as postmaster.

That with Michael F. Boyle as president, the Matthews will surely grow in numbers and in influence.

That quite a colony of cottages has sprung up at Silver Lake.

That the county board of the A. O. U. discussed an important matter at the meeting in Weburn recently.

That the residents of upper Chelmsford street raised that flag long ago.

That if Sept. Farrington spent as much time around Merrimack square as at Lakeview, he might find greater opportunities to set things right.

That a car conductor who took on a blind man agreeing to let him off at Merrimack square carried him a quarter of a mile past the square and then told him to walk back until he saw "The Sun" building.

That Mayor O'Donnell may soon have to deal with another police officer for making false arrests.

That a patriotic open air feature for children should be provided in every fourth of July celebration.

That the mill hands now out on vacation will spend much of their time on Fort Hill park.

That our city government should not await another epidemic to provide a hospital for contagious diseases.

That parents should keep their children away from the rivers and canals unless accompanied by somebody to save them from being drowned.

That a few clergymen from Lowell are having an ideal time motoring in Europe.

That the plan of making money by leasing a building and pushing up the rents does not always pay.

That the clerks at the Bon Marche appreciate the courtesy of the management for the holiday on the date of their annual picnic.

That the railway officials wonder why more Lowell people do not go out to Lakeview when their car service is so good that it is necessary to carry 150 passengers on one car of medium size.

That when it was announced that the new postmaster was at North Billerica the townspeople said, "I told you so."

That the speed-king of the Western Union enjoyed a half-holiday on Tuesday and his friends do not know where he went.

That the vacations in the department stores will begin next week.

That the head of the American Woolen company engaged the $3000 suite on the "Imperator" sailing from New York, but perhaps you wouldn't like it but William Wood.

That the scenes painted on the interior of George Gonzalez' new restaurant on Market street are not excelled by any this side of New York.

That Dr. Joseph Jantzen nearly got taken away on the "Arable" on Tuesday last.

That P. B. C. sent some very personal messages to Queen Mary, not to mention the trinkets of which he was so particular.

That one gentleman in the Lowell crowd which escorted those about to sail for Europe insisted on saying "Good bye" properly.

That Joe Molloy discovered a cubist picture.

That the young lady in Talbot's office in Middle street showed great originality when she made up that box.

That a young man who got a gift of gold cuff links for being best man was not next day to find that they sounded hollow.

That the police officer at Fort Hill park has a position of great delicacy, particularly on Wednesday evenings.

That a young man who wore a linen suit down street on Wednesday was the envy of all male beholders and the admired of the females.

That the proprietor of a Central street store is experimenting on his first moustache.

That the gentleman who won the white flannel trousers is going to wear them when the weather grows warmer.

That Miss Mary Guilfoyle's name was unintentionally omitted from the list of those who escorted the Lowell party to the "Arable."

That the peculiar flavor of the pink lemonade was not because of the changes in the pond on the common.

That "Wild Susie, the terror of the Rockies" was the nearest approach we have had yet to an English militant suffragette.

That Mary Konevsky rode on the "water wave," won a Teddy bear, took as at Lakeview, he might find greater opportunities to set things right.

That a car conductor who took on a blind man agreeing to let him off at Merrimack square carried him a quarter of a mile past the square and then told him to walk back until he saw "The Sun" building.

That Mayor O'Donnell may soon have to deal with another police officer for making false arrests.

That a patriotic open air feature for children should be provided in every fourth of July celebration.

That the mill hands now out on vacation will spend much of their time on Fort Hill park.

That our city government should not await another epidemic to provide a hospital for contagious diseases.

That parents should keep their children away from the rivers and canals unless accompanied by somebody to save them from being drowned.

That a few clergymen from Lowell are having an ideal time motoring in Europe.

That the plan of making money by leasing a building and pushing up the rents does not always pay.

That the clerks at the Bon Marche appreciate the courtesy of the management for the holiday on the date of their annual picnic.

That the railway officials wonder why more Lowell people do not go out to Lakeview when their car service is so good that it is necessary to carry 150 passengers on one car of medium size.

That when it was announced that the new postmaster was at North Billerica the townspeople said, "I told you so."

That the speed-king of the Western Union enjoyed a half-holiday on Tuesday and his friends do not know where he went.

That the vacations in the department stores will begin next week.

That the head of the American Woolen company engaged the $3000 suite on the "Imperator" sailing from New York, but perhaps you wouldn't like it but William Wood.

That the scenes painted on the interior of George Gonzalez' new restaurant on Market street are not excelled by any this side of New York.

That Dr. Joseph Jantzen nearly got taken away on the "Arable" on Tuesday last.

That P. B. C. sent some very personal messages to Queen Mary, not to mention the trinkets of which he was so particular.

That one gentleman in the Lowell crowd which escorted those about to sail for Europe insisted on saying "Good bye" properly.

That Joe Molloy discovered a cubist picture.

That the young lady in Talbot's office in Middle street showed great originality when she made up that box.

That a young man who got a gift of gold cuff links for being best man was not next day to find that they sounded hollow.

That the police officer at Fort Hill park has a position of great delicacy, particularly on Wednesday evenings.

That a young man who wore a linen suit down street on Wednesday was the envy of all male beholders and the admired of the females.

That the proprietor of a Central street store is experimenting on his first moustache.

That the gentleman who won the white flannel trousers is going to wear them when the weather grows warmer.

That Miss Mary Guilfoyle's name was unintentionally omitted from the list of those who escorted the Lowell party to the "Arable."

That the peculiar flavor of the pink lemonade was not because of the changes in the pond on the common.

That "Wild Susie, the terror of the Rockies" was the nearest approach we have had yet to an English militant suffragette.

That Mary Konevsky rode on the "water wave," won a Teddy bear, took

as at Lakeview, he might find greater opportunities to set things right.

That a car conductor who took on a blind man agreeing to let him off at Merrimack square carried him a quarter of a mile past the square and then told him to walk back until he saw "The Sun" building.

That Mayor O'Donnell may soon have to deal with another police officer for making false arrests.

That a patriotic open air feature for children should be provided in every fourth of July celebration.

That the mill hands now out on vacation will spend much of their time on Fort Hill park.

That our city government should not await another epidemic to provide a hospital for contagious diseases.

That parents should keep their children away from the rivers and canals unless accompanied by somebody to save them from being drowned.

That a few clergymen from Lowell are having an ideal time motoring in Europe.

That the plan of making money by leasing a building and pushing up the rents does not always pay.

That the clerks at the Bon Marche appreciate the courtesy of the management for the holiday on the date of their annual picnic.

That the railway officials wonder why more Lowell people do not go out to Lakeview when their car service is so good that it is necessary to carry 150 passengers on one car of medium size.

That when it was announced that the new postmaster was at North Billerica the townspeople said, "I told you so."

That the speed-king of the Western Union enjoyed a half-holiday on Tuesday and his friends do not know where he went.

That the vacations in the department stores will begin next week.

That the head of the American Woolen company engaged the $3000 suite on the "Imperator" sailing from New York, but perhaps you wouldn't like it but William Wood.

That the scenes painted on the interior of George Gonzalez' new restaurant on Market street are not excelled by any this side of New York.

That Dr. Joseph Jantzen nearly got taken away on the "Arable" on Tuesday last.

That P. B. C. sent some very personal messages to Queen Mary, not to mention the trinkets of which he was so particular.

That one gentleman in the Lowell crowd which escorted those about to sail for Europe insisted on saying "Good bye" properly.

That Joe Molloy discovered a cubist picture.

That the young lady in Talbot's office in Middle street showed great originality when she made up that box.

That a young man who got a gift of gold cuff links for being best man was not next day to find that they sounded hollow.

That the police officer at Fort Hill park has a position of great delicacy, particularly on Wednesday evenings.

That a young man who wore a linen suit down street on Wednesday was the envy of all male beholders and the admired of the females.

That the proprietor of a Central street store is experimenting on his first moustache.

That the gentleman who won the white flannel trousers is going to wear them when the weather grows warmer.

chances on a gold watch, and had a frankfurt and a glass of Moxie.

That, judging from the whistled accompaniment, "In My Haven" was the most popular number of the evening concert on Fort Hill.

That George Allard was not quite sure whether he ought to go in or not.

That it was very difficult to convince one young man that the sharp-shooter was a real Indian.

That it was easy to conjure up a picture of the tower of Babel after a trip to the midway.

That "September Morn" was not photographed at Lake Mascopple.

That the smoke goes up the chimney—or a few of them—just the same.

That a young man should not be hindered by a mouse when it is his only claim to distinction.

Seen and Heard

The ship Hagen, which is the largest vessel in the world to be propelled by Diesel oil engines, recently made her trial trip in the lower New York bay.

The vessel, which was built for the standard Oil company, measures 400 feet over all and has a displacement of $350 tons. She is equipped with two six-cylinder Diesel engines of two cycle type, adapted to develop 2100 horse power at 110 revolutions a minute.

At sea the steering engine is driven by compressed air. When heaving port, steam from a donkey boiler is used in the steering engine.

The vessel is lighted by electricity and the living quarters are heated by a hot water system, the water being heated by the main exhaust of the engine.

During the test the vessel ran at about eleven knots.

The following is taken from Farm and Fireside:

From weather bureau data covering a period of fifteen years it has been discovered that the average temperature of the United States is 52.3 degrees Fahrenheit, and the average amount of rainfall is 39.8 cubic miles.

The state of Arizona had the lowest amount of annual precipitation, 5.5 inches, of any state during the fourteen years which extended from 1891 to 1904, inclusive. Alabama had the greatest amount of rainfall, 71.6 inches.

The state having the lowest average temperature was North Dakota, 35.5 degrees. Florida had the highest temperature, 71.5 degrees.

It was the great geologist, Col. Robert C. Ingersoll, who first "discovered" Julia Marlowe, writes Wendell Phillips Dodge, in the Strand. Through his friend, Colonel McClure, of the Philadelphia Times, Colonel Ingersoll was induced to attend a performance by Julia Marlowe as Parthenia in "In a Room."

This was Julia Marlowe's first season as a classic actress, and so impressed was Colonel Ingersoll with her great capabilities that he at once became her staunch champion and on Jan. 22, 1888, wrote this letter to his friend, Murat Halstead, then the editor of the Commercial Gazette, of Cincinnati:

"In a few days Miss Marlowe, a young actress, will appear in your city. She has had but little experience—a month or two—and yet, in my opinion, she is one of the greatest artists on the American stage. I want you to see her. Judged by the ordinary standard, she has what the average critic calls faults. But even these faults are so gracefully committed that they seem at the worst to be weeds in blossom."

She is the impersonation of unconscious grace—natural as heaven's blue. I want you to see her. Take my word for it that you will not feel that an evening has been lost. (Signed) Yours always, R. C. Ingersoll."

Mr. Engelbach, an English author, in a new volume, on humors of the law, relates the following queer bit of history, says Harper's Weekly.

"Some years ago men used to walk about openly in Westminster hall with a piece of straw in their bow. By this sign attorneys knew that such persons were in want of employment as false witnesses, and would give any evidence required for money. For instance, if an advocate wanted an obliging witness he would go to one of these men and show him a fee, which he would not refuse. He would then take any notice of the fee was increased until its weight reached the power of memory to a sufficient extent. By this they derived their name, 'Men of Straw.'"

EDITORIAL COMMENT

An Excellent Chance

Brookton Times: The house recess committee of the Massachusetts legislature is looking for a clerk who will serve without pay. There is an excellent chance for some ambitious politician who never would get anything out of politics or money. He can have glory without danger, a happy retirement beyond the reach of most politicians.

Lobbying

Salem News: A bill to regulate lobbying is to be presented to congress. Present charges at the capital, in the opinion of hosts of people, justify something being done in the way of reform.

Americans Manners

Lynn News—Most of us would like at once to deny the charge that we are ill-mannered. And yet we should have but a sorry time doing so. Any person who will take the trouble to observe the crowds of people on the cars, in stations and public halls, wherever they may be found grouped together, will come away with anything but a large idea of American courtesy. And the situation does not improve any.

The young people of today are by no means better-mannered than their parents. Many think they are worse. It is a common sight to see young people who seem to feel thoroughly ashamed of themselves when they do a courteous act in a public place. They are over-conscious of what should be perfectly instinctive with them. We are far from being polite, but it is hard to wax enthusiastic over American manners.

Get

Thunder showers tonight and probably Sunday; moderate southwest winds.

ESTABLISHED 1878

LOWELL, MASS. SATURDAY JULY 5, 1913

PRICE ONE CENT

LAST SMALLPOX CASE REPORTED TUESDAY

Patient Released From Hospital and Quarantine Removed—2 Suspicious Cases Reported

In view of the fact that no new cases of smallpox have been reported since Tuesday the board of health is hopeful that the tide has turned.

Two suspicious cases were reported, by telephone, this forenoon but upon examination it was found that one of the cases was ivy poisoning and the other pediculosis. A Prince street woman took two of her children to the board of health office today to have them examined. Both children had a slight rash on their faces, necks, arms and legs. There wasn't any doctor at headquarters when the woman called, and Agent Bates, who had thirty years' experience in the board, succeeded in calming the woman's fears. He pronounced it prickly heat and the woman went to the dispensary, next door, for a lotion.

A few days ago a woman called the board of health office by telephone and told of a certain doctor who had been visiting a house in the street in which she lived. "The doctor made two calls yesterday and one this morning. I think it must be smallpox but the doctor is not called," said the woman. She gave the doctor's name and Agent Bates called him by telephone. Mr. Bates asked the doctor if he had been visiting a certain street. The doctor said he had and Mr. Bates asked if it was a smallpox case. "A nine pound boy and no trace of smallpox," replied the doctor.

Patients Released Today

One patient, Donald Plante, was released from the smallpox hospital today and two other families were released from quarantine at their homes. Quarantines having been raised at the Plante home, 18 South street; the Pelletier home, 190 Fletcher street and at the home of the Lanters, 499 Moody street.

Of the twenty cases at the hospital seven have been released. There are ten cases at the French American orphanage and four of the five cases not taken to the hospital have been released. There are still twenty-four cases under observation and a majority of these will be released within a few days.

VICTIMS OF DROWNING MILITIAMEN ON MARCH Buried From Their Respective Homes Today

The funeral of William Sicard, the boy who was drowned in the Merrimack river Thursday afternoon, took place this afternoon at 1 o'clock from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Sicard, 7 Essex street. Service was held at St. Louis church. Rev. R. A. Fortier officiating. The bearers were Edgar Gervais, Gordon and Alfred Chouinard, Eugene Bennett, Eugene Gamache and Albert Ducharme. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery in charge of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

The Daigle Funeral

The funeral of Joseph Daigle, the young man who was drowned in the Merrimack river Thursday forenoon, took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the funeral parlors of Undertaker Joseph Albert. Service was held at St. Joseph's church. Rev. C. A. Paquette, O. M. L., officiating. The bearers were Charles Morin, William Gaudet, Adrien Lacour, George Gout, Eugene Fortin and Armand Perreault. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery, where the committal prayers were read at the grave by Rev. Henri Watelle, O. M. L. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

FUNERAL SERVICE

Patrick Cox of Andover, former resident of Lowell—interred here yesterday.

The funeral of Patrick Cox of Methuen, formerly of this city, took place yesterday from the Immaculate Conception church, Lawrence, Mass., was celebrated at 3 o'clock and the cortege proceeded over the road to this city where the burial took place in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery. The committal prayers were read by Rev. Fr. Mullin of St. Peter's church. About the casket was a large and beautiful array of floral tributes and many Lowell people were present at the burial as the deceased was well known in this city having lived here at one time. It is said that he was one of the oldest residents in this part of the country.

Neutralization of Philippines

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Representative Burgess of Texas today reintroduced his resolution to request the president to consider the expediency of a treaty with European powers for the neutralization of the Philippines and to protect an independent government there when established. The resolution was referred to the Insular affairs committee.

DEATHS

HICKS—John E. Hicks, an old resident of North Billerica, died today at St. John's hospital at the age of 82 years and 8 months. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Clarence Voght of East Angua, Que., and two sons, Arthur H. and Emory E. The body was removed to the funeral parlors of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

Game Postponed

American at New York—New York-Washington game postponed, rain. Double header Monday.

Pittsburgh National at Pittsburgh: St. Louis at Pittsburgh 8. (Called off at first half of first inning—rain.)

DEPOSITS

IN THE

City Institution For Savings

Will be allowed to accumulate to $2000 from July 12, 1913.

DEPOSIT TODAY

—AND—

$1.00 or More Each Week

Interest Begins Monthly

FLAK FINGER PRINTS TAKEN

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT

TRADERS National Bank

Middlesex St., P. O. Ave.

Hours: 8:30-2. Sat. 8:30-12:30, 7-9.

GREEKS SCORE GREAT VICTORY

Capture Town of Lahana From Bulgarians—Story of Great Battle at Kilkish, Near City of Saloniki.

SALONIKI, July 5.—The Greek troops today captured from the Bulgarians the small town of Lahana on the railroad from Saloniki to Serres. It is considered the most important position in the vicinity and the key to Serres, which lies about 20 miles to the northeast. The losses on both sides were considerable.

NEW YORK, July 5.—A graphic official story between the Greeks and the Bulgarians at Kilkish, 20 miles north of Saloniki, was received by the Greek daily newspaper Adonia today direct from Saloniki. It says:

"The battle between the Bulgarians and Greeks at Kilkish ended at 10 o'clock on the morning of July 4 in the complete defeat of the Bulgarians after a severe bombardment of the town by the Greeks, who carried the place at the point of the bayonet. The town was then occupied by a part of the Hellenic troops while their comrades continued the pursuit of the Bulgarians, who fled in disorder, leaving many of their field and machine guns in the hands of the victors. More than 60 cannon were captured.

Kilkish Destroyed By Fire

"Kilkish was almost completely destroyed by fire before the Bulgarians fled. The battle in front of Kilkish was more important than any of those fought by the allies in the campaign between Turkey and the Balkan states. The Bulgarians, who were much superior in numbers, had surrounded the town with defensive works and trenches nearly six feet in depth and very narrow so that their occupants were sheltered from the splinters of shells.

Fired With Great Precision

"Firing started at eight o'clock Thursday morning. The Bulgarians had stationed their heavy artillery on the heights from which they fired with great precision, the distances having been marked before the opening of hostilities. The guns first opened at a range of two miles. Their field artillery was too much exposed on the plain below and they found it impossible to bring it into action.

"The Greek infantry received orders to advance by short rushes at the double so as to render inefficient the marking of the distances by the Bulgarian artillery.

"By 11 o'clock the Bulgarians had come to the conclusion that it was impossible to stop the Greek advance, so they started a great conflagration along their front for a distance of over two miles to hide the movements of their army.

Dashed Through Flames

"The Greek light infantry in their kilts, however, dashed forward at the run, darted through the circle of flames and brought about the complete demoralization of the Bulgarian army.

"In the meantime the Greek artillery had taken up positions and opened a fierce fire which soon reduced the Bulgarian batteries to silence.

"Then the Greek infantry, with bayonets fixed, had arrived within 30 feet of the Bulgarian trenches.

"Here ensued a wild spectacle. Greeks and Bulgarians being mixed together in a furious hand to hand fight.

"At five o'clock on Friday morning the Bulgarian lines had been pierced but one of the heights around Kilkish still held out. It was occupied by a company of Bulgarians.

"The Greek light infantry dashed up the side of the hill to dislodge them and came into fierce contact which ended by the Bulgarians abandoning their munitions and their wounded and lying in disorder toward Dolran, further north, with the Greeks troops pursuing them without pity.

Trenches Filled With Dead

"The trenches around Kilkish were filled with dead.

"The Greek army from Ghorivell has crossed the river Vardar and is marching to the assault of the impregnable gorges of Torka, northwest of Dolran. The resistance offered there by the Bulgarians is much greater than at Kilkish but they are gradually retreating and the capture of Dolran by the Greeks is merely a question of hours.

Overwhelming Victory

"The victory of the Greek forces at Nigrita was also overwhelming.

Gen. Soultis, the commander of the Greek division has telegraphed that a steamer he sent to Stavros to embark a Bulgarian regiment with 10 of its officers taken prisoner at Nigrita.

"It is said that the Bulgarian troops when they abandon the towns and villages devastate them after massacring the women and children in a barbarous manner."

LATE REPORTS STATE THAT BULGARIANS HAVE RECAPTURED GHEVGHIELI

VIENNA, July 5.—The Bulgarian troops are reported by the correspondent of the Taschblatt to have recaptured the Ghevghieli at the point of the bayonet after the Greeks had been in possession of the place for 48 hours.

The Bulgarians are reported to be advancing on Egri-Palanka, where a great battle with the Servians is imminent.

Continued to page four

General Peace Pact

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Secretary Bryan expects to begin this fall actual negotiations for concluding his proposed general peace pact with the other nations of the world.

Secretary Bryan expects that the 23 governments which already have promised to give the project consideration would be increased to 30 by including all the great powers.

TWO MEN JUMPED FROM BURNING HOUSE

Dwelling and Furniture on East Merrimack Street Burned This Morning

Two men whose names are said to be La Fleur, narrowly escaped being burned to death last night when their house at 578 East Merrimack street, in which they were sleeping, caught fire and they were obliged to jump from the second story window in order to escape with their lives.

The men were the only occupants of the house and the roaring of the flames which started in the lower part of the house awakened them. Upon opening the door of their room they saw that the whole lower part of the house was ablaze and they immediately rushed to the window with what little clothing they could pick up and jumped to the ground.

The men shouted for help and one ran to the fire alarm box which was located a short distance from the house, but before the apparatus had time to arrive the house was a mass of flames and nothing was saved but the frame of the dwelling. All the furniture was lost as the fire had made such a headway before it was discovered.

Although the cause of the fire is not known it is believed that it caught from a gasoline stove which had been used during the night. The loss will be about $3000 and it is said that the building was partially covered by insurance. The house was owned by the estate of Freeman B. Shedd and was occupied by the La Fleur family.

Two Other Fires

A telephone alarm about 11:30 o'clock this morning called the fire department to the corner of Plummer avenue and East Merrimack street where a brush fire was in progress. Although the blaze was burning furiously at the time of the arrival of the apparatus it was soon put out.

Fire On Billerica Street

Hardly had the above fire been extinguished when an alarm from box 281 was sent in for a fire in a house at 82 Billerica street, where a bed caught fire. By quick work the firemen kept the damage confined to the bed. The house is occupied by a family named Morris and the cause of the fire could not be learned.

Fire In East Chelmsford

A fire which broke out on the roof of a small dwelling located on the Carleton road, East Chelmsford, yesterday, about 3 o'clock, threatened serious damage, but by the aid of several men who were in the vicinity at the time the blaze was extinguished with only the ell part of the house destroyed.

The house is owned by a Mrs. Banning of Boston and occupied by Mr. Walter Lee. The blaze was first noticed on the roof of the house and word was sent to the Chelmsford fire department, and to Chief Saunders of the local department, but as the department had just returned from an alarm from box 15 the chief did not think it advisable to send any apparatus out of the city. However, by consistent work of the men who volunteered the blaze was extinguished and the damage confined to the ell of the house. It is understood that the loss will be less than $500.

Fred C. Church carried insurance on the C. H. Clapp stable, Middlesex street, Bon Marche building and R. Vigneault's property on Phoenix ave., damaged by fire yesterday, also on the household furniture of W. A. Laffey, East Merrimack street damaged by fire this morning.

ISAAC WALTON CLUB

Held Annual Meeting at Breezy Point Cottage

At their annual meeting at Breezy Point, Long-Sought-For Pond, members of the Isaac Walton club had a jolly good time.

The party included Dr. Walsh, Dr. Provencher, Dr. Kearney, E. J. O'Donnell, Roger Lang, James F. McCarthy, Jr., and Steve Kearney. Col. H. P. Doherty acted as steward and host combined.

All of these mentioned are members of the Isaac Walton club and three new members, T. F. McCarthy, "Giant" Gallagher and Redmond Kearney, were admitted at the business meeting.

It was the second annual meeting of the Isaac Walton club to be held at Long-Sought-For and the face missed this year was that of "Patsy" Lynch, tonsorial artist and pleasure man. Lynch won all the prizes last year including the big fish prize, first fish prize and the prize for the biggest catch. He also received a prize for walking on the water without wetting his feet. No prizes were awarded this year and the biggest fish is still in the pond.

The disciples of poor old Isaac, peace to his ashes, had a great time and it remained for Poundkeeper Orville W.

Peabody to play the one mean trick of the day. Col. Doherty hired a horse and wagon from Mr. Peabody with which to tote the good things for the outing. He invited his friend, James F. McCarthy, Jr., to ride with him and Mr. McCarthy noticed that the horse didn't seem to keep the road very well. At the camp he examined the horse and found that he was blind.

About the time Old Sol was getting ready for his disappearing act, Col. Doherty suggested to his friend McCarthy that it would "be best to be going," to which Mr. McCarthy demurred. "The horse will not be able to find his way out after dark," said Mr. Doherty, "and I think we better go while it is still light."

"That horse can see just as well in the dead of night as in broad daylight," said Mr. McCarthy.

"Nonsense, man," said Doherty. "Who ever heard of a horse that could see as well at night as in broad daylight?" he added.

"The horse you drove out here today can and I know it to be a fact," said McCarthy.

There was further discussion and a bet was laid, the condition being that the loser would have to furnish the camp dinner for club next year.

It didn't take Mr. McCarthy long to prove his statement and when Colonel Doherty gazed into the blind eyes, what he said about our poundkeeper can't be mentioned in this edition.

FUNERAL OF STRIKER

2000 March in Procession at Paterson

Paterson, N. J., July 5.—Two thousand striking silk mill workers, a fifth of them women, marched today at the funeral of Vincenzo Madonna, a striker who was shot and killed in a recent riot here. The men all wore red ribbons in their coat lapels; the women red waistbands and sashes. William Haywood and Carlo Tresca, under indictment for inciting the strike rioters to riot walked at the head of the procession. There was no disorder.

Confederate Was Returning From Gettysburg

GETTYSBURG, July 5.—P. H. Hodges, a Confederate soldier of Union Hill, N. C., died today at a station in Gettysburg as he was preparing to start for home. The death of Hodges brought the total of the battlefield celebration to nine.

FOR 64 YEARS

This Bank Has Never Paid Less Than

4 Per Cent.

(Interest Begins July 1)

City Institution for Savings

CENTRAL STREET

ENHANCE YOUR HOME

To enhance your home is to increase its value—1st, in money value.

2nd, in desirability.

3rd, in comfort.

Our new low priced wiring offer is of interest to all who own unwired homes.

Telephone 821 for full particulars.

Lowell Electric Light Corp.

50 Central Street.

Supervisors and Their Assistants Receive Assignments

Patrick J. Reynolds Will Look After Boys on South Common

Mabel E. Haggerty In Charge of Girls at Greenhalge School

P. J. REYNOLDS
Supervisor South Common

MISS MABEL E. HAGGERTY
Supervisor Girls, West Centralville

The playgrounds, including the North and South commons, Aiken street, West Centralville and Fiske street grounds, will open on Monday morning. The supervisors and their assistants were assigned today. There was some question as to the advisability of opening the Aiken street grounds because of the smallpox epidemic. Park Supt. Kernan consulted with Agent Bates of the board of health and the latter allowed that the children would gather and consort whether the playground was open or not and he allowed that it would be easier to keep the children under observation on the playground than about the streets. The list of supervisors and assistants, their assignments and addresses, as given out at the office of the superintendent of parks today, is as follows:

The South Common
Patrick J. Reynolds, supervisor, 153 Chapel street; Miss Katherine M. Tobin, 40 Linden street. Miss Tobin will have charge of the girls. Marion E. Cooney, 57 Pleasant street; Marion G. Carey, 435 Lincoln street; Mary Corllyn, 256 Concord street; Eugene J. Donovan, 42 Clare street.

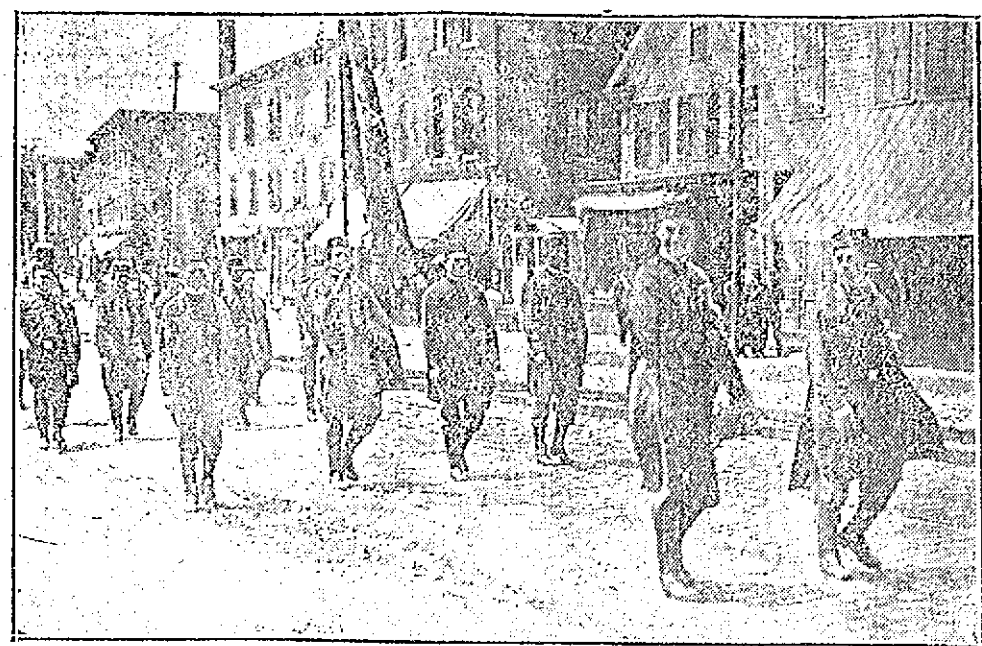

The North Common
Charles Donahue, supervisor, 22 Keene street; John McPadden, Jr., 12 Myrtle street; Mary C. Joyce, supervisor, 22 Twelfth street; Grace McCallister, 453 School street; Zola Read, 453 School street.

West Centralville
Leo J. McCarthy, supervisor, 550 Bridge street; Mabel E. Haggerty, supervisor, 121 Fiske street; Lillian G. Powers, 11 Shaw street; and May M. Cowell, 1932 Gorham street.

Aiken Street Grounds
Irving T. Gumb, supervisor, 62 Oakland street; Eugene Frappier, supervisor, 25 Hampshire street; Gladys Neilson, 1685 Middlesex street; Emily Racicot, 30 Riverside street.

Palmer Street Grounds
Irene B. White, 553 Pleasant street, Dracut.

POLISH NATIONAL CATHOLICS OPENED BURYING GROUND IN PELHAM, N. H., YESTERDAY

VIEW OF THE POLES ON PARADE IN LAKEVIEW AVENUE.

The new cemetery of the Polish National Catholic church in Pelham, N. H., was dedicated yesterday afternoon, the ceremony being attended by several hundred people, all members of the church.

At 10 o'clock in the forenoon services were held in the church by Bishop Francis Hodur of Scranton, Pa., assisted by Rev. Francis Mirek and Rev. G. Jablonski. At the conclusion of the ceremony the members of St. Casimir society and the entire congregation, including 80 members of the Falcons, and 50 little girls all dressed in white and carrying flowers, headed by the Polish Cadet band, formed in line and marched to the cemetery, where the dedication took place. The tramping in the heat of the day was long and severe. At the conclusion of the ceremony the bishop was presented a huge bouquet of flowers. At the burying grounds speeches were delivered by the bishop and Rev. Francis Mirek. The committee in charge of the ceremony was composed of the following:

The pastor, Julius Jablonski, President, Anthony Paprowicz and Jacob Targ. Stanley S. Zdzienicki marshalled the members of St. Casimir.

VETS BEGIN HOMEWARD MARCH FOR FLAG DESECRATIONS

Thousands Pack Up at Gettysburg and Leave for Homes—Regulars Remain

GETTYSBURG, July 5.—Thousands of veterans began their homeward march today after a last exchange of greetings with the new comrades they found here. Before night more than half of the army of 50,000 probably will have gone. Tomorrow the veterans will be given breakfast, the last meal in camp. That is what the army says but those who have seen the kindness that has been shown to the veterans by these busy men throughout a trying week know that they will be fed as long as they stay here, if it's a month.

Regulars Last to Go

The army tents probably will stand here until next week. The regulars will stay until the last veteran is gone. Some time before the end of the month the brown city will come down, the army will go back to other tasks and leave the field of Gettysburg to memory. That the reunion will live in memory as long as life lasts for the men who were here cannot be doubted. Its influence would be hard to calculate but if the old men who gathered around its fires act as they acted here talk as they talked here the war between the states is really over so far as those who fought in it are concerned.

The unconstructed "reb" and the unforgiving "Yankee" will be hard to find.

On the crest of Cemetery Ridge stands the statue which New York has raised to her men who fought and died at Gettysburg. On the top of a tall marble shaft is the heroic figure of a woman. In her right hand is a wreath, in her left a thin staff crowned with a liberty cap. Her head is bowed as if in grief but that long right arm with its grasp of brass points out straight toward Cemetery Ridge, a mile away across the fields where longstreets stood with bowed head watching Pickett and his brave men make their futile charge.

New York Statue to Dead

New York raised the statue to her own dead and beneath in a half circle are the graves of her men who fell here 50 years ago. It takes but little imagination to make that tall column with its speaking figure the moulded voice of the nation. It takes but a little touch of the sentiment that has grasped every man who has come to the veterans' camp to think of that outstretched arm as lifted in benediction to the men who lived and the men who died on this greatest battlefield of the war. Down a hundred yards through the trees around the statue runs the Emmetsburg road, the main artery from Gettysburg to the camp. Over that road in the heat of a July run the veterans of the armies of Meade and Lee today streamed toward home, tired possibly but lifted out of themselves by four days of a reunion such as would seem hardly possible in any other country in the world.

Many a veteran who passed over that road today and many who passed before turned with streaming eyes to catch the last glimpse of that long arm with wreath as he trudged the dusty road. It is the first landmark that stands high enough to be seen on the way to the battlefield and it is the last as the town swallows up the road.

Here's Your Old Friend

Sanfords Ginger

Ready at a moment's notice for everyday ills incidental to hot weather and change of food, water or climate.

A delicious combination of ginger, lemon and French brandy for the relief of colds, coughs, colic, indigestion, nervousness and headache. Look for the Old Trade Mark on the wrapper, lest you get a cheap, worthless or dangerous substitute. Forty years the standard of purity, favor and strength. Sold by all druggists and grocers.

FOREST FIRE ON CAPE

Fire Fighters Have No Holiday

SAGAMORE, July 5.—Two houses and two other buildings were destroyed and several damaged yesterday when a southwest wind carried forest fires that have been raging for three days through the east end of this town.

Heavy property loss was prevented only by the desperate efforts of the volunteer fire fighters who abandoned their plans to observe the Fourth of July.

When the southwest wind that had been blowing throughout the entire part of the day developed into a gale, the townsfolk of Sagamore, not ready to protect their homesteads from the flames, with two miles wide, that was sweeping towards them from the south. In the latter town, the forest fire had remained dormant since the turn of the wind which saved a number of dwellings yesterday.

But despite the large force that "backfired" and attempted sand scattering tactics, the flames claimed the dwellings of Eli Barville and Jas. Martin.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

ST. PATRICK'S STILL LEADS CLASS 3

B.P.O. Elks Head Class 2 and the Y.M.C.A. Occupies Top Ring in Class 1

The 4th week tabulation of the returns reveals what a stride we may expect in the second period of four weeks in the Great Library contest.

The Red Letter day proposition does not effect any change in the value of the redemption features such as theatre tickets, bread labels, etc., which remain the same at all times.

Now that Red Letter days are in motion great things are due to happen in the voting line. It goes without saying that every shrewd and wide awake voter will take advantage of the tremendous opportunity for voting every Red Letter day will offer. Keep in mind that Red Letter day is Wednesday of each week.

The Elks lead again today in class two with a greatly increased vote over that which they had last week.

The C. M. A. C. seem to be using two or three of the leaders as pacesetters, just keeping within striking distance. After all it's the position held after the final count which brings a library of good books to the one holding first place, and each of the leaders is apparently confident as to the outcome.

St. Peter's school made a big advance this week. Just another stride like the one today and they will certainly be in the going. A substantial vote came in from the Young Men's Christian association, the Eagles and Knights of Columbus.

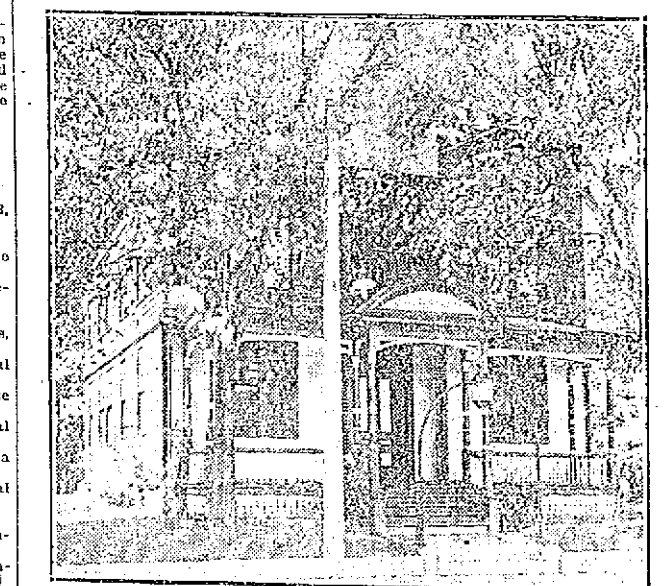

Every society should be favored with competent leadership, for it takes a ruling mind to pilot the force of any contestant to success. In fact success is a thing highly improbable without this leadership. No doubt these energetic spirits are found in the ranks of all the contesting elements and their leadership will evince itself in due time.

| Class One | Class Two | Class Three |
|------------------------------------|--|--|
| Y. M. C. A. 51,281 | B. P. O. Elks 114,414 | St. Patrick's School and Church 129,096 |
| Y. W. C. A. 46,529 | Knights of Columbus 85,291 | St. Peter's Church and School 101,557 |
| St. John's Hospital 38,259 | C. M. A. C. 75,757 | St. Michael's Church and School 55,765 |
| Lowell High School 25,420 | Glenmore Club 61,713 | Immaculate Conception Church 53,237 |
| Lowell General Hospital 20,761 | Ancient Order of Hibernians, Div. 1 41,205 | Sacred Heart Church 62,530 |
| Highland Grammar School 16,357 | Fraternity Order of Eagles 22,656 | St. Jean De Baptiste Church 21,301 |
| Lincoln School 15,755 | Y. M. C. I. 18,017 | St. Mary's Church 20,821 |
| Bartlett School 9,544 | Masonic Club 11,559 | St. Ann's Episcopal Church 10,219 |
| Lowell Corporation Hospital 18,415 | Masons' Union 5,740 | Notre Dame de Lourdes Church 8,216 |
| Vernum School 2,169 | Boys' Club 2,334 | 1st Universalist Church 6,743 |
| St. Peter's Orphan Asylum 2,031 | M. T. L. 1,052 | St. Paul's M. E. Church 5,103 |
| Green School 2,887 | I. O. O. F. 926 | C. Y. M. L. St. Patrick's Church 1,525 |
| Crack School 1,636 | Foresters of America 382 | St. John's Church 975 |
| Moody School 1,327 | Billerica Grange No. 228 209 | Mathew Temperance Institute 582 |
| Edson School 695 | | Holy Rosary Society, Sacred Heart Church 760 |
| Old Ladies' Home 406 | | St. Michael's Guild 684 |
| | | St. Anthony's Church 367 |

THE SOURCES THROUGH WHICH VOTES WILL BE OBTAINED

| THE GILBRIDE COMPANY | JOHN F. SAUNDERS' MARKET |
|--|---|
| Dept. Store | 169 Gorham St. |
| Merrimack and Palmer Streets | |
| MACARTNEY'S APPAREL STORE | FAMILY GROCERY CO. |
| Clothing and Furnishings | D. H. Sullivan, Prop. |
| 72 Merrimack Street | 401-403-405 Westford Street |
| HARRY HAYNES | SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS ABOUT |
| Jewelry | LAUREL |
| 60 Central Street | When you present the above for entry into the returns always have same in neat package. Write on outside of name of the contestant you are working for and the exact number of votes. Be sure that your count is absolutely accurate. Redeemed only at Gilbride Department Store, Macartney's Apparel Shop, and Gilbride Furniture Store. |
| OSULLIVAN BROS. CO. | JOHN H. JOHNSON |
| Shoes for All | 152 Federal Street, Boston |
| Opp. City Hall—Merrimack St. | Bands good for Five and Ten vote each. |
| A. E. O'BRIEN & CO. | |
| Furniture | |
| 15 Hurd Street | |
| ERVIN E. SMITH COMPANY | |
| Hardware | |
| 43-45-47-49 Market Street | |
| DICKHMAN & McQUADE | |
| Hatters and Furnishers | |
| Corner Central and Market Streets | |
| HARRY C. KITTREDGE | |
| Books and Stationery | |
| 15 Central Street | |
| THEATRE VOYONS | |
| Special Five Vote Coupon | |
| Central Street | |
| FLAT IRON CIGAR STORE | |
| W. H. L. HAYES COMPANY | |
| 70 Central Street and 71 Prescott Street | |
| LOUIS ALEXANDER | |
| Importer and Tailor | |
| 32 Central Street | |
| Up one flight, over Electric Light Co. | |
| HENNESSY'S POOL AND BILLIARD GARDENS | |
| 243 Central Street | |
| D. E. McQUADE | |
| Groceries | |
| 187 Central Street | |
| LOWELL WALL PAPER CO. | |
| George W. Chase, Prop. | |
| 37 Appleton Street | |
| DOURDES' BOSTON CONFECTIONERY STORE | |
| 218 Merrimack Street | |
| SULLIVAN'S SHOE STORE | |
| Dan Smith, Prop. | |
| 337 Bridge Street | |
| BAY STATE DYE HOUSE | |
| 54 Prescott Street | |
| FRANK J. CAMPBELL | |
| Tower's Corner Drug Store | |
| Central Street, Cor. Middlesex | |
| THOS. C. WALKER | |
| Druggist | |
| 505 Middlesex St. Above Depot | |
| BRUNELLE PHARMACY | |
| Druggist | |
| 33 East Merrimack St. | |
| JOHN H. O'NEIL | |
| Druggist | |
| Lawrence and Wamsit Sts. | |
| LOWELL PHARMACY | |
| Bouthier and Delisle, Proprietors | |
| 432 Merrimack Street | |
| JOHN T. SPARKS & CO. | |
| Druggist | |
| Cor. Lakeside and Allen Aves. | |
| RAY F. WEBSTER | |
| Druggist | |
| 415 Bridge Street | |
| JOHN ST. PUBLIC MARKET | |
| John P. Curley, Proprietor | |
| 30 John Street | |
| J. B. ARTHUR & CO. | |
| 401 Bridge Street | |

MATHEWS HELD OPEN HOUSE THE NIGHT BEFORE AT NORTH BILLERICA

There was no special observance of Independence Day in Billerica yesterday and with the exception of the blowing of horns or the occasional explosion of a fire cracker all was quiet during the day. The night before was observed by a bonfire and there was the usual ringing of bells in the early morning.

The "open house" held under the auspices of the "old timers" on Thursday night proved a very successful and enjoyable affair. Dancing was enjoyed from 8 o'clock until 5 Friday morning to music furnished by a hardy-gurdy and games were played on the spacious lawn in the vicinity of Mathew hall. During the evening ice and other delights were served and a fairly reported a very thriving business. This is the first "night before" observance of this kind held in the town for some time but it is believed that it will be repeated next year.

The North Billerica fire department responded to only one alarm yesterday and blaze which was a grass fire in the rear of the mills was soon extinguished with no damage resulting.

HELD FIRST ANNUAL OUTING

Members of Court St. Antoine, C. O. F. Entertained Friends

The first annual outing of Court St. Antoine, C. O. F., was held yesterday at Judge's farm, Draught, and was a success in every way. The program consisted of a baseball game in the morning between teams of Courts St. Antoine and St. Paul, dinner at noon and a long list of sports in the afternoon, and was carried out in a very satisfactory manner.

The affair was attended by about 250 people, including men and women, and all spent a most enjoyable day. The crowd gathered at the farm early in the forenoon and at 10 o'clock the baseball game was started. The teams were composed of the following: St. Antoine—J. N. Gregoire, P. Breton, L. Panquette, L. Landry, A. Deschênes, R. Grenier, A. Marchand, L. Marchant, P. Roy and E. Trudel; St. Paul—P. Charbonneau, J. Pénard, E. Dubois, Joseph Nagras, E. Arcand, O. Lalale, O. Cyr, A. Talbot and L. Laiselle. The score was 13 to 11 in favor of Court St. Paul, and each member of the team received a fine silk tie with the emblem of the Catholic Order of Foresters on a gold plate. The umpires were Frank Ricard and P. Morin, and their decisions were very satisfactory.

At the conclusion of the ball game the entire party of excursionists repaired to the pine grove, where a sumptuous dinner was served in the open air, tables having been placed under the pine trees. In the afternoon a varied list of sports was carried out and suitable prizes were awarded the winners.

The committee in charge of the event consisted as follows: A. Thibault, chairman; L. N. Milot, treasurer; A. N. Bouleau, secretary; Frank Ricard, L. N. Gregoire, Fred Giroux, J. Ferron, Eugene Trudel, O. Lalale, Joseph Parent, Alf. Gossel, Alphonse Desrosiers, J. H. Gregoire, Geo. Cayer, J. B. Julien, A. Lafontaine, A. Charrest, Jos. Nagras, Jos. Valler, P. Fortin and F. X. Rivet, ex-officio.

his morgue in Aiken street, where they were later viewed by the medical examiner.

On Thursday afternoon, a couple of hours after the drowning, the body of William Sicard, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Sicard of 7 Exeter street, was found in the Merrimack river at the mouth of Beaver brook.

the spot where the boy lost his life while bathing. David Lisette of Ennells street is the party who located the body while grappling the river. The body was removed to the home of the parents.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

OUR 7th GREAT PRE-INVENTORY

Wall Paper Specials

FOR Saturday and Monday

1000 Rolls Best 35c Washable Tile Papers, for bath rooms—roll 8c

1000 Rolls Best 50c Fadeless Papers, for parlors, dining rooms, dens, libraries and halls—roll 15c

The United Wall Paper Stores of America

LOWELL STORE IN NELSON'S DEPT. STORE

"Biggest Distributors of Wall Papers in New England."

ARMEN VOTE TO STRIKE

Agree to Hold Off Until Monday

BOSTON, July 5.—"We assure both a public and the chamber of commerce that no declaration of strike will be made until Monday," said the officers of the Boston Street Carriers' union in a signed statement last evening.

The figures of the strike vote taken at the three sessions of the big meeting of the union held Thursday and Friday yesterday morning show the 5276 voted to strike; 173 voted against a strike; and there were 459 blanks cast, making a total vote of 5458.

Not until 11 o'clock yesterday morning was the counting of the vote completed.

At the request of Attorney James A. Vahey, representing the union, the conference to have been held at 1 o'clock this morning at the chamber of commerce, between the special committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce and the Chamber of Commerce, was postponed until Monday morning.

The purpose of this conference is to try and bring the Elevated and the union together in some satisfactory form of arbitration and adjust the difficulty over the selection of a third arbitrator so that the question of wages and other matters in dispute may be settled without a strike being necessary.

SUFFRAGETTE MOBBED

Held Up King's Carriage at Bristol, Eng.

BRISTOL, England, July 5.—While the procession was on its way to the Agricultural show, at which the king was to officiate yesterday, a militant suffragette darted from the sidewalk and getting behind the mounted equestrian, reached the king's carriage and dropped a scroll of paper on his Majesty's knees.

The equestrian, wheeling around, drew his sword and struck the woman a light blow. The police then arrested her. The crowd made a rush for the suffragette, the women in the crowd shouting the greatest eagerness to mail her.

One of them struck her with an umbrella and another seized her by the hair. The police drove off with their prisoner in an automobile in order to escape the mob.

After a short detention at the police station the woman was released. She gave the name of Mary Richardson and her address as the headquarters of the Women's Social and Political Union.

Street Dust gets into the pores of the skin, causes irritation and inflammation. Hood's Lotion quickly relieves. Get it today. 50c.

Indigestion

Sour stomach, wind in the stomach, belching, acid eructations, heartburn and nausea, are quickly relieved by

Dys-pep-lets

Made only by C. I. HOOD CO. Combine the best digestives, carminatives and correctives. 10c, 50c, or $1. Take one Remember Dys-pep-lets Substitute the name

FOR YOUR SHOE REPAIRING

Go to the Goodyear Shoe Repairing Co., where you are sure to get the best work, best stock and lowest prices. Want 1000 pairs of shoes to repair at

SULLIVAN'S SHOE SHOP

337 BRIDGE STREET Dan Smith, Manager

SATISFIED CUSTOMERS

Are permanent customers and good advertisers. Reliable goods at lowest prices, and satisfaction guaranteed in our policy. Purchase your drug store needs at

F. J. Campbell's

Registered Pharmacist Two stores—Tanner's Corner Drug Store, and 535 Dutton, cor. Fletcher at

Dwyer & Co.

PAINTERS, DECORATORS AND PAPER HANGERS

Estimates on all kinds of jobs, large or small, at 170 Appleton street.

CHIN LEE & CO.

Chinese and American Restaurant

Dining rooms reserved for ladies for private parties. This restaurant is open from 11.30 a. m. to 1 a. m. including Sunday. 17 Merrimack st. near John st. Telephone 1322.

CARROLL BROS.

Plumbers, Steam Fitters and Sheet Metal Workers

36 Middle St. Telephone 1550

M. H. McDonough Sons

UNDERTAKERS and EMBALMERS

Prompt Service Day and Night.

108 Gorham St. Tel. 906-1

Soda crackers are more nutritive than any other flour food. Uneeda Biscuit are the perfect soda crackers.

Though the cost is but five cents, Uneeda Biscuit are too good, too nourishing, too crisp, to be bought merely as an economy.

Buy them because of their freshness—because of their crispness—because of their goodness—because of their nourishment.

Always 5 cents. Always fresh, crisp and clean.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

For the Week Ending July 5.

LOWELL

Flora I. Scribner et al. to Henry J. O'Dowd, land and buildings on Appleton street.

Henry J. O'Dowd to Grace E. Eldridge, land and buildings on Appleton street.

Henry C. Fuller to Sadie F. Goldman, land and buildings on Branch and Middlesex streets.

Mannuel P. Mello to Maria Souza, land and buildings on Emory street.

Albert P. Berkett et al. to Sykes Wood, et al., land on Kensington street.

Lurinda A. Russell by mortgage to Margaret P. Ho, land and buildings on Emory street.

Fisher H. Pearson et al. to George H. Taylor, land and buildings cor. Myrtle and Central streets.

Frederick Bailey to Thomas W. Johnson et al., land cor. East Merrimack and Daniels streets.

Anna Wells to Margaret Gillick, land cor. Parker avenue and Bachman street.

Charles T. Kilpatrick to Orl S. Young, land on Newbury street.

Anna Cleburn to Christina Hoy, land and buildings on South Whipple street.

Dennis F. Haley to James J. Haley, land on Blossom and Eaton streets.

James J. Haley to John Sullivan et al., land on Blossom and Eaton streets.

Nellie E. Collins et al. to Meldon S. Giles, land on Fairfax street.

George H. Taylor to Joseph L. Wilde, land and buildings on Warsaw street.

Lottimae Bell to Mary A. Plunkett, land and buildings on Andover and East Merrimack streets.

Patrick F. Mahoney et al. to Eliza L. Maynard, land and buildings on Lawson street.

Lowell Realty company by trs. to Ellen Colton, land and buildings cor. Nichols street and passageway.

MILLERICA

George H. Shields, Jr. to Adolph A. Brand, land at Nuttings Lake park.

Charles G. Johnson et al. to Frederick C. Littlefield, land at Pinehurst annex.

Albert Henderson to Newell Patterson, land and buildings cor. Montrose street and Pine street.

Alexander C. Walker to Newell Patterson, land and buildings on Montrose street.

Edgar P. Sellow to Coleman J. Manning, land on Hillside road.

Aaron Adelman to Esther W. Ricker, land on Adelma road.

Arthur Leman to by atty. to Daniel Derby, land on Casco street.

Frank W. Coughlin to Signe Phil, land on Montrose avenue.

Margaret Reidy et al., by omrs., to Frank J. Danahy, land.

Frank W. Coughlin to Charles P. Smith, land.

Frank W. Coughlin to Margaret Cisholm, land on Pines road.

DRAUGHT

Mary J. Wilson, est. by exor., to S. Blanche Cummings, land on Staden street.

George Downing et al. to Jan Kinpekka, land and buildings on Myrtle street.

Alexander C. Walker to Edgar Gregoire, land on Leon Hill road.

Georgiana Gagnon to Jesse M. Currier, land on Bridge street.

Edgar Gregoire to Francis I. Gendreau, land on Leon Hill road.

Henry T. Wheeler to Joseph Keller et al., land and buildings.

TEWKSBURY

Dana F. Chase to Alfred J. Lundgren, land on Vale street.

John A. Reidy et al. to Jennie Robinson, land on Elm street.

Frank W. Coughlin to Adam Murray Reddie, land corner Sachem street and Aberdeen avenue.

Alfred J. Lundgren to James P. Biggar, land.

Walter W. J. McLaren to Catherine A. Donovon, land on Forest street.

Emma Moller to George Moller, land on Myrtle street.

Emma Moller to Louis W. Moller, land on Myrtle street.

Emma Moller to Walter C. Tolstrup, land on Franklin street.

William H. Aditt to Annie Thomas, land at Oakland Park.

WESTFORD

Ethel H. Whittle to Walter H. Harris, land.

WILMINGTON

Suburban Land Co., Inc. Boston, to Charles J. Wharf, land at Pinegrove Park.

Mary E. Sinclair to Rupert L. Hildon, land on Fairmount avenue, Park square and Olive street.

Roxanna N. Blanchard et al. to Winthrop W. Coffin, land on Shawheen avenue.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Extends Call to Rev. Hermon S. Pinkham, Pastor of Immanuel Church, Washington, D. C.

The First Baptist church of this city has extended a unanimous call to Rev. Hermon S. Pinkham, at present pastor of the Immanuel Baptist church of Washington, D. C. Mr. Pinkham is a graduate of Harvard university and Newton Theological seminary, and has been a very successful pastor in South Paris, Me., Winter Hill, Somerville, and Washington.

He is at present taking a rest at Chittenden, Va. Until the church sets his formal answer to the call, it will not be known definitely whether he will accept or not.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

WILLIAMS' INDIAN PILE OINTMENT

Will cure Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles. Rubs on immediately, relieves at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief. For sale by all druggists, mail 50c and $1.00.

WILLIAMS' MED. CO., Props., Cleveland, Ohio

For sale by Falls & Burkinshaw.

TENEMENTS GUTTED

Wooden Buildings Destroyed by Fire

BOSTON, July 5.—Nine three-decker

tenements were completely gutted and a dozen others damaged by flame and water in a five-alarm fire, believed to have been started by children playing with fire crackers, on Josephine and Leroy streets, Dorchester, yesterday afternoon.

The damage is estimated at $35,000. Rows of wooden three-deckers, dry as tinder with the prolonged heat and drought, were in danger when the breeze which started suddenly at about 5.30 p. m. threatened to blow the flames up toward Geneva avenue.

To add to the danger, the engines which attended the fire found it almost impossible to get any pressure in their lines for nearly 15 minutes after they appeared on the scene. The first engine to arrive could get only a six-foot play during the first 15 minutes, according to bystanders. Pumps on both Josephine and Leroy streets experienced the same difficulty.

The fire started in the rear of No. 25 Leroy street, under the back porch. Children had been seen playing with fire crackers shortly before the flames broke out.

The flames quickly spread to the other blocks and after a most difficult fight lasting several hours, the firemen succeeded in extinguishing the fire.

TWO KILLED IN JOY RIDE

Auto Turns Turtle—Two Dying—Others Injured

BOSTON, July 5.—Two men are dead, two others dying, and a third pair are suffering from injuries as the result of the overturning of a "joy ride" automobile on Bussey street, East Dedham, early last evening.

The machine, owned by Alexander Doyle, a prominent Dedham sculptor, who is now abroad, was being driven back from Germantown by Mr. Doyle's chauffeur when a tire blew out and the car crashed into a pole and overturned.

All of the men in the party were well known residents of Dedham, and with the exception of one man, the dead and dying were all men with families.

George Daley of 12 Church street, Dedham, a professional singer, was instantly killed, and John A. Delaney of Highland street died before medical aid could be summoned.

Walter Green, Mr. Doyle's colored chauffeur, was taken to the Massachusetts General hospital, suffering from internal injuries and is not expected to live. Daniel Mahoney, a conductor in the New Haven, is dying. John O'Connell and Charles Parker sustained minor injuries.

WHEISKY WAS SPILLED

Man Gave Ludicrous Exhibition in Merrimack Street Loaded With Liquor

He had had a few rounds with John Barleycorn and came out second best. He found his way into Merrimack street about 1 o'clock this afternoon, loaded down with bottles and accompanied by a lad in short pants and tears.

John Barleycorn's victim tripped and lost his bottles. From an inside pocket there tumbled a pint of whiskey and, strange to relate, it didn't break. The man had now reached a point near Pollard's store and again he slipped. This time he lost everything but the bottle and one of the parcels proved to be a jug of whiskey. The jug smashed and he kicked the remnants into the street. Having disposed of the jug he proceeded to punish the boy. Women hurried to the scene and rescued the lad, just as he was struck in the face by a loaf of bread thrown by the man who was none other than his father.

The latter wept bitter tears over the loss of the jug of whiskey and a father's son, reached out to his boy and was shaking him with all his might when Harry Flaherty, license clerk, stepped up, grabbed his arms and told him what would happen if he insisted upon punishing the boy. "Wait till I get home and I will fix him," said the intoxicated one as he went his way staggering and swearing. Mr. Flaherty found out where he lived and the officer on the beat with a lantern eye on him to see whether he is running a speakeasy as well as indulging in excess.

MASS. PROHIBITIONISTS

Adopted Platform and Elected Officers

SOUTH FRAMINGHAM, July 5.—The prohibition party of Massachusetts adopted a platform of party principles and selected a ticket of candidates for the next state election at its annual convention, held at Montwaiter. The candidates who will carry the prohibition banner in the next campaign were chosen as follows:

Governor, Alfred H. Evans, Westhampton; lieutenant governor, Bert J. Cram, Sharon; secretary of state, Prof. John A. Nichols, Boston; treasurer and receiver-general, Thomas A. Frazee, Hinsdale; auditor, Herbert S. Brown, Greenfield; attorney general, Freedom T. Cramm, Chelsea. A letter from Charles Sumner Bird of Walpole was read declining the prohibition nomination for governor. The party platform included plans calling for a more equitable adjustment of the taxation system on the single tax, favored equal suffrage, several measures looking to a reduction in the high cost of living, favored a state accident and life insurance plan and the establishment of old age pensions and declared for government ownership of public utilities.

AVIATOR NEARLY KILLED

Machine Became Unmanageable and Fell

AURORA, Ill., July 5.—Aviator O. T. Davis narrowly escaped death yesterday when against his better judgment he weakened before the fears of a crowd and made a slight under unfavorable conditions. He was badly injured when his machine became unmanageable as he tried to make a landing and fell.

BOY SHOT BY CHUM

Says He Didn't Know Gun Was Loaded

BOSTON, July 5.—Frank W. Richardson, a lad of 12 years, after saying "Throw up your hands or I'll shoot you," stepped in front of Harry Blanch in East Boston yesterday, and pulled a .32-calibre revolver, which he did not know was loaded, at the other boy.

Blanch laughed, and then Richardson pulled the trigger. There was a blinding flash and Blanch fell to the sidewalk, shot through the breast. He will probably die.

Police Stopped Fight

HOUSTON, Texas, July 5.—Police stopped the riotous bout round bout between the exiled Conley of Kenosha, Wis., and Billy Doyle of New Orleans here last night, arresting the fighters and B. J. Parker, manager of the Houston athletic club, for alleged violation of the Texas anti-prize fight law.

The Summer's Vacation

Where Shall We Go?

For children and for all who need a splendid rest among ideal surroundings, Colorado, with its clear skies and health-giving, exhilarating air, with its glorious mountain scenery that lifts your soul clean out of the workaday rut, can hardly be equalled in the world as a place to build up health, and enjoy the keenest holiday pleasure from outdoor life.

Now it's my business to lend a friendly hand in planning trips to Colorado. I can relieve you of a lot of trouble. I can give you maps and pictures of Colorado and a hand book describing the comfortable hotels and boarding-houses and what they charge. I can tell you how best to go, and arrange for you all the details, and I would like to do it.

No charge. It is part of the Burlington Route (C. R. & Q. Ry.) service. Call at the office or write for a copy of the free illustrated hand book.

Alex. Stokes, New England Passenger Agent, C. R. & Q. R. R., 201 Washington St., Boston, Tel.

Doudro's Ice Cream Soda

and Confectionery Store

In the Old City Hall Building and Candyland, in the Bralley building, are the finest in this city and so are their goods. If you want the best ice cream or soda, give them a trial and you will be a steady customer. There is nothing better than the best, and that is the only kind that is served at each of their stores. They can please you at the Boston candy stores.

You Know It is Pure

The best Ice Cream is the kind you make yourself, if you make it in a

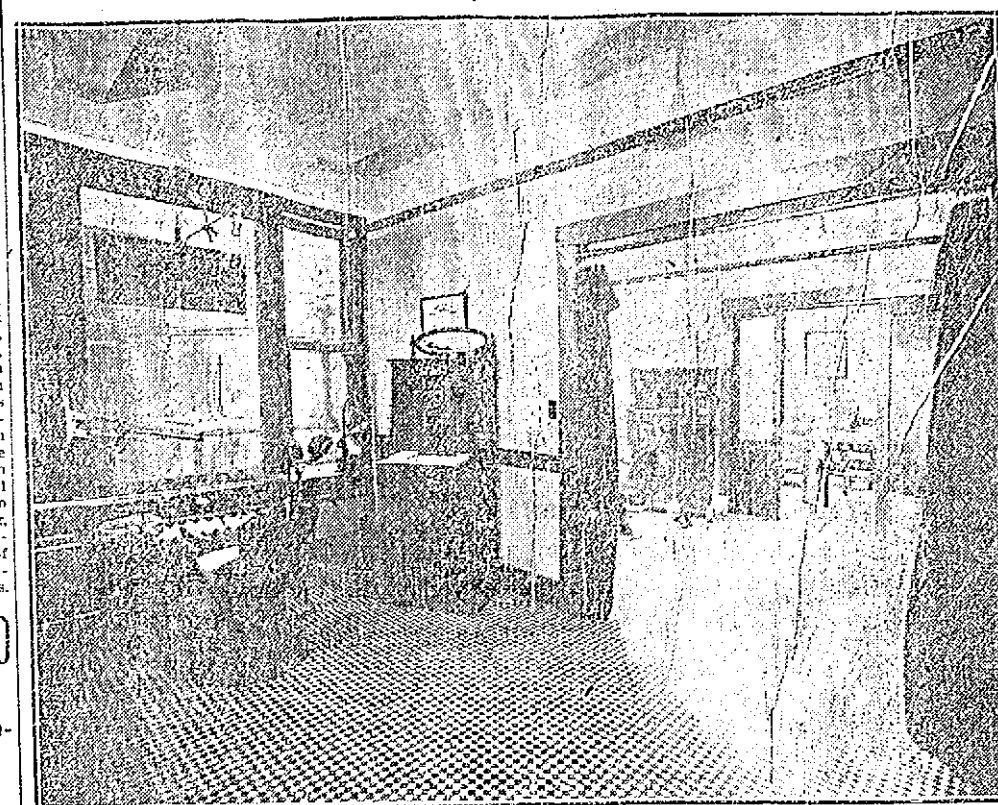

Triple Motion White Mountain Ice Cream Freezer

Built to last a lifetime. Quickest to freeze. Easiest to turn. We carry all sizes.

BARTLETT & DOW

216 Central Street.

Dr. Allen Proud of His Quarters in New Sun Building—Painless Dentistry a Specialty

VIEW OF DR. ALLEN'S DENTAL PARLORS.

Dr. Allen feels that he has a right to be proud of his new and luxuriously furnished dental offices in the Sun Building, as they are the largest, cleanest and best in New England.

Other dentists are crying "hard times," but not so with Dr. Allen. He formulated and uses exclusively, allows him to perform dental operations absolutely without pain; and who wants to be hurt? If you want to have a bad tooth or bad teeth extracted without the least pain, then "have Dr. Allen do it, he don't hurt."

Dr. Allen has in the past ten years made the bold statement that if he hurts a patient the least in the extracting of a tooth he will make no charge and he has yet to take care of the first case on this non-payment basis. Not only does Dr. Allen do painless work but he has within his dental establishment the most modern mechanical appliances for use in dental surgery and manufacture, which combined with his personal skill makes him regarded as the topnotcher of the dental profession in this city.

If there is anyone who does not know that Lowell has New England's most prominent dentist, let that person have Dr. Allen perform a dental operation and if he or she does not admit that Dr. Allen is efficient in all branches of dentistry they will be very unappreciative of the excellent work that he has done for them. While the character of the work is always the best, prices are always low. Remember all work performed in Dr. Allen's offices is without pain and each and every employee is always courteous. Could the most exacting ask for more?

33 Madison street was struck and knocked down by an automobile yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock while playing in the street at the corner of Central and Warren streets.

Young Carmody was on the street with a companion and on seeing the automobile coming endeavored to get out of the way, but was struck in the leg and knocked to the ground. The machine which was driven by Fred Erand, continued on its way for about 100 feet when it was brought to a stop after the boy had been picked up and rushed to Howard's drug store, where first aid was given him. The ambulance was sent for and the youngster was taken to St. John's hospital where it was found he had sustained a fractured leg, the injured part being just above the ankle.

The injured boy is a cousin of the Frawley boy who was struck and run over by an automobile about eight weeks ago within 20 feet of the same spot where the accident happened yesterday. Young Frawley was also taken to Howard's drug store.

The ambulance was called to 211 Lakeview avenue yesterday noon where a man named N. J. Merry was suffering from a scalp wound caused by a fall. He was taken to St. John's hospital where four stitches were required to dress the cut.

A man named William Robie was brought to St. John's hospital yesterday afternoon suffering from a cut on his forehead. It is understood that he fell while at Lakeview park.

John Cronin of 55 Tremont street, Boston, was found on the South common yesterday morning where he had sustained a fracture of the leg. He was taken in the ambulance to St. John's hospital.

Patrick Riley, who lives on Marion street was the only person reported as suffering from heat prostration during the hot hours yesterday. He was taken from the corner of Fletcher and Dutton streets and removed to the Lowell hospital.

Open a new account in The Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank. Deposits placed on interest Saturday, July 5th.

NO SERIOUS ACCIDENTS YESTERDAY

And But Few Fires and Practically No Damage—Great Results of Safe and Sane Observance

There were no serious fires over the Fourth and the combined loss was slight. The alarms started at midnight Thursday with a telephone alarm for a slight blaze on a roof in Ayer City. About 1 o'clock Friday morning box 131 sounded and the department found a small blaze in the rear of the house at 127 Fayette street.

To Have Perfect Skin Throughout the Summer

(From The Guide to Beauty.)

These days the face and neck need special care and attention. Flying dust and dirt, the heating sun, are severe on any skin. Their despoiling effects are best overcome by the application of pure mercurized wax, this keeps skin and pores in a cleanly condition, the complexion beautifully white and spotless. Tan, freckles, blotches and roughened cuticle are actually absorbed by it. One ounce of mercurized wax, obtainable at any drug store, is sufficient to completely renovate a soiled complexion. It is used like cold cream, allowed to remain on overnight, and washed off in the morning.

As the skin tends to expand in warm weather, causing wrinkles to form, a good astringent lotion should be used. Dissolve the ounce powdered salicylate in one-half pint witch hazel. Bathe the face in this during the heat of the day or before going out for theatre or social affairs. It is a remarkable skin tightener and wrinkle eraser.

TID ACCIDENTS

The Accidents Around the Fourth Were Not Numerous or Serious and Only a Few Due to Holiday Observance.

Thomas Carmody, aged 15 years, of

LOOK FOR HER

WATCH FOR HER

Who?

THE SWEETHEART GIRL WHO WILL CALL AT YOUR HOME AND HAND YOU A COUPON GOOD FOR A FULL SIZE CAKE OF.

SWEETHEART

TOILET SOAP

So that like millions of other women you can see and appreciate the indefinable sweetness and purity that lays hidden in its full, rich, creamy lather. That charm is concealed in the heart of Sweetheart Soap, by the use of only the purest of materials and fragrant perfumes.

WON'T YOU PLEASE TAKE THE COUPON TO YOUR DEALER AT ONCE AND HE WILL GIVE YOU A FULL SIZE CAKE OF SWEETHEART SOAP

ABSOLUTELY FREE

BARTLETT & DOW

216 Central Street.

CAR MEN WILL MEET STATE BOARD

Invitation Has Been Extended to Boston Elevated Officials by Arbitration Board

BOSTON, July 5.—An invitation to meet the state board of conciliation and arbitration on Tuesday to discuss the grievances of street car men who are on the verge of a strike was extended to the officials of the Boston Elevated Railway Co. today. A representative of the company said that probably the invitation of the board would be accepted. The union men already have announced that they would appear before the state arbitration of the strike will be taken before Monday, the union representative having agreed to postpone action until after a conference on that day with the chamber of commerce. The men already have voted to strike unless their demands for a wage increase are granted, leaving the date of going out to be set by the union officials.

A meeting of the central labor union has been called for tonight and although the street railroad situation is not intended in the call it is gener

FINISHING TOUCHES ON TARIFF BILL

The Senate Democrats Caucused
Again Today Preparatory to

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Senate Democrats caused again today to put the finishing touches on the tariff bill preparatory to its being formally reported to the senate next week.

Practically all the revisions of the house rates have been downward.

Chairman Simmons of the finance committee hopes to see the bill passed by the senate and signed by the president.

and relatively unimportant matters. He said that the bill as approved by the committee will pass the senate and with such slight amendments as may be made in conference between the two houses will be enacted into law.

"I am confident there will be no disturbance of legitimate business in this country as the result of the enactment of this new law. I am confident resident before September next. To-day he made this statement:

The caucus has sustained the committee in all of its actions on the tariff bill, except on one or two minor points that it will result in relieving the people of the United States of many burdens from which they suffer under the present tariff law. It will lay the foundation of a greater prosperity."

SALE BLOWERS GET $1000 IN WIFE

Thieves Break Safe in Restaurant

bery Discovered Today

BOSTON, July 5.—Some time between 11.45 Thursday night and 7 this morning thieves entered the restaurant capling with $1000 in cash. The robbery was discovered early this morning when Charles Schroth, the head bartender, went to the basement to hang up his coat and don a white apron.

The police, called to the scene at once, found the basement muzzed up. Chairs and tables were overturned. The safe was hung with the contents of other garments, used to deaden the sound of the explosion. Pieces of the ly into the basement. The police figure that the same blowers were more thoroughly acquainted with the surroundings for accomplishing their purpose they made use of a lot of plumbers' tools, which had been left in the basement over the holiday.

After blowing open the safe the thieves went upstairs to the safe and then down to the little of champagne and a bottle of mineral water.

from her were "Elsie" and "Dr. Rens" 159 E. 52d street. Inquiry was made at Dr. Rens' house, and Mrs. Rens said the girls do not

Com. Donnelly Will Give Hearings Monday

James E. Donnelly, commissioner of streets and highways, will give hear-

GUILD REACHES BOSTON

BOSTON, July 5.—Curtis Guild, who recently relinquished the post of American ambassador to the

G. Lyon, and others, that Smith street be watered from Shaw street to Powell street.

Near Pond in Central

NEW YORK, July 5.—A. BRADY and

MONTREAL, July 5.—The historic Roman Catholic church of St. Charles on Center street was burned to the ground today.

John Dougherty, of 786 Columbus avenue was on his way home shortly before 1 o'clock when he saw a white figure tottering near the edge of the

CAPE COD FOREST FIRE

BOSTON, July 5.—The Cape Co

With the aid of another man, who happened along, Dougherty carried the girl to Central Park West, and Policeman Barry of the West 106th street station called an ambulance from the

Dr. Bradbury was so sure the girl had been given poison of some kind, apparently "knockout drops," that he applied the stomach pump on the way to the hospital. The girl's condition did not improve, and at the hospital it was discovered that she had received a violent blow on the nose.

...and the victim's family.

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

NEW GETTYSBURG ADDRESS

The opportunity of speaking at the great peace reunion at Gettysburg yesterday gave President Wilson a chance of making himself famous, and he availed of it well. It would be unjust to the president at this time to compare his speech with the perfect address of Lincoln at the same spot, but it is no exaggeration to say that his brief address is an expression of the loftiest sentiment—beautiful in form, powerful in vigorous condensation, and noble in eloquent idealism. It is worthy of the place, the occasion and the man.

In opening, the president made it plain that his intention was not to review the history of the war, but rather to consider what the years of union have brought about. All people will understand the sentiments that prompted the following pregnant sentences:

"These gallant men in blue and gray sit all about us here. Many of them met here upon this ground in grim and deadly struggle. Upon their famous fields and bloodied their comrades died about them. In their presence it were an impertinence to discourse upon how the battle went, how it ended, what it signified, but 50 years have gone by since then, and I crave the privilege of speaking to you for a few minutes of what those 50 years have meant."

From the above introduction until the end of the address, the thoughts of the president flow with a great freedom as he is inspired with the purpose of the present and sees the "new freedom" of the future. Speaking of the years that have passed since the war he says:

"What have they meant? They have meant peace and union and vigor, and the maturity and might of a great nation. How wholesome and healing the peace has been. We have found one another again as brothers and comrades in arms, enemies no longer, generous friends rather, our battles long past, the quarrel forgotten—except that we shall not forget the splendid valor, the manly devotion of the men then arrayed against one another, now grasping hands and smiling into each other's eyes. We are donors to these fifty crowded years; they have made us heirs to a mighty heritage."

But here the president reminds his hearers and the world that the war did not end the struggle for right. The nation does not stand still. The great people united against foes from without and from within are still engaged in the warfare of peace—the warfare that strives to square the things of today with the olden ideals of right. How directly the president outlines the issue:

"We have harder things to do than were done in the heroic days of war, harder things to do than require more vision, more calm balance of judgment, a more candid searching of the very springs of right."

Let his words should be interpreted to mean a reflection on the struggle of other days he continues in the following noble passage—a passage that is worthy of a place in the great literature of the nations:

"Look around you upon the field of Gettysburg. Picture the array of fierce hosts and agonies of battle, columns hurled against columns, batteries following to battery. Valor? Yes! Greater no man shall see in war; and self-sacrifice, and loss to the uttermost; the high recklessness of exalted deeds which do not count the cost. We are made by these heroic things to know what it costs to make a nation—the blood and sacrifice of multitudes of unknown men lifted to a great stature in the view of all generations by knowing no limit to their nearly unselfish service. In armies thus marshalled from the ranks of free men you will see, as I see, a nation embattled, the leaders and the led, and may know, if you will, how little except in form its action differs in days of peace from its action in days of war."

Filled with the great vision of the past the president sees before him not the limited expanse of Gettysburg hills and valleys, but the whole of this vast country in which the hosts of the people look to him for guidance in the ceaseless battle of right against wrong. He draws a fine comparison between the battle of 1862 and the peaceful battle of the present. All the elements of real warfare are introduced, even to the recruits—"the little children crowding in." Thrilled by this great figurative army, he winds up in the following lofty and patriotic exhortation:

"How shall we hold such thoughts in our hearts and not be moved? I would not have you live even today wholly in the past, but would wish to stand with you in the light that streams upon us now out of that great day gone by. Here is the nation God has builded by our hands. What shall we do with it? Who stands ready to act again and always in the spirit of this day of reunion and hope and patriotic fervor? The day of our country's life has broadened into morning. Do not put uniforms by. Put the harness of the present on. Let your eyes be on the great tracks of life yet to be conquered in the interest of righteous peace, of that prosperity which lies in a people's hearts and outlasts all wars and errors of men. Come, let us be comrades and soldiers yet to serve our fellow men in quiet counsel, where the blast of trumpets is neither heard nor heeded and where the things are done which make blessed the nations of the world in peace and righteousness and love."

LIGHTS ON VEHICLES

Automobilists of this region have just cause to be indignant at the very great disregard of the law which is rigidly enforced would compel all vehicles to carry a light or lights at night on the boulevards and country roads particularly it is not unusual to meet several offending vehicles during an evening's spin, and it is only by the exercise of great caution on the part of those who comply with the law, that parties of motorists in this respect do not meet with serious accident more frequently. When the night is dark, it is very difficult to see vehicles which do not carry lights, and every sharp corner is fraught with danger to their drivers and to those who may collide with them. It is to the mutual advantage of all who use the roads and streets at night that the very positive law requiring vehicles to carry lights be observed, and it is to be hoped that they will see the matter in this light.

The difficulty in enforcing this law is that offenders are not reported to the proper authorities usually until serious damage is done to life and property; great risks are taken nightly through criminal negligence without entailing any punishment on those responsible. Automobilists should have no hesitation in reporting the violators of this most necessary law, if they are at all able to ascertain who the offenders are. The automobilist who does this does a service to all others who may follow, and he is helping along a movement which would eventually result in general good. Even the man who openly offends against the law would be benefited on being reported, because although exposure might cost him a little money, a continuation of his reprehensible carelessness might eventually cost him his life. If he wishes to endanger his own existence he will resent interference, but he should not be allowed to endanger the lives of others. This he does every time he drives a vehicle at night without the light prescribed by a much neglected law.

SEPTEMBER MORN

"September Morn"—a picture of an innocent young creature who in a moment of absent-mindedness waded into a lake without her bathing suit, and consequently finds the water rather chilly, is receiving a great deal of attention lately from the press and public and incidentally from some kind-hearted old ladies who would like to present the shockingly careless young maiden with a bath robe. As usual in this most moral country, the picture stores feel it only their plain duty to put the indiscreet female on exhibition in their store windows so that the public may form their own opinion; the papers follow suit by publishing her picture in the same pose; societies for the preservation of public morals pass judgment, and the postal authorities strive to guide our conscience by giving a verdict on its fitness to pass through the mails—the last court of appeal in moral questions in America. In the meantime the artist is getting some splendid advertising and the public buys on—innocent of the game being played. The author of the famous, or infamous—if it were not ridiculous—"Three Weeks" made a great hit with her publisher when she came here and had the book condemned by some New York purist societies. When we discover that the French painter of "September Morn" painted her sister last year in the same attitude, the reflection comes that he now knows America better and sells his picture by having it publicly condemned. We have not profited much from the declaration of Barnum that the American people enjoy being fooled.

DISCREDITED AT HOME

After returning to Germany with more money than honor, Dr. Friedmann has had to face open repudiation by the leading medical practitioners of his own country. A despatch from Berlin states that an offer of one of his associates was turned down by "an overwhelming majority" by members of the Berlin medical society. The significance of the action is shown by the nature of Dr. Friedmann's offer which was to subject his "cure" to any test which the society should think advisable. If the shrewd doctor has any sense of the dignity of his profession and any regard for the public opinion of the world, he is apt to live long enough to discover that money wrong from the hoping trust of suffering humanity may become as unwelcome as the wealth of Midas. There are few doctors worthy of the name either here or in Germany who envy him his position.

The King of All Laxatives

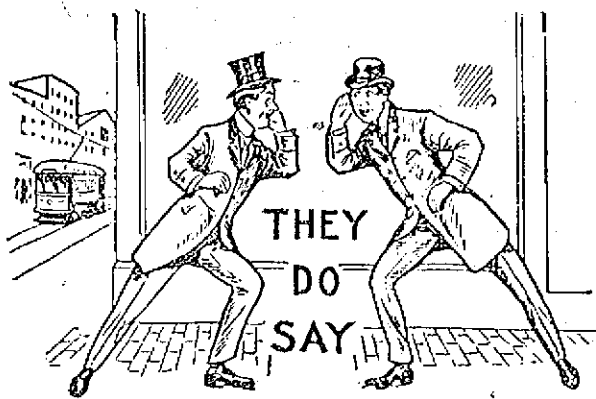

For constipation, headache, indigestion and dyspepsia, use Dr. King's Life Pills. Paul Mankin, of Buffalo, N. Y., says they are the "King of all laxatives." They are a blessing to my family and I always keep a box at home. Get a box and get well. Price 25c. Recommended by A. W. Brown & Co.

CUT PRICES ON Leather Goods DEVINE'S

121 MERRIMACK STREET

Repairing, Etc. Telephone 2160

BEST AND HEALTH TO MOTHER AND CHILD.
Mrs. WINDSOR'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for over SIXTY YEARS BY MILLIONS OF MOTHERS FOR THEIR CHILDREN WHILE THEY LIVE. It soothes the COLIC, SOOTHES THE CHILDS' STOMACH, CURES ALWAYS ALL PAINS, CURES WIND COLIC, and is the best remedy for DIARRHOEA. It is absolutely harmless. A box and get well. Price 25c. Recommended by A. W. Brown & Co.

That Walter and "Bud" are planning for their vacations.

That better men could not have been secured for directors of the French American orphanage, than Messrs. Joseph L. Martin and Ephraim Pelletier.

That Neal R. Mahoney will make a capable and efficient postmaster for North Billerica.

That Joe Leary will now be able to travel through the states and the Dominion.

That President William Pendergast of the local Typists is hustling for the New England convention of the organization.

That "Dick" Smith knows how to avoid automobiles and delivery wagons.

That there were more candidates for the postmaster than those mentioned in the papers.

That were the Mazzazzanos to remain in Lowell much longer business would be good with the tourists.

That Lowell friends of Frank X. Tyrrell would like to see the governor name him for the state finance commission.

That many a youngster from the "Flats" got up early this morning and hid himself to the South common to look for pennies.

That the 191 Ranch wild west show greatly interfered with business on the South common the night before.

That according to the old Farmer's Almanac the full-grown dog-days will not be here until the 25th.

That the position of postmaster is worth waiting for and fighting for.

That the trouble with the glorious Fourth as a holiday is that one is more tired the day after than the night before.

That it doesn't pay to be too independent even on Independence day.

That neglecting the teeth means more gold—but not in the pocket.

That the next bill to be held up by the committee on accounts will have to do with repairs to the purchasing agent's carriage.

That as sergeant Patrolman Petrie will fill the bill quite acceptably.

That Patrolman Jack Sullivan got quite a fall last Saturday night.

That "Tom" O'Donnell just missed the new sign by a hair.

That Lowell friends of Lott F. McNamara of Haverhill are gratified at his appointment as postmaster.

That with Michael F. Boyle as president, the Matthews will surely grow in numbers and in influence.

That quite a colony of cottages has sprung up at Silver Lake.

That the county board of the A. O. U. discussed many important matters at the meeting in Woburn recently.

That the residents of upper Chelmsford street raised that flag pole all right.

That if Supt. Farrington spent as much time around Merrimack square as at Lakeview, he might find greater opportunities to set things right.

That a car conductor who took on a blind man agreeing to let him off at Merrimack square, carried him a quarter of a mile past the square and then told him to walk back until he saw The Sun building.

That Mayor O'Donnell may soon have to deal with another police officer for making false arrests.

That a patriotic open air feature for children should be provided in every Fourth of July celebration.

That the mill hands now out on vacation will spend much of their time on Port Hill park.

That our city government should not await another epidemic to provide a hospital for contagious diseases.

That parents should keep their children away from the rivers and canals unless when accompanied by somebody to save them from being drowned.

That a few clerks from Lowell are having an ideal time motoring in Europe.

That the plan of making money by leasing a building and pushing up the rents does not always pay.

That the clerks at the Bon Marche appreciate the courtesy of the management for the holiday on the date of their annual picnic.

That the railway officials wonder why more Lowell people do not go out to Lakeview when their car service is here so that it is necessary to carry 110 passengers on one car of medium size.

That when it was announced who the new postmaster was at North Billerica the townspeople said, "I told you so."

That the speed-king of the Western Union enjoyed a half-holiday on Tuesday and his friends do not know where he went.

That the variations in the department stores will begin next week.

That the head of the American Woolen company engaged the $5000 suite on the "Imperator" sailing from New York. Perhaps you would like it but William Wood.

That the scenes painted on the interior of George Couper's new restaurant on Market street are not excelled by any this side of New York.

That Dr. Joseph Jantzen nearly got taken away on the "Arabie" on Tuesday last.

That P. R. C. sent some very personal messages to Queen Mary, not to mention the trinkets of which he was so particular.

That one gentleman in the Lowell crowd who was excited about to sail for Europe insisted on saying "Good bye" properly.

That Joe Molloy discovered a cubist picture.

That the young lady in Talbot Co's office in Middle street showed great originality when she made up that box.

That a young man who got a gift of gold cuff links for being best man was grieved next day to find that they sounded hollow.

That the police officer at Fort Hill park has a position of great delicacy—particularly on Wednesday evenings.

That a young man who wore a linen suit down street on Wednesday was the envy of all male beholders and the admired of the females.

That the proprietor of a Central street store is experimenting on his first moustache.

That the gentleman who won the white daniel trousers is going to wear them when the weather grows warmer.

That Miss Mary Guilfoyle's name was unintentionally omitted from the list of those who escorted the Lowell party to the "Arabie."

That the peculiar flavor of the pink lemonade was not because of the changes in the road on the common.

That "Wild Susie, the terror of the Rockies" was the nearest approach we have had yet to an English military matragette.

That Mary Kovensky rode on the "water wave," won a Teddy bear, took 1131 Salem St., Malden, Mass.—"When I was about fifteen years old my face broke out with pimples and blackheads. My face was a mass of pimples and kept me awake nights. For four years I suffered untold agonies, such itching and pains until I was going to give up hope of getting rid of my pimples. The pimples faded and came to a head and would scratch them and of course this made my face disfigured and so on. I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I was cured by three weeks' time." (Signed) E. N. Norris, May 10, 1913.

And Blackheads on Face, Kept Awake Nights, Itching and Pains. Disfigured. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured in Three Weeks.

1131 Salem St., Malden, Mass.—"When I was about fifteen years old my face broke out with pimples and blackheads. My face was a mass of pimples and kept me awake nights. For four years I suffered untold agonies, such itching and pains until I was going to give up hope of getting rid of my pimples. The pimples faded and came to a head and would scratch them and of course this made my face disfigured and so on. I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I was cured by three weeks' time." (Signed) E. N. Norris, May 10, 1913.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Severe dry, thin and falling hair, alloy itching and irritation, and promote the growth and beauty of the hair, frequent shampooing with Cuticura Soap, assisted by occasional dressings with Cuticura Ointment, afford a most effective and economical treatment. A single set is often sufficient. Cuticura Soap (25c) and Cuticura Ointment (50c) are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. Liberal samples of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard, "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

42 Men who have used Cuticura with Cuticura Soap will tell you for skin and scalp.

chances on a gold watch, and had a Frankfurt and a glass of Mosle.

That, judging from the whistled accompaniment, "In My Harem" was the most popular number of the evening concert on Fort Hill.

That George Allard was not quite sure whether he ought to go in or not.

That it was very difficult to convince one young man that the sharp-shooter was a real Indian.

That it was easy to conjure up a picture of the tower of Babel after a trip to the midway.

That "September Morn" was not photographed at Lake Massacpie.

That the smoke goes up the chimneys—or a few of them—just the same.

That a young man should not be "kissed" by his mistresses when it is his only claim to distinction.

Seen and Heard

The ship Hagen, which is the largest vessel in the world to be propelled by Diesel oil engines, recently made her trial trip in the lower New York bay. The vessel, which was built for the Standard Oil company, measures 400 feet over all and has a displacement of 3350 tons. She is equipped with two six-cylinder Diesel engines of two-cycle type, adapted to develop 2100 horse power at 110 revolutions a minute. At sea the steering engine is driven by compressed air. When nearing port, steam from a donkey boiler is used in the steering engine. The vessel is lighted by electricity and the living quarters are heated by a hot water system, the water being heated by the main exhaust of the engine. During the test the vessel ran at about eleven knots.

The following is taken from Farm and Fireside:
From weather bureau data covering a period of fourteen years it has been discovered that the average temperature of the United States is 52.9 degrees Fahrenheit, and the annual amount of rainfall is 1305 cubic miles.

The state of Arizona had the lowest amount of annual precipitation, 5.8 inches, of any state during the fourteen years which extended from 1891 to 1904, inclusive. Alabama had the greatest amount of rainfall, 75.6 inches.

The state having the lowest average temperature was North Dakota, 35.5 degrees. Florida had the biggest temperature, 71.8 degrees.

It was the great agnostic, Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, who first "discovered" Julia Marlowe, writes Wendell Phillips Dodge, in the Strand. Through his friend, Colonel McClure, of the Philadelphia Times, Colonel Ingersoll was induced to attend a performance by Julia Marlowe as Parthenia in "Ingomar." This was Julia Marlowe's first season as a classic actress, and so impressed was Colonel Ingersoll with her great capabilities that he at once became her staunch champion and on Jan. 22, 1888, wrote this letter to his friend, Murat Halstead, then the editor of the Commercial Gazette, of Cincinnati:

"In a few days Miss Marlowe, a young actress, will appear in your city. She has had but little experience—a month or two—and yet, in my opinion, she is one of the greatest artists on the American stage. I want you to see her. Judged by the ordinary standard, she has what the average critic calls faults. But even these faults are so gracefully committed that they seem at the worst to be weeds in blossom. She is the impersonation of unconscious grace—natural as heaven's light. I want you to see her. Take my word for it that you will not feel that an evening has been lost. (Signed) Yours always, R. G. Ingersoll."

Mr. Engelbach, an English author, in a new volume on humors of the law, relates the following queer bit of history, says Harper's Weekly.

"Some years ago a man used to walk about openly in Westminster hall with a piece of straw in his boot. By this sign attorneys knew that such persons were in want of employment as false witnesses, and would give any evidence required for money. For instance, if an advocate wanted an obliging witness he would go to one of these men and show him a fee, which if not sufficient, the witness would not take any notice of it. The fee, however, increased until its weight recalled the power of memory to a sufficient extent. By this they derived their name, 'Men of Straw.'"

EDITORIAL COMMENT

An Excellent Chance
Brookline Times: The house recess committee of the Massachusetts legislature is looking for a clerk who will serve without pay. There's an excellent chance for some ambitious politician who would get anything out of politics except the cash honorarium without danger, a happy prospect beyond the reach of most politicians.

Governor Sulzer
Newburyport Herald: The enemies of Governor Sulzer may launch one or many of these grandstand attacks on him. It is possible that he may have committed some indiscretions in his life. Most people have. But the cumulative attacks upon him begin to take on a very fishy look.

Lobbying
Salem News: A bill to regulate lobbying is to be presented to congress. Present charges at the capital, in the opinion of hosts of people, justify something being done in the way of reform.

American Manners
Lynn News: Most of us would like at once to deny the charge that we are ill-mannered. And yet we should have but a sorry time doing so. Any person who will take the trouble to observe the crowds of people on the cars, in stations and public halls, wherever the mob be found growing together, will come away with anything but a large idea of American courtesy. And the situation does not improve any. The young people of today are by no means better-mannered than their parents. Many think they are worse. It is a common sight to see young people who seem to feel thoroughly ashamed of themselves when they do a courteous act in a public place. They are over-conscious of what should be perfectly instinctive with them. We are far from being pessimistic, but it is hard to wax enthusiastic over American manners.

Gettysburg
Haverhill Gazette: But the great value of this meeting lies here: The men who looked into one another's eyes over the dead line of 50 years ago are clashing hands today. The spark of life, and it is well over. The ark of the covenant is restored: the flag of the Union waves on high. It was a political union, it is a reunited peace. North and South alike are rejoicing at this patriotic love feast and giving thanks to God, sure that the final verdict will not be a political or a sectional verdict. It will be religious.

PUTNAM & SON CO.

166 Central Street

Summer Soft Shirts for Golf, Tennis or Outing $1.00

Made from fine Soisette and mercerized fabrics, in solid white and ecru and light grounds with dainty pencil and hair line stripes—all coat style with turn back French cuffs—with collar attached or without collars—very exceptional value for..... $1.00

Ladies' Fine Panama Hats

A few genuine South American Panamas, large shapes—white bleach—came to us this week at a reduction. This small lot of $6.00 hats, today..... $4.00

Boys' $2.50 Scout Shoes

Today $1.55

300 Pairs of Boys' Scout Shoes bought to sell for half. Fine brown calfskin, with elk hide soles, the easiest and most durable shoe ever made for the boy. Just the thing for him to knock around in through the summer. Regularly $2.50. In a sale for $1.55

CALL FOR HARKIN'S

SOCIAL TEN

ALL DEALERS—10 CENTS

No wonder that every judge of a good cigar asks for a Harkin's Social Ten, as it leads all others. For sale by all dealers. Try one and you will smoke no other.

tered in heaven, where all is made right that so troubles us here.

The Lawrence Drawings
Nashua Telegraph: The deplorable drawing of the children at Lawrence from the breaking down of the wooden runway to the bathroom will emphasize the call for better precautions, not only in Lawrence, but throughout the country. No stretch of care can do away with the risks of recklessness in running loose, but there was evidently a lack of proper protection at Lawrence.

Barlington Free Press: It is wonderful how some of the great fortunes of the country shrink under the spender's eye. On the other hand it takes a truly great man to be led not into temptation by the lure of tax-dodging.

Apprenticeship
New Bedford Times: That apprenticeship is the main reliance of industrial training in Germany, and that it might be desirable to revive it in some form in this country, is the conclusion of Dr. Holmes Beckwith, who prepared for the United States bureau of education a study of German industrial education and its lessons for the United States.

Large Gathering at Centralville Social Club Thursday Evening—Contest Was Closed and Prizes Awarded
A very enjoyable smoke talk was held at the rooms of the Centralville Social Club Thursday evening, and despite the intense heat the event was very largely attended. The affair was given as the closing of the recently organized contest for the benefit of the proposed new club house, and was very successful.

Arsene Trudel presided over the festivities and a fine musical program was carried out. Refreshments and cigars were served and it was late when the guests departed. The various prizes in the contest were awarded and the committee in charge reported a very substantial sum which will go toward defraying the expenses of the new club house.

This week is "Quarter Week" at The Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank.

Bell and Wing

By FREDERICK FANNING AYER

Verses of sweep and scope.—The News, Pasadena, Cal.

A savage vitality.—Literary Guide, England.
Has an elegant atmosphere of its own.—The Oregonian, Portland, Ore.
Richness and depth of feeling.—Times Union, Albany, N. Y.
Remarkable gift of imagery.—Northern Whip, England.
Most versatile.—News, Denver, Col.
Extraordinarily vigorous.—San Francisco Argonaut.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS, Publishers, N. Y.

Price $2.50

FORCE YOUR CHICKENS

Make Your Pullets Early Layers by Feeding
THE PERFECT MEDIUM CHICK FEED
THE PERFECT GROWING FEED

COVER POULTRY SUPPLY STORE

150-154 MIDDLE STREET.

CAUTION! DAN-DE-LI-O Of Boyle Brothers

They are the only bottlers who sell the GENUINE. We want to warn the public against imitations who are selling Dan-De-Li-O for GENUINE DAN-DE-LI-O. GENUINE DAN-DE-LI-O is served in ice-cold mugs with a dash of "DAN-DE-LI-O" on the mugs. GENUINE DAN-DE-LI-O is put up by Boyle Bros. only, in hot-sterilized, refreshing, sparkling, and is the best temperance drink made.

BASEBALL AND FIELD SPORTS

THE SUN SPORTING PAGE

BOXING, GOLF
AND ATHLETICS

LOWELL AND WORCESTER SPLIT

Locals Dropped Morning Game at Home and Worcester Did Same on Their Grounds

Lowell and Worcester split even yesterday on their two games. Lowell losing the first game at Spaulding park and winning the second game at Worcester.

Finneran pitched the morning game and was touched up for a dozen hits although Lowell's two errors helped materially in the Worcester win. The score of the morning game was Worcester 5, Lowell 1, while the score of the afternoon contest was Lowell 5, Worcester 1.

Cawley played third base for Lowell and Deo was shifted back to short stop, his last year's position. Courtney, who has been playing the position for Lowell since Aubrey received his injury, has been recalled to Lawrence and Cawley sent on in his place.

Lowell played good ball up to the fifth inning of the morning game, the score being 2 to 1 in favor of the local team. In the fifth, however, Worcester batted out five runs and then added two more to their total in the seventh. Lowell got a brace of runs in the eighth but that was all that was forthcoming and Jesse Burkett's warriors left for their home city with another victory to their credit.

DeGroff's wonderful one-hand catch in deep right field was the fielding feature of the contest. DeGroff speared the ball while on the dead run and with his back partially turned toward the home plate. If the ball had ever passed him it would have been scored for an easy circuit of the bases.

The batting of Daly, DeGroff, Magee and Deo were also features of the game. The score:

| WORCESTER | | | | | | | | | | |
|---------------|----|---|----|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Walsh, cf | 5 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Shorten, rf | 4 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Ross, 2b | 4 | 1 | 2 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Hambacher, lf | 4 | 1 | 2 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Carroll, c | 4 | 2 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Conroy, ss | 5 | 1 | 2 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Nye, 2b | 4 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Stewart, lb | 4 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Hatter, p | 3 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Totals | 38 | 8 | 12 | 2 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |

CANOBIE
LAKE PARK

Sunday, July 6
4 TO 6 P. M.
BAND CONCERT

Haverhill Military Band
Herbert W. W. Downes, Director

Book your dates for outings and picnics. Private groves and athletic grounds free of charge.

Swimming, Pool Open Daily.
Continuous Change of Water.

Moving Pictures and Illustrated
Songs Afternoon and Evening.

KASINO

Open Every Night 7.45
Also Saturday Afternoon

The Cool MERRIMACK
THIS WEEK ONLY
DONALD MEEK
and Co. in "Who's Who."
Other Acts and Photo-plays.

FREE BATHING
AND SWIMMING LESSONS

Children under 14, during vacation, between 8 and 12 a. m. Tuesdays and Fridays, at Lakeview bath house.

TICKET SERVICE

AT

DUFFY'S
MARKET STREET

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
"Where It's Always Cool and Comfortable."
Last Appearance of DONALD MEEK at Tomorrow's Concerts
NEXT WEEK
LITTLE JIMMY VALENTINE The Distinguished Comedian
OLIE JOHNSON America's Premier Wire Walker
LILLIAN SHUNNY With New Songs
THE FREDDIE BROS. Instrumentalists
LATEST PHOTO-PLAYS
Changed Sun, Mon. and Thurs.

CHANGE OF SCENE SEEMS TO HAVE BENEFITED THREE FINGERED BROWNBROWN
PHOTO BY AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

Mordecai Brown, the lion hearted twister, who was turned loose by the Cubs last winter and immediately signed by the Reds, is now back in his old time form. When he was let out by the Chicago club many figured he was all in, but Joe Tinker believed there was many days of usefulness left in the veteran, and his opinion has been vindicated this season. Brown recently pitched against his former teammates, and by the liberal use of his hook curve, splendid control and keen mind he came out victorious by a count of 5 to 3. There was no fluke about Brown's victory either. With the kind of support Brown had in the old days in Chicago he would have shut out his opponents. Apparently he had as much "stout" on the ball as ever. But there were mistakes made behind Brown that furnished openings for runs. Altogether eight base hits were charged against him, but at least two of them were scratches. In six of the nine rounds Brown set the Chicagoans down with no trouble whatever. Brown says that the real trouble with him last year was not his salary, but a bad leg. He declared he was entirely recovered and will show those who said he was all in what's what.

BASEBALL RESULTS

New England League
Morning Games
At Worcester: Worcester 5, Lowell 1.
At Portland: Portland 4, Brockton 3.
At New Bedford: New Bedford 3, Fall River 3.
At Lawrence: Lawrence 10, Lynn 7.

Afternoon Games
At Worcester: Lowell 5, Worcester 1.
At Portland: Portland 12, Brockton 1.
At Fall River: Fall River 10, New Bedford 3.
At Lynn: Lawrence 11, Lynn 2.

American League
(Morning Games)
At Boston: Boston 13, Philadelphia 6.
At Cleveland: Cleveland 4, Detroit 2.
At New York: Washington 5, New York 6.
At St. Louis: St. Louis 6, Chicago 1.

(Afternoon Games)
At Boston: Philadelphia 5, Boston 3.
At Cleveland: Cleveland 4, Detroit 2.
At New York: New York 5, Washington 2.
At St. Louis: Chicago 2, St. Louis 1.

National League
(Morning Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Afternoon Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Morning Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Afternoon Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Morning Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Afternoon Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Morning Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Afternoon Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Morning Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Afternoon Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Morning Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Afternoon Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Morning Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Afternoon Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Morning Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Afternoon Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Morning Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Afternoon Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Morning Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Afternoon Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Morning Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Afternoon Games)
At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 2.
At Chicago: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 0.
At Brooklyn: New York 5, Brooklyn 2.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 3, Pittsburgh 3 (11 innings).

(Afternoon Games.)

At Philadelphia: Philadelphia 6, Boston 1.
At Chicago: Chicago 5, Cincinnati 3.
At Brooklyn: New York 7, Brooklyn 5.
At Pittsburgh: St. Louis 12, Pittsburgh 5.

GAMES TOMORROW

American League
Detroit at St. Louis.
Chicago at Cleveland.

National
St. Louis at Chicago.
Pittsburgh at Cincinnati.

GAMES MONDAY

New England
Lowell at Lawrence.
Brockton at Fall River.
New Bedford at Lynn.
Portland at Worcester.

American
Philadelphia at Boston.
Washington at New York.
Detroit at St. Louis.

National
Boston at Philadelphia.
New York at Brooklyn.
Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.

ABSOLUTELY TRUE

We are quoting special prices on several brands of high grade cigars simply because we purchased a large lot from a Boston manufacturing and jobbing house that is retiring from active business. They made a low price to us because of the quantity bought, and we in turn give our customers an equally good opportunity. La Matica (perfecto or panatella) at $2.50 for a box of 50, is a saving of 50c. Mincora at $1.75 per box is the price that was formerly asked for the same cigar at wholesale. Manila Lancers, 10 for 25c, $2.25 per 100, is so low a price for such a good smoke that we're afraid we didn't order enough. Manila cigars, mild and fragrant, in packages of 10, 25, in twentys, 50, three for 25c. Howard, the druggist, 109 Central St.

LEAGUE STANDING

| New England League | | | |
|--------------------|-----|------|-------|
| Team | Won | Lost | P. C. |
| Lawrence | 25 | 18 | 60.0 |
| Worcester | 31 | 22 | 58.5 |
| Lowell | 31 | 21 | 59.4 |
| Portland | 21 | 24 | 46.7 |
| Lynn | 25 | 29 | 46.3 |
| Brockton | 22 | 30 | 42.5 |
| Fall River | 20 | 33 | 37.7 |
| New Bedford | 19 | 31 | 38.1 |

| American League | | | |
|-----------------|-----|------|-------|
| Team | Won | Lost | P. C. |
| Philadelphia | 32 | 18 | 64.3 |
| Cleveland | 32 | 22 | 61.4 |
| Washington | 41 | 23 | 63.9 |
| Chicago | 42 | 24 | 63.5 |
| Boston | 35 | 34 | 50.7 |
| St. Louis | 36 | 49 | 35.9 |
| Detroit | 29 | 43 | 33.7 |
| New York | 29 | 50 | 36.2 |

| National League | | | |
|-----------------|-----|------|-------|
| Team | Won | Lost | P. C. |
| New York | 45 | 23 | 66.2 |
| Philadelphia | 40 | 25 | 61.6 |
| Chicago | 38 | 33 | 53.5 |
| Brooklyn | 35 | 31 | 52.9 |
| Pittsburgh | 31 | 35 | 47.0 |
| St. Louis | 30 | 40 | 42.9 |
| Boston | 28 | 40 | 41.2 |
| Cincinnati | 27 | 44 | 38.0 |

7 DEATHS FROM HEAT

In Chicago During Last 24 Hours

CHICAGO, July 5.—Early today seven deaths from the heat during the last 24 hours had been reported and no relief is in sight before tomorrow. The temperature on the Fourth reached a maximum of 94 and low hanging clouds made the atmosphere more stifling. Last night when the thermometer registered 91 degrees a stiff breeze descended from the north and the temperature fell 12 degrees in five minutes. The threatened storm blew over in a short time and the temperature rose again almost to 95.

JOE EGAN DEFEATED KENNEDY

Fast 12 Round Bout at Spaulding
Park Under Auspices of the Triangle A. A.

Joe Egan of Boston was awarded a well earned decision yesterday afternoon over Steve Kennedy of Lawrence at Spaulding park when the Triangle A. A. put on its initial entertainment for the benefit of its members. The bout was one of the best that has ever been staged in this city. Egan had the reach over his down river opponent and commenced to use it with the opening of festivities. The Boston boy kept stabbing Kennedy with his left hand, but could not produce anything which would keep him from coming in all the time. Some of the cleverest ring work ever seen in this city was performed by these boys as they hot-footed it around the ring for the 12 rounds. Both boxers are wonderful blockers and each can handle his feet in the ring as well as his hands. Although there was no disputing Referee Joe Thomas' decision, it can be said that Kennedy was suffering from a severe case of poisoning when he entered the ring. Kennedy also broke his right hand in the fourth round, but this fact did not slow him up in the slightest degree. It was a great contest between two very clever men. Egan being more on the boxer type while Kennedy was only too willing to exchange blows.

Egan had a clear shade in seven of the 12 rounds, with two rounds going to Kennedy and the remainder even. Kennedy's best fighting was done in the third round. In this round he looked as though the Boston boy was weary and Kennedy passed out everything that he carried in his war locker. In the next round, however, Egan showed that he was far from being all in and started right after Kennedy with left jabs and hooks that came in so fast that it was barely possible to follow them.

The 12th round was a real slugging contest with each man using both hands as fast as he could pump them to the other's exposed points of anatomy. The whirlwind finish of the fight brought the crowd to its feet repeatedly. Egan's advantage was too great, however, to admit of the gamey Kennedy's equalizing matters by his rugged fighting in this round. The fight was clean throughout.

Just before the main bout was put on, the club announcer, "Red" Simmons, introduced Jimmie Gardner to the members amidst tremendous applause. Jimmie announced his retirement from the ring and thanked the Lowell fans for their loyalty in the past.

The semi-final was also a sterling affair. Larry Burns of Lawrence and Tommy McFarland of Boston were the principals in this fray. McFarland is an awfully tough youngster, but could not stand up under the stiff punching which the Lawrence boy passed out to him and the sponge was thrown into the ring from McFarland's corner after the first few seconds had passed in the fourth round.

Tommy Williams of Lawrence gave Young Hamilton of Lowell a reverse facing during the first three rounds of their scheduled six-round go and the referee stopped the contest in the fourth round after Hamilton had been sent down hard for the count of nine. Williams displayed good hitting powers in this bout.

The Burkes batted out a victory over the Huntings in the last inning of the ball game which took place before the ring contests on account of the heat. The Burkes looked like a beaten avenger until the last inning when seven runs came across the plate. The final score was 5 to 4.

There was only a small attendance of the members at the entertainment yesterday, but the scheduled card was produced regardless of this fact. It was announced that another bill will be presented within the next few weeks the main affair of which will consist of a 12 round go between two prominent lightweight.

SPORT AT BUNTING CLUB

Big Crowd Attends Ball Game and Marathon

The United States Bunting club, that well known social and athletic organization whose beautiful grounds and club house are located in South Lowell, arranged some good sport for this afternoon and the events furnished real enjoyment for the large number of spectators who gathered at the athletic field. President McNulty of the club was in general charge of the arrangements and as usual the fact that he was at the head of the affair insured its success.

The Bunting club has made a name for itself in Lowell for clean sport and this afternoon was another point to their credit. The first event was a ball game between the Bunting nine, one of the fastest of the local aggregations, and the South Park outfit, another well known club. The contest started at about three o'clock and each side was cheered on by numerous enthusiastic followers.

The big feature which is scheduled to follow the baseball game is the ten mile marathon race. This, because of the extreme heat, will start late in the afternoon. There are 15 of the best runners of Lowell and Lawrence, including Eric Schoenberg, the Finn who has made quite a reputation by his several performances in this city. Tricent of Lawrence who recently won a five mile event at Spaulding park over some of the best boys in Lowell, George Goddard, another Lowell star who won the five mile at the Y. M. C. A. track meet at the South common on Memorial day, Joe Christo, James Carr, and several other good runners from this city will be in the line at the start. The race is a little longer than is ordinarily seen here, the usual distance being five miles. The prizes are costly and well worth

Well Satisfied
Many of the tenants of the new Sun building say they would sooner think of going out of business than return to their former locations.

Balloon Passed Over Galena, Ill.
GALENA, Ill., July 5.—The balloon Goddard, which left Kansas City yesterday in the Gordon Bennett elimination contest, passed over this city at five o'clock this morning, traveling slowly north at a low altitude.

WOMAN WANTED TO WASH AND IRON would like Monday or Tuesday, 159 Methuen st.

LAUNDRESS, CHAMBER GIRLS,
cooks and table girls at mountains and beach hotels. Table girls, house girls, cooks, and kitchen girls. In Lowell, Speeder tenders in Wilton, N. H. farm hands near Lowell, wanted. Call at once City Employment Office, 121 Central st., Tel. 231. Office hours from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

BELVIDERE PARK

Special inducements are now offered to anyone wishing to secure one or more of these beautiful HOUSE LOTS at the PARK. Over forty sold the past two weeks. Now don't wait but come today and see for yourself, the finest location in the city of Lowell. Agent on the property every Saturday and Sunday afternoon. Take Andover street car leaving the square seven and thirty-seven minutes past the hour direct to the property, only ten minutes' ride.

PARK LAND COMP'Y

Office 45 Merrimack St., Room 223, Lowell, Mass.

COAL

Best, Clean and Fresh Mined

Wm. E. Livingston Co.
Tel. 1550. 15 Thorndike St. Est. 1828

No. 29 THE LOWELL SUN July 5

LIBRARY CONTEST COUPON
GOOD FOR TWO VOTES

This coupon is good for two votes when properly filled out and deposited in any contest store ballot box.

NAME OF CONTESTANT

NAME OF VOTER

Six consecutive coupons will be exchanged for a certificate good for twenty-five extra votes at any contest store.
This coupon is void ten days after date.

TROLLEY and BOAT
EXCURSIONS

50c—Revere Beach—50c

65c—Bass Point, Nahant—65c

Through special trolley cars, beginning July 5, leave Merrimack square on Tuesday and Thursday at 8.15 a. m. Connections are made with boat at Revere beach for Bass Point, Nahant, and the above round trip rate includes admission to the picnic at that point. Apply at local office, Bay State Street Railway Co. for tickets and detailed information.

TROLLEY and BOAT
EXCURSION

90c—Nantasket Beach—90c

A delightful trolley trip to Boston and thence by boat to Nantasket beach, where the above round trip rate includes free admission to famous Nahant Park. Commencing July 5th, tickets are good on regular cars and boats on every Sunday, Wednesday and Saturday. Inquire at local office of the Bay State Street Railway Co. for tickets and detailed information.

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON

| Southern Div. | | Portland Div. | |
|---------------|------------|---------------|------------|
| To | From | To | From |
| Lowell | Boston | Lowell | Boston |
| 6:43 A.M. | 6:43 A.M. | 6:43 A.M. | 6:43 A.M. |
| 7:00 A.M. | 7:00 A.M. | 7:00 A.M. | 7:00 A.M. |
| 7:15 A.M. | 7:15 A.M. | 7:15 A.M. | 7:15 A.M. |
| 7:30 A.M. | 7:30 A.M. | 7:30 A.M. | 7:30 A.M. |
| 7:45 A.M. | 7:45 A.M. | 7:45 A.M. | 7:45 A.M. |
| 8:00 A.M. | 8:00 A.M. | 8:00 A.M. | 8:00 A.M. |
| 8:15 A.M. | 8:15 A.M. | 8:15 A.M. | 8:15 A.M. |
| 8:30 A.M. | 8:30 A.M. | 8:30 A.M. | 8:30 A.M. |
| 8:45 A.M. | 8:45 A.M. | 8:45 A.M. | 8:45 A.M. |
| 9:00 A.M. | 9:00 A.M. | 9:00 A.M. | 9:00 A.M. |
| 9:15 A.M. | 9:15 A.M. | 9:15 A.M. | 9:15 A.M. |
| 9:30 A.M. | 9:30 A.M. | 9:30 A.M. | 9:30 A.M. |
| 9:45 A.M. | 9:45 A.M. | 9:45 A.M. | 9:45 A.M. |
| 10:00 A.M. | 10:00 A.M. | 10:00 A.M. | 10:00 A.M. |
| 10:15 A.M. | 10:15 A.M. | 10:15 A.M. | 10:15 A.M. |
| 10:30 A.M. | 10:30 A.M. | 10:30 A.M. | 10:30 A.M. |
| 10:45 A.M. | 10:45 A.M. | 10:45 A.M. | 10:45 A.M. |
| 11:00 A.M. | 11:00 A.M. | 11:00 A.M. | 11:00 A.M. |
| 11:15 A.M. | 11:15 A.M. | 11:15 A.M. | 11:15 A.M. |
| 11:30 A.M. | 11:30 A.M. | 11:30 A.M. | 11:30 A.M. |
| 11:45 A.M. | 11:45 A.M. | 11:45 A.M. | 11:45 A.M. |
| 12:00 P.M. | 12:00 P.M. | 12:00 P.M. | 12:00 P.M. |
| 12:15 P.M. | 12:15 P.M. | 12:15 P.M. | 12:15 P.M. |
| 12:30 P.M. | 12:30 P.M. | 12:30 P.M. | 12:30 P.M. |
| 12:45 P.M. | 12:45 P.M. | 12:45 P.M. | 12:45 P.M. |
| 1:00 P.M. | 1:00 P.M. | 1:00 P.M. | 1:00 P.M. |
| 1:15 P.M. | 1:15 P.M. | 1:15 P.M. | 1:15 P.M. |
| 1:30 P.M. | 1:30 P.M. | 1:30 P.M. | 1:30 P.M. |
| 1:45 P.M. | 1:45 P.M. | 1:45 P.M. | 1:45 P.M. |
| 2:00 P.M. | 2:00 P.M. | 2:00 P.M. | 2:00 P.M. |
| 2:15 P.M. | 2:15 P.M. | 2:15 P.M. | 2:15 P.M. |
| 2:30 P.M. | 2:30 P.M. | 2:30 P.M. | 2:30 P.M. |
| 2:45 P.M. | 2:45 P.M. | 2:45 P.M. | 2:45 P.M. |
| 3:00 P.M. | 3:00 P.M. | 3:00 P.M. | 3:00 P.M. |
| 3:15 P.M. | 3:15 P.M. | 3:15 P.M. | 3:15 P.M. |
| 3:30 P.M. | 3:30 P.M. | 3:30 P.M. | 3:30 P.M. |
| 3:45 P.M. | 3:45 P.M. | 3:45 P.M. | 3:45 P.M. |
| 4:00 P.M. | 4:00 P.M. | 4:00 P.M. | 4:00 P.M. |
| 4:15 P.M. | 4:15 P.M. | 4:15 P.M. | 4:15 P.M. |
| 4:30 P.M. | 4:30 P.M. | 4:30 P.M. | 4:30 P.M. |
| 4:45 P.M. | 4:45 P.M. | 4:45 P.M. | 4:45 P.M. |
| 5:00 P.M. | 5:00 P.M. | 5:00 P.M. | 5:00 P.M. |
| 5:15 P.M. | 5:15 P.M. | 5:15 P.M. | 5:15 P.M. |
| 5:30 P.M. | 5:30 P.M. | 5:30 P.M. | 5:30 P.M. |
| 5:45 P.M. | 5:45 P.M. | 5:45 P.M. | 5:45 P.M. |
| 6:00 P.M. | 6:00 P.M. | 6:00 P.M. | 6:00 P.M. |
| 6:15 P.M. | 6:15 P.M. | 6:15 P.M. | 6:15 P.M. |
| 6:30 P.M. | 6:30 P.M. | 6:30 P.M. | 6:30 P.M. |
| 6:45 P.M. | 6:45 P.M. | 6:45 P.M. | 6:45 P.M. |
| 7:00 P.M. | 7:00 P.M. | 7:00 P.M. | 7:00 P.M. |
| 7:15 P.M. | 7:15 P.M. | 7:15 P.M. | 7:15 P.M. |
| 7:30 P.M. | 7:30 P.M. | 7:30 P.M. | 7:30 P.M. |
| 7:45 P.M. | 7:45 P.M. | 7:45 P.M. | 7:45 P.M. |
| 8:00 P.M. | 8:00 P.M. | 8:00 P.M. | 8:00 P.M. |
| 8:15 P.M. | 8:15 P.M. | 8:15 P.M. | 8:15 P.M. |
| 8:30 P.M. | 8:30 P.M. | 8:30 P.M. | 8:30 P.M. |
| 8:45 P.M. | 8:45 P.M. | 8:45 P.M. | 8:45 P.M. |
| 9:00 P.M. | 9:00 P.M. | 9:00 P.M. | 9:00 P.M. |
| 9:15 P.M. | 9:15 P.M. | 9:15 P.M. | 9:15 P.M. |
| 9:30 P.M. | 9:30 P.M. | 9:30 P.M. | 9:30 P.M. |
| 9:45 P.M. | 9:45 P.M. | 9:45 P.M. | 9:45 P.M. |
| 10:00 P.M. | 10:00 P.M. | 10:00 P.M. | 10:00 P.M. |
| 10:15 P.M. | 10:15 P.M. | 10:15 P.M. | 10:15 P.M. |
| 10:30 P.M. | 10:30 P.M. | 10:30 P.M. | 10:30 P.M. |
| 10:45 P.M. | 10:45 P.M. | 10:45 P.M. | 10:45 P.M. |
| 11:00 P.M. | 11:00 P.M. | 11:00 P.M. | 11:00 P.M. |
| 11:15 P.M. | 11:15 P.M. | 11:15 P.M. | 11:15 P.M. |
| 11:30 P.M. | 11:30 P.M. | 11:30 P.M. | 11:30 P.M. |
| 11:45 P.M. | 11:45 P.M. | 11:45 P.M. | 11:45 P.M. |
| 12:00 A.M. | 12:00 A.M. | 12:00 A.M. | 12:00 A.M. |

| Sunday Trains | |
|---------------|------------|
| To | From |
| Lowell | Boston |
| 6:43 A.M. | 6:43 A.M. |
| 7:00 A.M. | 7:00 A.M. |
| 7:15 A.M. | 7:15 A.M. |
| 7:30 A.M. | 7:30 A.M. |
| 7:45 A.M. | 7:45 A.M. |
| 8:00 A.M. | 8:00 A.M. |
| 8:15 A.M. | 8:15 A.M. |
| 8:30 A.M. | 8:30 A.M. |
| 8:45 A.M. | 8:45 A.M. |
| 9:00 A.M. | 9:00 A.M. |
| 9:15 A.M. | 9:15 A.M. |
| 9:30 A.M. | 9:30 A.M. |
| 9:45 A.M. | 9:45 A.M. |
| 10:00 A.M. | 10:00 A.M. |
| 10:15 A.M. | 10:15 A.M. |
| 10:30 A.M. | 10:30 A.M. |
| 10:45 A.M. | 10:45 A.M. |
| 11:00 A.M. | 11:00 A.M. |
| 11:15 A.M. | 11:15 A.M. |
| 11:30 A.M. | 11:30 A.M. |
| 11:45 A.M. | 11:45 A.M. |
| 12:00 P.M. | 12:00 P.M. |
| 12:15 P.M. | 12:15 P.M. |
| 12:30 P.M. | 12:30 P.M. |
| 12:45 P.M. | 12:45 P.M. |
| 1:00 P.M. | 1:00 P.M. |
| 1:15 P.M. | 1:15 P.M. |
| 1:30 P.M. | 1:30 P.M. |
| 1:45 P.M. | 1:45 P.M. |
| 2:00 P.M. | 2:00 P.M. |
| 2:15 P.M. | 2:15 P.M. |
| 2:30 P.M. | 2:30 P.M. |
| 2:45 P.M. | 2:45 P.M. |
| 3:00 P.M. | 3:00 P.M. |
| 3:15 P.M. | 3:15 P.M. |
| 3:30 P.M. | 3:30 P.M. |
| 3:45 P.M. | 3:45 P.M. |
| 4:00 P.M. | 4:00 P.M. |
| 4:15 P.M. | 4:15 P.M. |
| 4:30 P.M. | 4:30 P.M. |
| 4:45 P.M. | 4:45 P.M. |
| 5:00 P.M. | 5:00 P.M. |
| 5:15 P.M. | 5:15 P.M. |
| 5:30 P.M. | 5:30 P.M. |
| 5:45 P.M. | 5:45 P.M. |
| 6:00 P.M. | 6:00 P.M. |
| 6:15 P.M. | 6:15 P.M. |
| 6:30 P.M. | 6:30 P.M. |
| 6:45 P.M. | 6:45 P.M. |
| 7:00 P.M. | 7:00 P.M. |
| 7:15 P.M. | 7:15 P.M. |
| 7:30 P.M. | 7:30 P.M. |
| 7:45 P.M. | 7:45 P.M. |
| 8:00 P.M. | 8:00 P.M. |
| 8:15 P.M. | 8:15 P.M. |
| 8:30 P.M. | 8:30 P.M. |
| 8:45 P.M. | 8:45 P.M. |
| 9:00 P.M. | 9:00 P.M. |
| 9:15 P.M. | 9:15 P.M. |
| 9:30 P.M. | 9:30 P.M. |
| 9:45 P.M. | 9:45 P.M. |
| 10:00 P.M. | 10:00 P.M. |
| 10:15 P.M. | 10:15 P.M. |
| 10:30 P.M. | 10:30 P.M. |
| 10:45 P.M. | 10:45 P.M. |
| 11:00 P.M. | 11:00 P.M. |
| 11:15 P.M. | 11:15 P.M. |
| 11:30 P.M. | 11:30 P.M. |
| 11:45 P.M. | 11:45 P.M. |
| 12:00 A.M. | 12:00 A.M. |

LOCAL NEWS

First class work. Tobie's Printery. If your teeth trouble you, see Dr. Gagnon, 465 Merrimack street.

When you have any real estate to sell, consult J. F. Donohoe, Donohoe & Co. Telephone.

Mr. Leo Dupont of Wakefield is the guest of his father, Mr. Frederick Dupont of Christian Hill.

Louis Brault, formerly of this city, and now of Dover, N. H., is renewing acquaintances in Lowell.

Miss Dora Collette of 88 Ford street will leave tomorrow evening on a month's vacation in Canada.

Master Thomas Henry Randall of 2 Stanley avenue will spend the rest of the summer with his aunt, Mrs. Henry.

Miss Viola Lang, Mr. Fred Lang of Fletcher street and Miss Jennie Welsh of 2 Stanley avenue, are on a brief trip to the White Mountains.

The members of the Jolly club will hold their annual meeting tomorrow afternoon at their camp at Grogg's corner, and the board of officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

Miss Helen Neator of St. Patrick's home and place, May Brown of Varnum avenue, and Miss Kenney of Westford street, are spending a two weeks' vacation at Kent beach.

Gen. H. Wood recently purchased a new county model Rambler from the agent, Joseph Martin of the Moody Bridge Motor Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Lepine, formerly of this city and now of Worcester, as well as the latter's sister, Miss Bella A. Cole, also of Worcester, are the guests of Mr. Lepine's father, Mr. Maxime Lepine of Fox street.

Dr. Hector Delagun, formerly of this city and now of Southbury, Conn., Arthur W. Charron, Mrs. J. B. Charron and daughters, Alma and Aurea, all of Worcester, visited Lowell friends yesterday, the party having made the trip in an automobile.

The members of the permanent committee on naturalization will hold a meeting at the Centralville Social club tomorrow forenoon at 11 o'clock. The members of the executive committee who received their credentials this week are also requested to be present.

F. B. Leeds, who conducted a parlor party to this city and morning announced the safe arrival of the members in Bethlehem, N. H. The trip was a delightful one. The party is at present stopping at the Sinclair, in Bethlehem.

Overalls Officer of the Albert E. O'Neil Furniture Co. in Hull street, has received his new model Ford. This car with six others constitutes the deliveries for the past week through the local agent, Stephen L. Rochette of the Lowell Motor Mart.

Yesterday a quiet Fourth was spent at the Vesper Country club, the principal amusement being golf. A flag contest was started and is being concluded this afternoon on the links. Today the finals in the monthly club cup tournament will be played off and the competition between the many entries promises to be close.

The members of the Citizens-American club kept open house Thursday evening and yesterday, and the place was visited by many friends of this popular organization. In the evening a special musical program was carried out, and refreshments were served, while all day yesterday the guests were entertained at pool and other games and a lovely day was spent.

The second annual excursion to River beach conducted by Miss Hedwidge Laroche of Wray street, was held today and was largely attended. Special cars left Merrimack square at 8 o'clock this morning and the trip to the famous summer resort was most pleasant one. The party took in all the sights and enjoyed a good dip and will return to Lowell late this evening.

At the annual convention of the American Institution of Instruction which is being held at present at Bethlehem, N. H., Albert Edmund Brown of the Lowell Normal school read a long, eloquent, and scholarly paper on "Music in elementary and secondary schools." He contended that no study of the public schools develops the power of concentration, memory, accuracy and alertness in general, than does music, and, therefore, it is deserving of very special attention in connection with all other school studies.

He stated that the present system of teaching music in the schools is unsatisfactory, and he advocated the introduction of a more active and interesting course in the high schools. In advancing arguments to support his views, he went into the subject of the history of music, and demonstrated that his knowledge of it is wide and thorough.

This new pastor of the Elliot Congregational church, Rev. Herbert A. Barker, is now living here, having taken up his residence at 23 South Walker street. Although a newly arrived young man, he has had a wide church experience, and has been identified at various times with some of the most important work of his denomination.

He was born at Three Rivers, Mass., in 1872, and passed his early life on a farm there, attending the local schools. He then attended Amherst college, graduating from there in 1897. He afterwards studied at Hartford Theological seminary, from which he graduated in 1901. His first active church work was as assistant pastor in the Fourth Congregational church at Hartford, Conn. In 1903 he became pastor of the Baptist Congregational church, and has served there in that capacity until he received a call from the Lowell church.

In accordance with the announcement of Charles L. Knapp and Charles J. Wier as trustees of the John E. Howe estate, the realty property numbered 121-173 Fletcher street and the realty property numbered 121-139 Fletcher street were sold at auction Wednesday afternoon by J. B. Conant & Co., the first to Mrs. Bridget Crane for $2450, and the second to Thomas H. Kelly for $1525; each was sold subject to the taxes for the current year, and each below its assessed valuation. The attendance, however, could not be criticized, neither could the character of the bidding.

The consensus of opinion openly expressed following the conclusion of the second sale was that the sales should prove eminently satisfactory to the trustees.

Man Accused of Diamond Theft Arrested

BOSTON, July 5.—Search throughout New England and the Middle States extending over practically a year, for Albert A. Benjamin, 39, who is charged with the larceny of diamonds, watched at the Lowell police station, ended yesterday in this city when Benjamin, who had come to Boston to spend the Fourth with some friends, was placed under arrest by inspectors from police headquarters.

Since last August, when an indictment warrant was issued against him, Benjamin has been in the Boston police chase. The only traces they obtained of him were when pieces of property alleged to have been stolen by Benjamin were located in various pawnshops.

Benjamin obtained employment with Davis Bros. of 553 Washington street early in May, 1912, as a traveling salesman. Three weeks later he disappeared, taking with him his sample cases. Immediately after the grand jury returned an indictment for larceny against him the Boston police began their hunt for the man, which ended yesterday with his arrest by inspectors Hart, Conway and Shields at 1438 Dorchester avenue.

DEATHS.

DALY.—Timothy Daly, aged 82 years, died Thursday at the Chelmsford street hospital. The body was later removed to the funeral home of Undertaker John J. O'Connell, 553 Gresham street.

BATISTA.—Gabriel Batista, aged 5 months, died this morning at the home of his parents, John and Antonia Batista, 25 Union street.

PHALON.—Ruth Evelyn Phalon, aged 15 months and 12 days, child of John and Elizabeth Phalon, died this morning at the Lowell General hospital. The remains were removed to the home of her parents, 59 Burton street.

HYNES.—Patrick Hynes, beloved son of Patrick and Margaret (O'Neil) Hynes died this morning at the home of his parents, 74 Tyler street, at the age of 3 years and 1 month.

ZOGARSKI.—Stanislaw, aged five years and two months, died today at the home of his parents, Stanislaw and Mary Zogarski, 12 Howard street.

PALMER.—Mr. Samuel B. Palmer died this morning at the Lowell General hospital, aged 63 years. He is survived by his daughter, Miss Carrie B. Palmer. The remains were removed to his home, 34 Harvard street.

FUNERALS.

SCALES.—The funeral of Albert J. Scales, infant son of Albert F. and Annie Scales, was held Thursday from the rooms of George M. Eastman. The burial was in the Edison cemetery.

TODD.—The funeral of Mr. Francis R. Todd was held Thursday afternoon and was well attended by relatives and friends. The Rev. Mr. Jones was the officiating clergyman. The bearers were William Rolfe, William Miller, Percy Butterfield and George Field. The burial was in the Edison cemetery in charge of George M. Eastman.

BURTON.—The funeral of Thomas Burton took place Thursday afternoon from the rooms of Undertaker Geo. M. Eastman. The Rev. Mr. Allen, pastor of the Pelham Congregational church, officiated. The bearers were relatives of the deceased. The burial was in the cemetery at Pelham, N. H.

GOMES.—The funeral of Manuel Gomes took place Thursday afternoon

AMERICAN FLAG TRAMPLED ON

Riot at Winnipeg, Man., When an American Waved Stars and Stripes During Parade

WINNIPEG, Man., July 5.—The flying of the flag of the United States here yesterday while thousands of provincial soldiers were parading the street precipitated a riot during which the flag was trampled and torn and a number received minor injuries. The incident occurred when thousands of soldiers from Winnipeg and Manitoba were marching through the city on their return from an annual camp at Sewell, near Brandon, where there had been maneuvers under Sir Ian Hamilton, the famous British South African war general. When the 10th regiment was passing a local bank, an American flag was placed on the curb waving an American flag and shouting "Hurrah for the American flag." J. B. Mitchell, colonel in command of the regiment ordered one of his men to request the American to put away the flag, but before the soldier could reach the American, a number of angry civilians nounced upon him, tore the flag from his grasp and hurled it into the street. Before it could be reached the flag was torn and trampled. In the free for all fight which followed, a number of civilians were injured but none seriously. The American, whose name could not be ascertained, escaped without serious harm, and with the aid of the police eluded the crowd.

Riot at Winnipeg, Man., July 5.—The national ensign of Paraguay was cut yesterday from its staff on the roof of the residence of Estorilo Calderon, consul general for Paraguay in this city during his absence.

Council Calderon had been surprised earlier in the day by a visit from two men who demanded that the flag be lowered.

"Foreign flags don't go on the Fourth of July," they said.

Later a household heard a noise on the roof and saw a man hurrying away with the flag.

CHIEF ENGINEER EUGENE DEMERS

On 30-Days' Furlough—Will be Pensioned in Six Years

Eugene Demers, chief engineer aboard the U. S. S. Virginia, is enjoying a month's furlough in this city, at his home, 28 White street. Mr. Demers, although still a young man has had 14 years' experience in the United States navy, and if he lives seven more years, he will be pensioned off on half pay.

Chief Engineer Demers is a Lowell boy. He joined the navy at the age of sixteen and worked his way from common seaman to chief engineer. His last enlistment expired a year ago last May and then he re-enlisted for three more years. Shortly before re-enlisting, he was married to a Lowell girl and a short time later the couple purchased a fine home at 28 White street.

Mr. Demers is just returning from a long trip to Mexico and the southern islands. His ship is now stationed at Boston and will remain there for thirty days. Today Mr. Demers and his wife are visiting relatives in Manchester, N. H.

When seen by the writer Mr. Demers said as soon as his present enlistment expires, which will be next year, he will enlist again for four years, and thus complete his 20 years' service from the home of his parents, Manuel and Maria Gomes, 55 Elm street. Funeral services were held at St. Anthony's church, Rev. Manuel R. Rodriguez officiating. Among the floral tributes was a large pillow inscribed "Manuel" from the family. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery. Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons were in charge.

PORTER.—The funeral services of Calvin E. Porter were held Thursday afternoon from his home, 85 Whitney avenue, and were largely attended. Rev. Calah E. Fisher, D. D., pastor of the First Universalist church, officiated. There were many beautiful floral offerings. Burial took place in the family lot in the Edison cemetery where the committal service was read by Rev. Dr. Fisher. The funeral arrangements which will make him eligible for a life pension with half wages. He will then retire and make his home in this city.

MULLIGAN.—The funeral of Miss Mary Mulligan, an esteemed resident of this city, took place yesterday morning at 8 o'clock from the home of her brother, Peter Mulligan, 18 Burns street, and was largely attended. At St. Peter's church at 1 o'clock a solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. W. George Mullin, assisted by Rev. Daniel J. Heffernan, as deacon, and Rev. John A. Burns, as sub-deacon. Miss Caroline White presided at the organ. The bearers were Peter Mulligan, William Mulligan, James Mulligan, Peter Quinn, John Fraser and James White. Among the many beautiful floral tributes were: Mrs. J. J. Heffernan, Mrs. Anna Sullivan, Beatie O'Neil, Margaret Lynch, Katherine Masterson, Anna Ryan and Elizabeth O'Neil. Mrs. Miss Katherine O'Neil, and several sprays from other friends. Burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. W. George Mullin. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker James H. McDermott.

WELCH.—The funeral of Jeremiah Welch took place yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from his late home, 185 Lawrence street and at St. Peter's church at 10:15 a high mass of requiem was celebrated by the Rev. Daniel J. Heffernan. The choir rendered the Gregorian mass. There were several beautiful floral tributes. There was a large contingent of friends. Burial was in the family lot at St. Peter's church. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers H. J. McGinnis and J. J. Heffernan.

DALE.—The funeral of Miss Nora J. Dale took place yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from the home of her parents in the Lowell road, Tyngsboro, and was largely attended. A funeral high mass was celebrated in St. John's church, North Chelmsford, at 9 o'clock, by Rev. Edmund T. Schofield. The Gregorian chant was sung by the church choir. Miss Gertrude Quigley was the organist. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery, Lowell. The bearers were John Shee, Paul Dalton, Charles Fife, Thomas Heaton, Frank Dupras. The floral tributes included pieces from the following: Family of John Shee, Davey children, workmates at the Silesia Worsted Co., Mr. and Mrs. James Dalton, Madeline Mahoney and Ted Couillard, Mrs. Jennie McKeown, Tyngsboro friends, Mr. Frank McGrath and family, Mrs. Bridget Dalton and family, Miss Florence S. Noble, Mr. and Mrs. William Moehre and Mrs. Brady and daughter. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker C. H. Molloy.

MULLIGAN.—The funeral of Miss Mary Mulligan, an esteemed resident of this city, took place yesterday morning at 8 o'clock from the home of her brother, Peter Mulligan, 18 Burns street, and was largely attended. At St. Peter's church at 1 o'clock a solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. W. George Mullin, assisted by Rev. Daniel J. Heffernan, as deacon, and Rev. John A. Burns, as sub-deacon. Miss Caroline White presided at the organ. The bearers were Peter Mulligan, William Mulligan, James Mulligan, Peter Quinn, John Fraser and James White. Among the many beautiful floral tributes were: Mrs. J. J. Heffernan, Mrs. Anna Sullivan, Beatie O'Neil, Margaret Lynch, Katherine Masterson, Anna Ryan and Elizabeth O'Neil. Mrs. Miss Katherine O'Neil, and several sprays from other friends. Burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. W. George Mullin. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers H. J. McGinnis and J. J. Heffernan.

DALE.—The funeral of Miss Nora J. Dale took place yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from the home of her parents in the Lowell road, Tyngsboro, and was largely attended. A funeral high mass was celebrated in St. John's church, North Chelmsford, at 9 o'clock, by Rev. Edmund T. Schofield. The Gregorian chant was sung by the church choir. Miss Gertrude Quigley was the organist. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery, Lowell. The bearers were John Shee, Paul Dalton, Charles Fife, Thomas Heaton, Frank Dupras. The floral tributes included pieces from the following: Family of John Shee, Davey children, workmates at the Silesia Worsted Co., Mr. and Mrs. James Dalton, Madeline Mahoney and Ted Couillard, Mrs. Jennie McKeown, Tyngsboro friends, Mr. Frank McGrath and family, Mrs. Bridget Dalton and family, Miss Florence S. Noble, Mr. and Mrs. William Moehre and Mrs. Brady and daughter. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker C. H. Molloy.

MULLIGAN.—The funeral of Miss Mary Mulligan, an esteemed resident of this city, took place yesterday morning at 8 o'clock from the home of her brother, Peter Mulligan, 18 Burns street, and was largely attended. At St. Peter's church at 1 o'clock a solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. W. George Mullin, assisted